THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS.

An Enormous Quantity of Wheat Offered For Sale.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CRICAGO, March 16 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE. |- Nature favored the wheat bears this morning and they welcomed her assistance and took advantage of it to the extent of driving the price of wheat down about another 36c. There seemed an enormous amount of wheat for sale, with the other few shorts who were willing to take in their profits the principal buyers. The down turn was greatly helped by the coming out of long wheat on stop loss orders. Foreign influence was felt only in selling orders from the other side. May wheat opened here at 79%c, which was %c above yesterday's closing, and worked up early to 79% @ 79% e, then declined to 78%c, reacted to 79c and on the next down turn touched 78%c, advanced again to 78%c, fell to 78%c and closed at 1 o'clock at 78% @78%c. June wheat opened at 79% @79%c, sold at 79%c straight and down to 79%c, closing at 1 o'clock at the last named prices.

Prices in the speculative corn market followed the course of wheat, but there was better support here at the decline and the drop was smaller, although the close was very near the lowest point of the session. The rumor of a general strike, which was found so depressing in the wheat pit, had the same influence here, but the probable restoration of freight rates, which it was thought would cut down receipts, went a long way toward counteracting its effect. May delivery closed only  $\frac{1}{2}$  ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) clower than yesterday afternoon. The corn bears have been countered to the counterprise of the counterpris afternoon. The corn bears have been counting on this declining market to so discourage farmers that it would largely increase their deliveries and this restoration of freight rates takes the force out of that reasoning. May corn opened at 51½c and worked up early to 51¾651½c, then fell to 50½c, reacted to 51%651½s and closed at 1 o'clock at 50½651c. June corn opened at 51c asked, and to 51½c down to 51½c and closed at sold up to 51 kc, down to 50 kc and closed at that price at 1 o clock.

There was a fair speculative trade in oats and the weakness in the other grain markets was reflected here but slightly, except in more deferred futures. May outs opened at 31c, sold at 31@31½c and at 30½c and closed at 1 o'clock at 30½@31c. June outs opened at 31c, sold down to and closed at 30½c. August costs sold down from $271.0 to $271.0 from $271.0 from $271.0 to $2 alc, sold down to and closed at 30%c. August oats sold down from 27%c to 27%c. For July oats 30%c was asked.

In provisions a fair showing of strength was manifested. Prices were a little lower than yesterday, but the decline suffered was more through sympathy with grain than from any weakness in the market or change in feeling. Based on last nightly closings. in feeling. Based on last night's closings, pork was quoted at 1 o'clock 5c and lard and short ribs at 5@754c lower.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—Wheat firmer, May

AFTERNOON SESSION.—Wheat firmer, May closing at 78½ (a.78½ c. July 79½ c. Corn firm, Oats firmer. Pork was 7½ c higher and closed at $14.02½ for March, $14.15 (a)4.17½ for May and $14.20(a)4.22½ for June. Lard strong; March closed at $7.57½, May $7.62½ (a)7.65, June $7.67½, July $7.72½.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, March 16 .- | Special Telegram to the BRE. |-CATTLE-Trade was fair considering the large number of 22,000 in two days and the large increase over the receipts of last week. Buyers were in the saddle at an early hour and commenced operations on a liberal scale. As to prices, there was a variety of opinion, many salesmen quoting a decline of 10c and others a steady market. It was whispered that a "tip" was out that there would be some difficulty with the engineers on eastern roads, hence the anxiety of shippers to get something ahead on the roads. Shippers took 4,670 yesterday, the market closing steady, and to-day it was es-timated that they would take a larger number. Select steers, $5.40; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs., $4.00@4.50; 950 to 1,200 lbs., $3.00@4.00. Stockers and feeders, $2.35@3.60; cows, bulls and mixed, $2.10@3.40; bulk, $2.50@2.75. Texas-fed steers, $350@4.20; cows, $2.25@2.50. Steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $4.40@5.15.

Hogs-Prices underwent another down-turn of about 10c this morning, making a decline of 20c for the week so far. 'At the decline there was an active shipping and spec-ulative demand, but the big packing firms were not as liberal buyers as yesterday, claiming that as the men would not work more than half a day to-morrow they could not handle their average number. A few prime heavy made $5.40@5.55. Butcher weights of 225 to 260 lbs made $5.35. Mixed, averaging 200 to 160 lbs, made $5.30@5.35. Light mixed, 180 to 220 lbs, $5.20@5.25.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, March 16 .- [Special Telegram to the BEE. |-STOCKS-Stocks are lower with few exceptions and the market is still inactive and very much unsettled. The biggest drop is in Baltimore & Ohio in a decline of 114(@114 points and the Pacifics come next in a fall of 1%@1% points. On the general list the abatement ranges & @ 16 points, but the market must be noted as lacking in firmness of tone even at the quotations at which it closed. The market opened very tame and the little business entered into was at concessions, though only to a fractional extent. The long interruption of general business gave an opportunity for the bear element to gain the ascendancy. The absence of foreign advices as well as home telegraphic orders was a serious hindrance. The professionals, in offering a few stocks at lower prices, met very little resistance. The total sales were 178,000 shares.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

General.

Union Stock Yards, 6 p. m. Friday, March 16, 1888. Look out for an increase in receipts of stock, more especially cattle, between this time and the first of April. The general tone of the market to-day was lower, the receipts

The receipts of cattle to-day were fair and the quality averaged well with those of the past few days. The local demand was only fair and fears of a strike on some roads and a decline in other markets made shippers very cautious. The market on most grades was about steady, being a shade lower on others. Trading was quite active and about 350 head changed hands. The market closed

Hogs.

The receipts were moderate, the general quality fair, there being some very good hoge among the offerings. Reports from Chicago indicated a decline and buyers began offering lower prices. Salesmen were slow to concede the decline and for a time the market was slow until about noon, when trading became quite active at a decline of 10 cents, in some cases 15 cents. The local packers were heavy buyers, Armour and the Omaha packing company taking most of the receipts. The market closed with everything

Sheep.

There were no fresh receipts to-day and nothing was done on the market. Prices are steady. When the Swift packing house resteady. opens shippers may anticipate a good sheep market here,
