

THE CITY.

Yesterday's internal revenue collections amounted to $2,083.00.

Robert Lumpkin, the Union Pacific engineer who is charged with thumping a B. & M. cab last Saturday evening, was arraigned yesterday afternoon but secured a continuance until the 11th at 2 p. m.

Five military convicts now confined at Fort Omaha—Michael Meyer, William King, Henry K. Walls, William H. Rorig and John H. Warren—have been ordered sent to the Fort Leavenworth military prison under guard.

A brief session of the board of public works was held yesterday afternoon. The bill of J. P. Smith amounting to $20.40, for bridging the sunken sewer at Twenty-eighth and Farnam streets, was allowed. The bond of the Nebraska and Colorado Stone company, which was awarded the contract for paving sidewalks, was accepted.

The reserve of J. E. Riley, amounting to $219.61, on sewer district 45, Farnam street, Thirty-first to Thirty-sixth, was allowed. A painter named John Oliver was caught by the workmen in the Murray building filling his pockets with their tools yesterday afternoon. After they had kicked about every square inch of his anatomy, they called in the police and had him sent to the central station, where he awaits his arraignment before the judge this morning.

Two members of the evangelical alliance called upon the mayor yesterday and insisted on his preventing the young men of the city from playing ball on Sunday. The mayor looked decidedly bored and told them that there was no ordinance to prevent the boys from thus enjoying themselves.

Personal Paragraphs. R. C. Jefferson, of St. Paul, is at the Paxton.

Mr. V. J. Williams, of Lehigh, Ia., is in the city.

Mr. Charles Jennings, of Lehigh, Ia., is in the city visiting friends.

J. B. Finley, a very heavy property holder in this city, arrived yesterday from his home in Pennsylvania and is stopping at the Paxton.

Mr. Alfred Wilkie Lear, formerly with C. D. Hess' opera company, passed through this city yesterday, by noon train, en route for Melbourne, Australia via San Francisco, sailing from thence Thursday, April 5, per P. S. Mariposa.

Five New Clerks. Postmaster Gallagher yesterday increased his clerical force by the addition of five new appointees in the postal department.

Van Wyck at Plattsmouth. General C. H. Van Wyck will deliver an address upon the leading issues of the day at Plattsmouth. A large gathering is expected in honor of the occasion.

Saloon Licenses. One hundred and ninety-two saloon men had paid the required $750 yesterday. The total amount, $144,000, makes a very handsome showing.

Gone Up the Spout. John A. King, the proprietor of 1302 Farnam, P. J. Kirby, North Sixteenth street, and Baldwin at Fourteenth and Howard, proprietors unable to meet the $750 license were closed yesterday.

Searching for a Husband. Mrs. Ella Burton, of Grand Rapids, Mich., writes Chief Seavy for information regarding her husband, who has been missing since February, and whom she heard had been seen in this city.

Recalcitrant Witnesses. Deputy United States Marshal Allen took John Holley and R. E. Owens to Dubuque, Ia., to appear as witnesses in a case in that city for sending obscene matter through the mails. These two men refused to obey a summons and had to be taken by writ of attachment.

Broke a Leg. Mike Roffella, an Italian laborer employed in cleaning the streets, while engaged in lifting a heavy "apron," used as a crossing from the gutter to the curb, slipped and fell, the heavy weight striking him on the right leg, breaking it at the ankle. Dr. Ralph took the wounded man to a station, where the fractured limb was set.

Invited to Washington. The Omaha Board of Trade is in receipt of an invitation from the Philadelphia commercial exchange asking them to send a delegation to Washington next May to participate in a national meeting of all the boards of trade, at which several amendments will be discussed to the inter-state laws with a view of improving them.

Went Over the Belt Line. W. N. Nason, chairman of the manufacturer's committee of the board of trade, and Secretary George M. Natterer, together with a number of members from the board yesterday afternoon went over the belt line in a private car with a view of selecting sites for manufacturing purposes. There are a large number of manufacturers anxious to locate in Omaha, and if proper arrangements can be made they will come in at once.

Gone Down the River. Two of the engineers engaged upon the new bridge attempted to cross the Big Muddy in a skiff yesterday and were caught amongst the floating ice and carried out of sight below the city. The men were soon working for their lives, but were powerless to free themselves from the swiftly moving floes and were compelled to take an involuntary journey. There is no telling how far they may be carried down the river, but there is little danger but what they will finally come out all right.

New Freight Schedule. A new joint freight tariff to go into force April 8, has been issued by the Great Northern, Chicago & North Western, and Rock Island roads. It shows the rates of through rates from the seaboard to Council Bluffs, Omaha and all points throughout this state and Kansas. The former differentials in all through west bound freight from the coast to Chicago continue. East bound the sum of the two locals from the regular through rate. All the lines agree to adhere to this new schedule, and thus end all further cutting.

Proposals for Printing. City Comptroller Goodrich had up till noon yesterday received four proposals for the furnishing of blanks and books for [unclear] by the city officials, and will turn them over to the council for their consideration this evening, when the contract will doubtless be awarded. It is said the action of the council in deciding to do this work by contract was a mistake, and that better books and paper are furnished under the present system, whereas under the contract system becomes established inferior work and material will be submitted.

More Runaway Cars. Four freight cars which were standing on the Union Pacific siding at Shoely's station broke loose last night about 8 o'clock and ran at terrific speed down the grade towards this city. The runaways, however, were discovered in time to stop their flight at the latter point, and thus what might have been a terrific accident, was avoided. The overland flyer from the east on the Union Pacific was due about that time, and it was only by very rapid work on the part of employees of the road that the cars were captured and placed on a side track before the flyer started. Just how the cars started is not known, but the officials of the road say that the occurrence was purely accidental.

Ladies in Politics. Three vacancies—that of treasurer, moderator and director—having occurred in school district No. 21, an election was ordered for Monday, which resulted in the election of three ladies to fill the vacant offices, as follows: Director, Dr. Julia E. Vandercook; treasurer, Mrs. Anna S. Whitted; moderator, Mrs. J. P. Brown.

Licensed to Wed. The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday by Judge Shields: Name and Residence. Age.

Table with columns: Name and Residence, Age. Includes Ernest V. Rowley, Omaha, 20; Nellie Blessing, Omaha, 23; George C. Hall, Omaha, 35; Nellie Manchiep, Omaha, 25; Peter Hopner, Omaha, 27; Catarina Thompson, Omaha, 23; Charles Johnson, Omaha, 37; Mary Aney, Omaha, 22; Charles A. Anderson, Omaha, 30; Marian Jergenson, Omaha, 20; Solomon Leslie, Omaha, 22; Manda Wilds, Omaha, 19.

Self-Sacrificing Workers. To the Editor of the Bee: Why not abolish the common council and let the board of education run the entire city government? The action of that august body at its last meeting would indicate such a desire on its part.

A Frightful Runaway. A frightful runaway occurred on noon yesterday on Tenth street, which will undoubtedly result in the death of Herman Dale, an unmarried man who drives a team for Lewis Bradford, the lumberman. A two-horse team, attached to a buggy, and belonging to a countryman named Thomas E. Hardy, took flight at a cable car down near Leavenworth street, and dashed at a furious rate up Tenth. Just as the frightened animals reached Dodge street, Dale with his team was crossing Tenth, and Hardy's team jumped clear over and into his wagon, and the next instant both teams and vehicles and drivers were wiped up in one confused and seemingly inextinguishable mass.
