GERMANS DEPENDENT.

Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett. BERLIN, March 3.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.]—Public interest is so concentrated on the San Remo invalid and the complications likely to arise from his death that except a few American personals there is little news worth cableing.

During the week Prince Bismarck had a long conference with Emperor William, it is supposed with reference to the proposal to grant Prince William power to sign in the event of the temporary incapacity of the emperor, concurrent with the prostration of the crown prince. It is reported the emperor accedes to the proposal.

The relations of Russia with the allied powers are taking developments exactly as was forecast. The diplomatic proposals of Russia have resulted in nothing definite, however. However much the czar may be averse to war it is believed the internal discord of Russia will soon force the czar to risk the future of the Rumanoff dynasty by challenging the central powers.

PASSED A QUIET NIGHT.

Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett. SAN REMO, March 3.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.]—The crown prince had a fairly good night. After the insertion of the new tube the blood ceased to appear and also expectation for a time, but they have since returned after violent fits of coughing.

RUSSIAN MILITARY CIRCLES IRRITATED.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 3.—The government has issued orders to expedite the collection of stores in Warsaw. Many officers who were on furlough have been recalled to their regiments.

WANT AN ARBITRATION TREATY.

PARIS, March 3.—The International Peace and Liberty league is circulating a petition for a permanent arbitration treaty between France and the United States. Up to the present time the petition has been signed by 1,000 persons, of whom 100 are members of the chamber of deputies.

INTERNAL DISSENSIONS.

DUBLIN, March 3.—The Express affirms there are internal dissensions in the Parnello ranks, which will produce a rupture that will shake the foundations of the national league. American inspiration, it says, is causing a number of leaguers to join the Gaelic association, which opposes Parnell's policy.

UNDER AMERICAN PROTECTION.

GIANT TARIFF, March 3.—The United States war ship Enterprise will proceed to Tampa to support the demand of the American consul at that place for the release of a Moor under American protection and who is imprisoned at Rabat.

THE GOULD SAGE MATTER.

Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett. LONDON, March 3.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.]—It was easy to find financial magnates who had read the cables from New York about the action of the grand jury in anticipating a defense for Messrs. Gould and Sage, but it was difficult to get from them any direct expression of opinion.

ONLY A FEW WILLING TO TALK.

The result was not such but were simply section men who took advantage of the occasion to come west to better their condition.

THE GOULD SAGE MATTER.

There were a number of visitors to the hall during the day, among them Deputy Secretary of State Cowdry and Attorney General Leach. The attorney general had a long conference with the leading men in the brotherhood regarding their side of the question, their demands and the wages they received. It may become necessary for the state board of transportation to take similar action in Nebraska as the state commission of Iowa has taken to see what character of men the company are using and employing and to take such steps as the public safety may demand.

THE GOULD SAGE MATTER.

Resolved, That we, the Plasterers' union No. 27, of Lincoln, do hereby tender our sympathy, both moral and financial, to the two brotherhoods of locomotive engineers, firemen, and we condemn any persons who aid the corporation in their unjust attempts to destroy the brotherhood.
