

COMPLAINTS OF SHIPPERS.

The Inter-State Commission Hears the Grievance of Beatrice.

A FARM HAND'S CROOKEDNESS.

He Robs His Employer of Money and Gold Rings and Absconds—District Court Suits—Capital City News.

[FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.]

The inter-state commerce commission continued its session in this city yesterday in the closing work of hearing complaints at this point. The first case taken up yesterday was that one brought by the Beatrice board of trade and citizens against roads centering there. The complaint was found defective in many ways, especially as the rates of a number of roads were made the subject of complaint against the local road terminating in the city. Their complaint alleged that the Union Pacific discriminated against the place on eastern shipments but they failed to cite the eastern connections that assisted in formulating the rate exacted. Discrimination was cited as being made by the Union Pacific and Burlington roads against Beatrice and in favor of Omaha, Lincoln and Hastings. The commission decided to accept testimony notwithstanding the lack of the papers to come up to the requirements. A number of Beatrice citizens were put upon the stand and their testimony given.

They testified that one complaint was that a number of interior towns were given Missouri river rates, while the same rates or proportionate rates, were denied to them. Among the places cited as having this advantage in rates are Tecumseh, Auburn, Pawnee City and Dunbar. Testimony was also given regarding the rates on lumber and merchandise now in force on shipments to that point compared with rates on like shipments at other times. One of the reasons for the cases was practically consolidated with this Beatrice case. A good many Beatrice citizens were in attendance at the hearing of this case and a number of prominent attorneys and citizens from other parts of the state have listened to the different cases.

During their stay in this city the commission have had rooms at the Windsor hotel where a number of citizens have called upon them. Judge Cooley is always ready to talk with them. William R. Morrison talks with them. Mr. Walker talks about the western country which he greatly enjoys and Mr. Bragg is an attentive listener to all.

ONE JUDGE MARRYS ANOTHER.

Peonial Ceremony Presided Over By Mr. Shields. When Judge Shields came down to the county court yesterday morning to deal out justice he drew from his inside pocket a marriage license which he deposited in the pigeon hole set apart for the reception of these precious documents. The judge looked like a man who had performed some sort of a benevolent act for his fellow man, and his face was wreathed in smiles. To a Bes reporter he said that he had been "exchanging the courtesies of the profession" and had called in the holy bonds of matrimony from the county judge of Saunders county, and Miss Frankie Compton, of Ashland, Neb. The ceremony was performed at the Millard building, after shaking hands with the newly made couple and wishing them long life and happiness, took his departure.

The curious feature about the ceremony being performed in Omaha instead of at the home of the bride or groom was that Mr. Compton had had taken with him a marriage license, nor could he become possessed with one unless he resigned his office and deposited a man vested with the full power of a county judge to do the thing. After this being done, Mr. Terpenning feared complications might arise, and rather than have to go through the formalities he and his bride decided to come to this city and be married.

This is a case on record where a county judge resigned and deposited his clerk as a common law clerk, and was permitted to marry. This was the case of ex-County Judge McCulloch, who was serving on the bench when he married, and temporarily endowed his clerk, George Gurley, with all the powers of a judge.

A Twenty Dollar Objection. Paddy Ryan, the pugilistic negro who was ejected from the meeting of colored voters Thursday night on account of disorderly conduct, was called to account by the police for a twenty dollar objection. After this excuse he had to offer was that he disagreed with some of the speakers, but the judge thought this was insufficient to justify his unpardonable proceeding and fined him $20 and costs.

Boils, pimples, lives, ringworms, tetter, and all other manifestations of impure blood are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Paving For Fremont. Ross L. Hammond, editor of the Fremont Tribune, is in the city. The purpose of Mr. Hammond's visit is to investigate the various systems of pavement. The Tribune is agitating the question of paving the streets of Fremont and the people are deeply interested in the matter. It is very probable that several of the streets of that thriving city will be substantially paved in a short time.

For Throat Diseases, Coughs, Colds, etc., effectual relief is found in the use of the following: "Hood's Coughs." Price 25 cts. Sold only in boxes.

Mrs. Ballantine's Grief. Mrs. M. Ballantine was called to Brunswick, Mo., Monday by the serious illness of her mother. On reaching her old home the lady was informed that her mother was dead, and to add to her weight of woe, she found her father in a serious condition. Mrs. Ballantine is the wife of the chief clerk of the internal revenue office, this city.

Graceful forms, abundant tresses, sparkling eyes, our praise invite, but a blemish that distresses, and the loveliest face will blight—Teeth uncleanly and unheeded; SOZODONT for such is needed.

Licensed to Wed. The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday by Judge Shields: Name and Residence. Age. (Dor) Tarpenning, Wahoo, Neb., 29; Frankie Compton, Ashland, Neb., 29; George F. Holcomb, Munday, Ia., 23; Daisy Douglas, Lehigh, Neb., 18.

An exchange says: There are more puns made on Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, free of charge, than are paid for by the owners. A good thing deserves the notice of the press.

In the treatment of rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, sciatica, etc., Salivation Oil should be thoroughly rubbed in. It kills pain. Price 25 cents.

Mrs. Mount Recovering. Mrs. Mount, the estimable wife of County Commissioner Mount, who had her shoulder dislocated by a fall from her horse, is now recovering from her injury.

The state live stock commission has arrangements made to have seven veterinarians in the field from April, and every case docketed will be disposed of as speedily as possible.
