Manitou (Col.) Journal: G. W. Sny-der informs us that on last Sunday his prother Elmer discovered the entrance to another cave. It is located in Wil liam's canyon, above Bridal Veil Falls, in the side of the perpendicular rocks. Sunday was a very cold day, and as Elmer was walking along he noticed steam escaping from a crevice in the wall. Next day, by means of ropes, the Snyder brothers flet themselves down over the wall in the entrance. They have been exploring all week and the indications are now that when the cave is opened up it will be larger than the Cave of Winds. One room contains crystal formations, which are more beautiful than anything that has ever been seen in the cave line about Mani-An entrance will probably be made on the other side of the mountain, just above the Grand Caverns, which can readily be done.

Peace on Earth

Awaits that countless army of martyrs, whose ranks are constantly recruited from the victims of nervousness and nervous diseases. The price of the boon is a systematic course of Hostetter's Stom-ach Bitters, the finest and most genial of tonic nervines, pursued with reason-able persistence. Easier, pleasanter and safer this than to swash the victuallins department with pseudo-tonics, alco-holic or the reverse, beef extracts, nerve foods, narcotics, sedatives and poisons in disguise. "Tired Nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep," is the providential recu-perant of weak nerves, and this glo-rious franchise being usually the conse-quences of sound digestion and increased vigor, the great stomachic which insures both, is productive also of re-pose at the required time. Not unre-freshed awakens the individual who uses it, but vigorous, clear headed and tranquil. Use the Bitters also in fever and ague, rheumatism, kidney troubles, constipation and billiousness.

Arrived at Last. The St. Paul 9:45 express, which was due here Sunday morning, and which was snow bound above Sioux City for over thirty-six hours, was dug out and arrived here at 9:10
