Table with 2 columns: Day, Circulation. Rows for Monday through Friday, with average circulation of 20,345.

Sworn to and subscribed to by G. B. Tzschuck, Notary Public. This 30th day of March, A. D. 1888.

CALIFORNIA finds Chinese farm labor too high and has imported three hundred negroes to take the Chinamen's places.

JOSEPH SOKEPE is the name of a democratic assessor in Chicago. It is rare indeed that a man's name will reveal his politics as well as occupation.

JAY GOULD has uttered his tongue and is letting the public know what he thinks of the grand jury proceedings against himself and Sage.

THE president, cashier and porter of Raleigh, North Carolina, bank have absconded with $250,000.

"DEACON" WHITE, the New York congressman, who divides his attention between congress and speculating in Union Pacific stock, has written a letter declaring that he will under no circumstances be a candidate for re-election.

OMAHA has an efficient police force now, and there is no excuse for tolerating the importation of armed non-resident so-called Pinkerton detectives, who claim to exercise police powers in this city for the Burlington road.

CHAIRMAN JONES, of the republican national committee, was interviewed in New York city, and gave encouraging news that things are crystallizing in the republican party.

SINCE the debate on the pension bill in congress, there has been no important measure or debate in either house. Senators and congressmen, however, are leading up for attacks on the Mills tariff bill, which will be presented for their consideration.

THAT resolution to empower Hascall and Cousman to procure plans for a $300,000 city hall building on Jefferson square by competition or otherwise would have paved the way for a very nice job.

STREETS that have cost property owners thousands of dollars for paving, sewerage and the like are now being undermined and destroyed by rains and melting snow.

The Presidential Bee. A half dozen republican senators have the presidential bee in their bonnets. Senator Sherman long ago heard it buzz and is manly enough to admit that he is not politically deaf.

Senator Allison admits that he has detected something like a "hum." His state is solidly behind him and he generally feels very friendly towards Iowa's favorite son.

General Hawley has been somewhat reticent of late, and his air of abstraction has led many friends to believe that he could be prevailed upon to accept the first place upon the republican ticket.

A High License Lesson. Philadelphia is supplying a most instructive lesson as to the value of high license in restricting the saloon interest.

There are at present six thousand saloons in Philadelphia, but if the proposition of licenses granted to those refused so far shall be maintained, there will be just starting in the traffic.

The patent monopolies in agricultural implements have for years led the farmers of the west out of hundreds of thousands of dollars for the benefit of a few manufacturing concerns who have purchased the brain work of inventors.

Omaha is by all odds the best paved city in the west, but she will within less than ten years be one of the worst paved cities in America, if her property owners persist in laying cedar block traffic in cities, and its ultimate universal application to large communities is as certain as the growth of intelligent public opinion.

The Republican Plan. It seems to be understood that the republicans in congress will have a plan regarding the reduction of revenue, but there is some difference of opinion as to what it may be.

It is wholly useless for the democrats in congress to complain, at this late day, of the cowardice of Mr. Carlisle in constructing the house committees, and particularly of his retention of Randall at the head of the appropriations committee.

For a Good Boy. Col. Dan. Lamont has just had a new post office named after him. It is in Kansas.

Big Blizzard, Little Wizard. The big blizzard has gone and the little wizard has come.

Torch-Light Brigades. As a general rule campaign clubs obstruct rather than promote a healthy political development.

A Supreme Court Decision. The decision of the supreme court in its favor seems to have made more arrogant than ever that most arrogant of all monopolies—the Bell Telephone company.

The Worth of a Wart. The wart on the face of General Grant, which is faithfully reproduced in his portraits on the counterfeits, and its omission furnishes a ready means of detection.

A Queer Victory. Philadelphia Record. More suits have been instituted by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company for the purpose of preventing western railroads and engineers from impeding the course of freight traffic issuing from the Burlington system.

A Place Above Party. Partisan considerations should not enter into the question of the appointment to the chief justiceship.

STATE AND TERRITORY. Nebraska Jottings. Readler has nailed a tow and twine mill and a sewer contract.

pavement because it is the cheapest. Whether cedar blocks are laid on sand or concrete they are sure to decay and to pieces within five or six years.

The Pinkerton outrights imported by the Burlington road and spread over the state to club and insult peaceable citizens, avowedly cultivating a necktie party.

It was not so long ago that the Pinkerton thug grabbed him by the arm and insisted on seeing his ticket.

It is unlawful to catch fish with a seine in Iowa waters before July 15.

Dakota. Fladrau has just formed a creamery company. Good farm hands are reported scarce in various parts of Dakota.

He Has No Interest in the $10,000 Stake Money. Interest in the great bicycle race that has been threatening for some time to take place between McCurdy and Prince was revived yesterday.

Police Court. The auditors' cage was literally jammed yesterday with a motley crowd of the morbidly curious.

Playing With Matches. New York, March 29.—At 9:30 this morning two children belonging to Mrs. Fagan, of 336 East Forty-ninth street, were burned in a fire, which, it is thought, was caused by playing with matches.

Garbage Collectors Arrested. Garbagemaster Goldsmith caused the arrest of four different garbage collectors yesterday for hauling garbage.

Licensed to Wed. The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday by Judge Shields:

Good Friday Observance. New York, March 29.—All exchanges in this city will be closed to-morrow.

division, will be called Morse Bluff, in order that the station name may conform to that of the postoffice.

The State Democrat has issued a handsome spring edition of Lincoln's growth and prosperity and future prospects.

It is a compact and attractive review of the capital city, its railroad facilities, manufacturing, wholesale trade and general business.

Edson Keith sets forth in his complaint filed yesterday, that he holds a mortgage on a certain piece of real estate to secure the payment of a promissory note for $800, given by Tom W. Adams.

Division of Property. Mary Vanans, Anthony Vanans and Louis Vanans yesterday asked the court to divide equally among them lots 8 and 9 in block 37, South Omaha.

Mat. Keith's New Trial. The trial of Mat. Keith, charged with robbing a man of a gold watch, at the King's saloon some months ago, will be recalled on Monday next.

The Murder Cases Set Over. The trial of Fred Ryan, charged with the murder of Mrs. Howard, and that of Kelly, who killed a man at South Omaha, have been put over until the next term of court.

Doesn't Belong to McCurdy. He has no interest in the $10,000 stake money.

The Worth of a Wart. The wart on the face of General Grant, which is faithfully reproduced in his portraits on the counterfeits, and its omission furnishes a ready means of detection.

A Queer Victory. Philadelphia Record. More suits have been instituted by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company for the purpose of preventing western railroads and engineers from impeding the course of freight traffic issuing from the Burlington system.

A Place Above Party. Partisan considerations should not enter into the question of the appointment to the chief justiceship.

STATE AND TERRITORY. Nebraska Jottings. Readler has nailed a tow and twine mill and a sewer contract.

Third party tickets threaten to break up several municipal "slates" next Tuesday.

Loup City's creamery is a blooming success. The test of the plant was satisfactory to the owners and a joyful treat for the citizens.

Omaha is by all odds the best paved city in the west, but she will within less than ten years be one of the worst paved cities in America, if her property owners persist in laying cedar block was convinced that it was the circumstances that surrounded men that made them. He felt that he could say "I am not a politician."

It was not so long ago that the Pinkerton thug grabbed him by the arm and insisted on seeing his ticket.

It is unlawful to catch fish with a seine in Iowa waters before July 15.
