Prohibitionists Out in Force. Every seat in the Opera house was filled last evening, and considerable space utilized as standing room at the grand temperance mass meeting in which nearly all of the churches in the city united. Music was furnished by the combined city choirs. The addresses of the evening were all earnest temperance pleas, and were directed against the open saloons of the city. There was no mingling of the sexes, and the causes were freely discussed.

The present policy of the city government in allowing saloons to run openly in defiance of the prohibitory law was severely condemned. Mr. Jacob Sims was especially outspoken, and declared that the chief executive of the city was in a conspiracy with the saloonkeepers, and opposed to enforcing the law.

At the close of the meeting the following resolution was introduced: Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that Mayor Hohler be urgently requested to enforce the prohibitory law and we pledge him our earnest support.

The resolution passed almost unanimously. A collection was taken to defray the expenses of the meeting, and it was announced that the surplus, if any remained, would be devoted to the enforcement of the law.

Situation of the Motor Line.

The delay in getting the motor line in readiness for operation does not seem to be caused entirely by the railroad companies, and it is thought that if the city council would take certain steps within its power, the obstructions might be cleared away and the line would soon be in active operation.

A BEE reporter yesterday interviewed Mr. Reed, the present owner of the motor line franchise and learned some facts regarding the same that may be of interest to the public.

When asked as to the exact state of affairs now existing, Mr. Reed said: "In order that you may understand just what I had to contend against, and why the line is not already completed, I will begin at the beginning of my connection with the enterprise and give you its whole history up to the present time. When I purchased Mr. J. K. Graves' franchise, I was taken the understanding by an interested party that there would be no delay caused in crossing the tracks of the railroad companies and that the completion of the motor line from the dummy depot on Broadway to Lake Manawa. After completing the purchase I was proceeding to have the crossing condemned according to law, when the attorney of the railroads got out an injunction to prevent the condemnation proceedings from going on. If possible I wanted to get the matter settled, instead of taking it to the courts. Winter came on about that time, and as nothing could be done toward coming the line at that season, even if the way was clear, the matter rested until spring opened the way for further work. The compromise plan was finally adopted, and the contract after that was sent to railroad headquarters was sent back unsigned, and sometimes without a reasonable excuse for doing so. If possible I wanted to get the work done without incurring any hard feelings, but have thus far been unsuccessful. A right of way was granted for a motor line, but the railroads have only to ask the court for an injunction to stop it, and it is granted. The railroad attorneys seek in several ways to prevent the crossing, and in a number of instances I can trace hindrances put directly to his ingenuity. Now it is not to be supposed that one railroad is at all willing to have its tracks crossed by any other line, but there is no doubt in my mind but what there is a far different motive in all the talk about the objection of these companies. A petition asking the council to interfere was circulated and over a hundred signatures were secured, but it was never presented to the council. It was smothered somewhere. The board of trade has now taken the matter in hand, and their committee reports to-night. I understand that the report is favorable. I hope that the result will be more successful than the railroads have been in their resistance will be overcome. Now, if it was not for this, I could have the line running by the 1st of May. With the exception of these crossings the track is all laid. The values crossing has already been put in, and the jury that was appointed to condemn the 'stock track' of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy will probably finish its work to-night."

The Partnership of God and Man.

The extremely unpleasant weather of yesterday kept many persons from venturing beyond their homes and the attendance at the various churches suffered in consequence. Broadway Methodist was well filled. The sermon was an effective one and was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. W. H. W. Kees. The regular discourse since the revival services were begun several weeks ago.

He chose for his text 1 Cor. iii-9, "We are laborers together with God, etc." "This," said the speaker, "is a most wonderful passage of scripture. It has in it the epitome of the divine economy. In it you can almost see the incarnation of Christ; the sufferer in the dying Lord; the baptism of the Holy Spirit; the beginning and ending of the plan of redemption.
