THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS,

Rejoicing Among the Bulls in the Wheat Pit.

ACTIVE TRADING IN ALL FUTURES

Corn Shows a Slight Upward Tendency-Provisions Rule Slow But Steady-Buyers Holding Off-General Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, March 1 .- [Special Telegram to the Brs. |-There was a very cold front on the bull crowd in wheat this morning and prices for all futures not only opened 1/6%c higher than the closings, but advances were made during the forenoon under quite active trading. The deliveries of March were but trifling. Local receipts were forty-six cars, with an estimate of forty cars for Friday. Receipts throughout the northwest were light. At New York no wheat was received and the clearances were 50,000 bushels, with 7,000 bushels at Philadelphia. Local buying appeared to be general on the hopeful bull feeling but it expended itself with a 1/4c advance. March opened at 75%c and sold at 76%c. May opened 1/2%c better than the close at 80%c and sold between 80% @80%c before noon. June opened at 80%c and sold at 80%c and then advanced to 80%c reading the latter with May. The closing prices at 1 p. m. were: March 75%c, May 80%c, June 80%c, July 80%c.

Again there was not an No. 2 corn received at this point. The receipts were 191 cars and Friday's receipts were estimated at 193 cars. The closing prices at 1 p. m., though not the outside for the season, were from 1/2 to 1/2 better than last night. There was more strength shown in corn than anything else on the floor. There was not that persistent opposition to higher prices that was seen in the tactics of a few sellers of wheat. The trade in corn seemed whimsical at times changing from buyers to whimsical at times changing from buyers to sellers without change in quoted prices. The tendency, however, was upwards. There was liberial buying by Brine, Poole, Clifford and others, with some outside orders back of the buying. March sold from 47c to 47%c. May opened at 51%c, sold at 51%c and 51%c and closed at 51%c; June, 50%c to 51%c, closing at 51%c

Provisions were slow but steady, the most strength being in pork, which sold at $14.05@ 15.12½ and closed at $14.10@14.12½ for May, an advance of 5c over yesterday's close. Lard remained quiet at $7.80@7.82½ for May. The same parties who bought short ribs yesterday were in the market as buyers to day and took about 1,000,000 pounds of June at $7.45. Aside from their operations no important features were developed. Sales for May were at $7.35@7.3734, and June at $7.425@7.4734, and closed at 1 o'clock at

AFTERNOON SESSION-Wheat was a shade ATTERNOON SESSION—Wheat was a shade easier; May sold at 80% @803/cc, closing at 80% @803/cc, closing at 80% @803/cc, diene 80% c bid. Corn firm. Oats steady but quiet; March about 283/c. May closed at 313/c, June 319/c asked. Pork was a little easier in its tendency. Final quotations were $13.923/c for March, $14.10 for May, and $14.143/c for June. Lard for March closed at $7.70, May $7.80, June $7.85. Short ribs were strong; March closed nominally at $7.173/c, May $7.73/c/c.733/c/c. June $7.423/c/c. bid.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, March 1.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE—Trade opened slow with buyer's holding off until receipts were fully known. Business was not really under way till late in the day. The morning was wet and the stock did not show off to good advantage but as the forenoon wore away there was an improvement in the demand. There were fair orders on shipping account and the dressed beef dealers bought more libererally than for any day this week. Yet natives were 15@25c lower than Monday. Ten or twelve loads of common Texas cows and steers were among the arrivals, which had steers were among the arrivals, which had the effect of keeping the prices low on common native stock. Extra, $5.40@5.75; good steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs., $4.35@5.10; 1,200 to 1,500 lbs., $3.60@4.40; 950 to 1,200 lbs., $3.10@4.00. Stockers and feeders, $2.50@3.10. Cows, bulls and mixed, $1.90@3.30. Bulk, $2.40@2.90. Texas grassers, $2.50@3.10. Cornfed steers, $3.00@4.20.

Hoos—"It is the same old story," said a salesman. "The general market was active and a shade stronger on the opening, but there was a break in values, going back to about yesterday's average." A load or so of Philadelphias, or a quality equal to that grade, sold at $5.57½ and $5.60 and nice assorted butcher weights, averaging 240 to 250 pounds, sold at $5.40@5.45. Good mixed, $5.35@5.40 and light mixed $5.25@5.30. Assorted light of 165 to 175 pounds average were in good demand and sold at $5.56@5.30. Most salesmen were quoting prices 5@10c lower at the close.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK. General.

Union Stock Yards, 6 p. m. } Thursday, March 1, 1888. The receipts of hogs continue very light owing to the B. & M. strike, but there was a very decided increase in cattle receipts today. The weather, which was rainy and disagreeable, appeared to contribute its share toward depressing the market, which was lower on all kinds of stock.

The receipts were the heaviest this week, there being about fifty loads on sale. The general quality of the offerings was not very good and there were no choice heavy cattle among the receipts. The market was slow and dragging all day. The buyers wanted to take off 25c from yesterday's prices and salesmen were forced to concede a decline of 18625c. The number of cattle which changed 10@25c. The number of cattle which changed hands was not large as compared with the Hogs. The receipts were light, although slightly heavier than yesterday. There were a few medium weight hogs of fair quality but the average quality of the receipts was not good. The market was 5@10c lower and closed fully 10c lower. The receipts came in very scat tering and were not all in until afternoon which made a dragging market. About every thing was sold before the close.

Sheep. There were no fresh receipts and nothing doing in the market. .

The following quotations are wholesale and not retail. Prices quoted on produce are the rates at which round lots are sold on this market. Fruits or other lines of goods requiring extra labor in packing cannot always be supplied on outside orders at the same prices quoted for the local trade. Rates on flour and feed are jobbers prices. Prices in grain are those paid by Omaha millers delivered. All quotations on merchandise are obtained from leading houses and are corrected daily. Prices on crackers, cakes, etc., are those given by leading manufacturers.

Light receipts caused the markets to rule firm to-day, and prices, though quoted unchanged, can be considered accordingly. Very little butter came to hand, and such as did was of a poor quality. There was a good demand for better grades and buyers were looking for choice. Eggs came in freely but prices were maintained. Poultry was in light supply and fair demand. Fat and bright dressed stock got outside prices, but almost everything offered found a buyer. Other markets unchanged.
