

DEPRIVED HIM OF HIS PASS

Inter-State Commerce Cuts a Figure In the Case. SO HE SUES THE B. & M.

Buicides at Grand Island & Fremont— Jail Delivery Frustrated—Pinkertons Flead Guilty at Plattsmouth.

An Interesting Case. LINCOLN, Feb. 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A peculiar case was heard in the county court today, it being C. Christianson against the B. & M. railroad company.

Ended His Sorrow. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A sad case of suicide was discovered here this afternoon in the finding of the almost lifeless body of Richard Turner, lying near the railroad track on the west side of the city.

Another Attempt Frustrated. NEBRASKA CITY, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Another attempt was made last night to break jail. This time Perry Summers, in for being a partner in the hog stealing business with George Budd, made the attempt.

A Sweetie Sidelined. FREMONT, Neb., April 9.—[Special to the Bee.]—Gus Rapp, a Swede, who has been a boarder at the City Hotel for a few weeks past, took a dose of morphine yesterday morning for the purpose of killing himself.

Seeding Commenced. FREMONT, Neb., April 9.—[Special to the Bee.]—The first seeding has been commenced here. The first work of any extent was done last week when a good deal of wheat and oats were put in.

Pinkertons' Plead Guilty. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., April 9.—[Special to the Bee.]—The trial of the three Pinkertons for assaulting citizens on Easter Sunday, was held last Wednesday and occupied three days, but resulted in a disagreement of the jury after a stormy session of twenty-four hours.

Burglary at Blue Springs. BLUE SPRINGS, Neb., April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—W. L. Smith's grocery store was burglarized last night. His safe was blown open and rifled. There was a few dollars in change in the safe.

Counterfeiters in Circulation. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A large number of counterfeit silver dollars have been found in circulation in this city, but as yet no one has been caught possessing them.

Plattsmouth Items. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., April 9.—[Special to the Bee.]—The city votes to-morrow on the sewer bond question. Bonds bearing 5 per cent interest were carried last spring, but as they could not be negotiated satisfactorily, the city has called this second election.

Knight Templars' Convalesce. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The grand commandery of Knights Templars of this state held their annual meeting here commencing to-morrow (Tuesday) morning and will last for three days.

A Bridge Gives Way. PENDER, Neb., April 9.—[Special to the Bee.]—Last evening as a herd of cattle were crossing the Logan bridge at this place, it gave way in consequence of misplacement by the late floods and ice.

Red Cloud's Street Railway. RED CLOUD, Neb., April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Red Cloud feels decidedly metropolitan in its appearance, and the street railway was commenced to-day by laying track on Fourth avenue.

Fireman and Brakeman Killed. CORNELL, Ariz., April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Last evening about 8:30, as a west-bound freight on the Atlantic Pacific was nearing this place, the engine became derailed and plunged down a steep embankment.

The High Water in Minnesota. MINNESOTA, Minn., April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The high water in Minnesota is ten inches lower than the highest point yet reached, still the situation has

A HORRIBLE DEATH

An Unknown Man Crushed by the Cars. A most sickening accident happened on the Union Pacific tracks last night only a short distance from the spot where less than a week ago Mrs. Esche was crushed and killed by the cars.

A GENERAL WALKOUT. Chairman Stevens Says Nearly All "Q" Employees Will Strike Soon. KANSAS CITY, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Chairman Stevens, of the strike committee, said today he had received important information from Chicago to the effect that from now on the strike would be confined exclusively to the Burlington road, and that the fight from now on would be a finish.

Used His Pistol. CHICAGO, April 9.—At 7 o'clock to-night as a Chicago, Burlington & Quincy engine manned by new men, was approaching the city on the Western Indiana track from the southwest at Forty-seventh street, a crowd of three stones through the cab window, when Charles Summers, one of the crew drew a revolver and firing into the crowd struck James Boynton, a foundryman, in the knee.

BOYCOTTING MRS. POTTER. Cheyenne Strikers Offended Because She Travels on the Burlington. CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—An attempt was made to-day to boycott Mrs. James Brown Potter, who came here with her company over the Burlington road.

