

ENDORSED BY THE SENATE.

The Dependent Pension Bill Passes
By a Good Majority.

ALL AMENDMENTS REJECTED.

A Monstrous Petition Presented to the Senate Against the Admission of Utah—Congressional Proceedings.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Among the petitions and memorials presented and referred was one, said to have 100,000 signatures, from twenty-three states and territories, against the admission of Utah as a state as long as its people are under control of the Mormon priesthood.

Among the bills reported and placed on the calendar were the following:

To provide for a joint celebration at the national capital by the sixteen American republics in honor of the centennial of the patent republic—the United States.

Giving the right of way to the Duluth, Rainy Lake & Southwestern railway company through Indian lands in Minnesota.

The senate then considered consideration of the bill granting pensions to ex-soldiers and sailors who are incapacitated for the performance of manual labor, and providing for pensions to dependent relatives of deceased soldiers and sailors, the question being on the amendment offered by Wilson of Iowa to add the words "The infirmities of age."

Mr. Manderson replied to some remarks made by Senator Vest last week. He quoted from the report of the commissioner of pensions showing that on October 15, 1887, there were in Missouri alibis 3838 ex-soldiers and sixty-two dependent relatives, and in the whole United States 16,856 ex-soldiers and 1,945 dependent relatives—in the national soldiers' home 13,153 inmates, making a total of 37,153 ex-soldiers and their dependents dependent on charitable institutions.

In contradiction of Mr. Vest's statement that 50 per cent of those enrolled during the war were disabled, Mr. Manderson for pensions, he showed there were 367,424 invalid pensions granted, and 240,692 for widows, children or dependent relatives; in other words, there were of pensioners and claimants not over 24 per cent of the whole number.

Mr. Manderson believed the bill practical, sensible and patriotic. He would vote against any and every amendment to the bill, believing it was as it came from the committee, a simple, straightforward measure of immediate relief to real sufferers.

Mr. Hartwell, of New York, finally was convinced that the class which would be included within the benefits of the bill by his amendment would be excluded without it, he would vote for it even if he voted alone.

The question was taken and Wilson's amendment was rejected—yeas 43, nays 37. The bill was then reported back from the committee of the whole and the amendments therin voted on. The first vote was on the amendment offered by Call to make the bill apply to those who served in the war with Mexico, and only five in the bill were with Indian tribes. Rejected—31 to 37. The next vote was on Plumbe's amendment striking out the word "incapacitated" before the word "incapacitated" and it was rejected—yeas 44; nays 42. The bill then passed—yeas 44; nays 16, as follows:

J. H. Boaler of Carroll, Pa., one of the stockholders in the South Omaha land syndicate, came into town yesterday and will remain here for several days.

Mike Maul of Drexel & Maul, left last evening for San Diego, Cal., where he will remain until he recovers from some of the infirmities of his recent illness. He will stop at Ogden for a short time on his way to the coast and visit the hot springs near that place.

BREVITIES.

M. D. Long, formerly county clerk of Holt county, came to the metropolis yesterday, got on a roaring drunk, and last night was run in by Officer McGrath, on South Sixteenth street.

Yesterday afternoon was the time set for the hearing of Mrs. A. O'Reilly's case, who is charged by her husband with being criminally intimate with C. F. Tuttle. After learning the facts in the case Assistant County Attorney Gurley decided to dismiss the case.

The following insane wards of the county will be taken to Lincoln to-day by Sheriff Coburn: Mrs. Hinze, Dorie Pohler, Charles Fielder, Christopher Hartel, Delia Brown, Patrick Cody and Patrick Brennan.

Over five hundred tags for licensed dogs have been taken out, and applications are now beginning to thicken and fast.

The prescribed time is up Saturday evening, after that the untagged canines will be slain indiscriminately.

James A. Brown, Lieutenant colonel commanding the Omaha (Second) regiment, K. of P., has ordered an assembly of all the officers and members of the same at the hall, March 14, on which occasion Governor Thayer will be present and review the organization. All the knights will be in full dress.

Yesterday he may meet a BEE reporter and tell him that he had just been notified by a friend in the saloon he kept that the recent order of the license inspector to close up the saloons of all proprietors who fail to make a full payment of $1,000 by the first of April was going to meet with an organized resistance. The mayor has met this with a counter-threat, and says that if the saloon men carry out their purpose he will spring something else on them.

The bill was passed by a large majority for the allotment of land in severality on the White Earth and Red Lake reservations to the Chippewa Indians in Minnesota, and for opening up to settlement of the other reservations of those Indians in that state.

The house adjourned.

Making a Clean Sweep.

Two United States marshals appointed by the predecessors of President Cleveland are still in office. They are General Banks of Massachusetts, whose commission expired December 15, last, and who is holding or under a temporary appointment by the court and Marshal Ellis Bierbower, of this state, whose commission will not expire until February 11, 1889, but who can, according to telegrams to the democratic papers from Washington, hardly expect to retain his office later than May next. The nomination Wednesday of a new register of land office at Neligh, Neb., reduces the number of registers and receivers holding over from previous administrations to 13 out of 22.

English Comments.

"Colgate & Co. are the oldest soap makers in America, and have evidently profited by their long experience."

Another Cutting Affair.
El Paso, Tex., March 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Senor L. Del Olmo, an Italian residing in El Paso Del Norte, was arrested to-day by Mexican officials on the charge of violating article 106, the famous article under which A. K. Cutting was arrested. This article gives the Mexican authorities power to punish offenses committed outside of Mexico. The particular offense charged against Del Olmo is defaming the Mexican government.

On Saturday a "confidential" interview with the editor of the El Paso (Tex.) Times, Del Olmo stated that he was an employee of the Mexican government, that he had in his possession documents authorizing him to settle the international sewer question and the like. The editor of the Times, John W. Harvey, of El Paso, the Mexican editor, J. Escobar, published a card in the El Paso Times to-day denying that Del Olmo was an employee of the Mexican government.

A Sensational Suicide.

Chicago, March 8.—A sensational suicide case developed here to-day. Miss Josie McCullen, forewoman in a fashionable manicure establishment, was found dead early this morning, having poisoned herself. From letters found and remarks made by her yesterday, it is inferred she committed the deed on account of grief over the suicide of W. S. Hartwell, freight agent of Chicago & North Western railway yesterday. Miss McCullen was taken into Hartwell's family three years ago as a servant, and it is asserted left a few months ago because Mrs. Hartwell was dissatisfied with the interest taken in her by her husband. A letter found in a small girl given to Hartwell, written out before his suicide, admonished her to be brave and courageous, and "remember our pledge."

Steamship Arrivals.

New York, March 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Arrived.—The steamer Elbe, from Bremen; the State of Pennsylvania, from Glasgow; the Asia, from Mediterranean ports; the Pennland from Antwerp.

Funeral of Miss Alcott.

Boston, March 8.—The funeral services of Miss Alcott were held to-day. They were entirely private, only invited friends being present. The burial was in the old "Sleepy Hollow" graveyard at Concord.

The Death Record.

Baltimore, March 8.—A dispatch from Charleston, W. Va., says that General D. H. Strother, "Port Crayon," died there to-day.