STRUCK BY A SWITCH ENGINE. A Dairyman and His Wife Fatally Crushed at Denver. DENVER, Colo., April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—At 11 this morning, while George Hastings, a dairyman, and his wife were crossing the Santa Fe track at the foot of Seventh and Delaney streets in a milk wagon, a Santa Fe switch engine, going at a high rate of speed, struck the wagon, mashing it to splinters.

FAILED TO AGREE. The Colorado Traffic Association Adjourns After a Fruitless Session. GALVESTON, April 9.—The Colorado traffic association adjourned to-day without accomplishing anything. Efforts to effect an agreement with the B. & O. and Denver City & Pacific Colorado rates proved fruitless for the present.

General Boutanger's Election. PARIS, April 9.—In the election yesterday for all the vacancies in the chamber of deputies from the department of the Dordogne, General Boutanger was chosen.

A French Protest. PARIS, April 9.—Faure, ex-under secretary of state, has written to Le Matin protesting against the proposal of the British government to place a tax on bottled wines.

A Jockey Whipped. NEW YORK, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Jockey James McLaughlin was presented at the Star theater last evening with a whip mounted in gold and silver, studded with gems, said to have cost $1,000.

Weather Indications. For Nebraska: Fair weather, light to fresh variable winds. No decided change in temperature.

The Bogus Patti Ticket Swindler. NEW YORK, April 9.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court to-day, decided that George Benson, who swindled the Mexicans out of $30,000 on bogus tickets for a concert, must be surrendered to the Mexican authorities.

The League Alive and Kicking. DUBLIN, April 9.—The Freeman's Journal says: "Halfpence's provocative and foolish boast that the National league had been killed, when pricked exploded like a bladder.

Good News for the Creditors. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The comptroller of the currency has declared a second dividend of 15 per cent in favor of the creditors of the Fifth National bank of St. Louis.

BOGUS BUTTER KNOCKED OUT

The Supreme Court Sustains the Pennsylvania State Law. THE BELL TELEPHONE CASE. It is Advanced On the Docket and Set For Hearing On the Second Day of the Next Term.

Against Oleomargarine. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The supreme court of the United States today decided in an opinion in case No. 814, William L. Powell plaintiff in error, vs. the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, commonly known as the oleomargarine case.

The Hotchkiss Gun. WASHINGTON, April 9.—[Special to the Bee.]—While a number of eager inventors are knocking at the door of congress for approval of their various schemes for making warfare more destructive, such as new explosives, torpedoes, etc., there is one concern which has just made its appearance in Washington that has adopted an entirely new policy.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS. SENATE. WASHINGTON, April 9.—In the senate Mr. Payne, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported a joint resolution accepting the invitation of the Belgian government to participate in the international exhibition at Brussels and appropriating $3,000 for that purpose.

The Prussian Floods. BRUSSELS, April 9.—Empress Victoria and Princesses Victoria, Sophie and Margaret have started for Posen to inquire as to the condition of the sufferers by the floods.

Boulanger Thanks His Friends. PARIS, April 9.—Boulanger has written a letter to the electors of Dordogne, thanking them for having elected him, and saying that he would sit for the department of Nord.

City Market. W. H. Coombe, prop. City Market, has moved from 1415 Douglas st. to 316 S. 16th st., between Farnam and Harney.

For $200,000. A solid gold stem wind gentleman's watch, for 3 days only at EDHOLM & AKIN'S.

The Sunday Paper. NEW YORK LETTER.—I can remember the time, and so can you, when it was a great offence to read a paper on Sunday, the material for which had been collected, edited, put in shape and printed on Saturday night.

General Boutanger's Election. PARIS, April 9.—In the election yesterday for all the vacancies in the chamber of deputies from the department of the Dordogne, General Boutanger was chosen.

A French Protest. PARIS, April 9.—Faure, ex-under secretary of state, has written to Le Matin protesting against the proposal of the British government to place a tax on bottled wines.

A Jockey Whipped. NEW YORK, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Jockey James McLaughlin was presented at the Star theater last evening with a whip mounted in gold and silver, studded with gems, said to have cost $1,000.

Weather Indications. For Nebraska: Fair weather, light to fresh variable winds. No decided change in temperature.

The Bogus Patti Ticket Swindler. NEW YORK, April 9.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court to-day, decided that George Benson, who swindled the Mexicans out of $30,000 on bogus tickets for a concert, must be surrendered to the Mexican authorities.

The League Alive and Kicking. DUBLIN, April 9.—The Freeman's Journal says: "Halfpence's provocative and foolish boast that the National league had been killed, when pricked exploded like a bladder.

Good News for the Creditors. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The comptroller of the currency has declared a second dividend of 15 per cent in favor of the creditors of the Fifth National bank of St. Louis.

THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS

Wheat Scores a Sharp Advance, But Declines Again. A DULL DAY IN THE CORN PIT. Narrow Fluctuations, But a Moderate Trade in Oats—The Bulls Revolt—Tend to Provisions—Cattle Remain Firm—Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET. CHICAGO, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The wheat market opened strong this morning on better cables and on a sharp advance of 1c in New York over Saturday's closing prices there.

There was not much interest in the corn market. Trading was light and much of it seemed to be "changing over," "longs" in May, selling that delivery and buying June and July, the result of which was a slightly decrease the premium for better delivery.

The speculative trade in oats was moderately active, but fluctuations were narrow and the tendency of the market was slightly downward.

Provisions the bull interest asserted its existence in a manner to astonish the bears. Having met the almost unprecedented margin calls, the bulls concluded it was about time to take control of the market.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK. CHICAGO, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—CATTLE—Trade was rather slow at the start, more on account of salesmen trying to get more for their property than on Friday from the lack of a demand.

FINANCIAL. NEW YORK, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—STOCKS—Operators who spent a large part of their time at down-town hotels in New York yesterday were bullish, and the gossip sent out this morning favored higher prices.

Bourbons Getting Ready. ST. LOUIS, April 9.—W. N. Barnum, chairman of the democratic national committee, was in conference to-day with the local committee.

The Denver & Fort Worth Opened. DENVER, Colo., April 9.—The entire Denver & Fort Worth line was opened for business to-day, the first through train passenger and sleeping car for Fort Worth and New Orleans left here at 8:15 this morning with a large list of passengers.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, we tried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THE BELL TELEPHONE CASE

It is Advanced On the Docket and Set For Hearing On the Second Day of the Next Term.

Against Oleomargarine. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The supreme court of the United States today decided in an opinion in case No. 814, William L. Powell plaintiff in error, vs. the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, commonly known as the oleomargarine case.

The Hotchkiss Gun. WASHINGTON, April 9.—[Special to the Bee.]—While a number of eager inventors are knocking at the door of congress for approval of their various schemes for making warfare more destructive, such as new explosives, torpedoes, etc., there is one concern which has just made its appearance in Washington that has adopted an entirely new policy.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS. SENATE. WASHINGTON, April 9.—In the senate Mr. Payne, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported a joint resolution accepting the invitation of the Belgian government to participate in the international exhibition at Brussels and appropriating $3,000 for that purpose.

The Prussian Floods. BRUSSELS, April 9.—Empress Victoria and Princesses Victoria, Sophie and Margaret have started for Posen to inquire as to the condition of the sufferers by the floods.

Boulanger Thanks His Friends. PARIS, April 9.—Boulanger has written a letter to the electors of Dordogne, thanking them for having elected him, and saying that he would sit for the department of Nord.

City Market. W. H. Coombe, prop. City Market, has moved from 1415 Douglas st. to 316 S. 16th st., between Farnam and Harney.

For $200,000. A solid gold stem wind gentleman's watch, for 3 days only at EDHOLM & AKIN'S.

The Sunday Paper. NEW YORK LETTER.—I can remember the time, and so can you, when it was a great offence to read a paper on Sunday, the material for which had been collected, edited, put in shape and printed on Saturday night.

General Boutanger's Election. PARIS, April 9.—In the election yesterday for all the vacancies in the chamber of deputies from the department of the Dordogne, General Boutanger was chosen.

A French Protest. PARIS, April 9.—Faure, ex-under secretary of state, has written to Le Matin protesting against the proposal of the British government to place a tax on bottled wines.

A Jockey Whipped. NEW YORK, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Jockey James McLaughlin was presented at the Star theater last evening with a whip mounted in gold and silver, studded with gems, said to have cost $1,000.

Weather Indications. For Nebraska: Fair weather, light to fresh variable winds. No decided change in temperature.

The Bogus Patti Ticket Swindler. NEW YORK, April 9.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court to-day, decided that George Benson, who swindled the Mexicans out of $30,000 on bogus tickets for a concert, must be surrendered to the Mexican authorities.

The League Alive and Kicking. DUBLIN, April 9.—The Freeman's Journal says: "Halfpence's provocative and foolish boast that the National league had been killed, when pricked exploded like a bladder.

Good News for the Creditors. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The comptroller of the currency has declared a second dividend of 15 per cent in favor of the creditors of the Fifth National bank of St. Louis.

THE BELL TELEPHONE CASE

It is Advanced On the Docket and Set For Hearing On the Second Day of the Next Term.

Against Oleomargarine. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The supreme court of the United States today decided in an opinion in case No. 814, William L. Powell plaintiff in error, vs. the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, commonly known as the oleomargarine case.

The Hotchkiss Gun. WASHINGTON, April 9.—[Special to the Bee.]—While a number of eager inventors are knocking at the door of congress for approval of their various schemes for making warfare more destructive, such as new explosives, torpedoes, etc., there is one concern which has just made its appearance in Washington that has adopted an entirely new policy.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS. SENATE. WASHINGTON, April 9.—In the senate Mr. Payne, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported a joint resolution accepting the invitation of the Belgian government to participate in the international exhibition at Brussels and appropriating $3,000 for that purpose.

The Prussian Floods. BRUSSELS, April 9.—Empress Victoria and Princesses Victoria, Sophie and Margaret have started for Posen to inquire as to the condition of the sufferers by the floods.

Boulanger Thanks His Friends. PARIS, April 9.—Boulanger has written a letter to the electors of Dordogne, thanking them for having elected him, and saying that he would sit for the department of Nord.

City Market. W. H. Coombe, prop. City Market, has moved from 1415 Douglas st. to 316 S. 16th st., between Farnam and Harney.

For $200,000. A solid gold stem wind gentleman's watch, for 3 days only at EDHOLM & AKIN'S.

The Sunday Paper. NEW YORK LETTER.—I can remember the time, and so can you, when it was a great offence to read a paper on Sunday, the material for which had been collected, edited, put in shape and printed on Saturday night.

General Boutanger's Election. PARIS, April 9.—In the election yesterday for all the vacancies in the chamber of deputies from the department of the Dordogne, General Boutanger was chosen.

A French Protest. PARIS, April 9.—Faure, ex-under secretary of state, has written to Le Matin protesting against the proposal of the British government to place a tax on bottled wines.

A Jockey Whipped. NEW YORK, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Jockey James McLaughlin was presented at the Star theater last evening with a whip mounted in gold and silver, studded with gems, said to have cost $1,000.

Weather Indications. For Nebraska: Fair weather, light to fresh variable winds. No decided change in temperature.

The Bogus Patti Ticket Swindler. NEW YORK, April 9.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court to-day, decided that George Benson, who swindled the Mexicans out of $30,000 on bogus tickets for a concert, must be surrendered to the Mexican authorities.

The League Alive and Kicking. DUBLIN, April 9.—The Freeman's Journal says: "Halfpence's provocative and foolish boast that the National league had been killed, when pricked exploded like a bladder.

Good News for the Creditors. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The comptroller of the currency has declared a second dividend of 15 per cent in favor of the creditors of the Fifth National bank of St. Louis.

THE BELL TELEPHONE CASE

It is Advanced On the Docket and Set For Hearing On the Second Day of the Next Term.

Against Oleomargarine. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The supreme court of the United States today decided in an opinion in case No. 814, William L. Powell plaintiff in error, vs. the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, commonly known as the oleomargarine case.

The Hotchkiss Gun. WASHINGTON, April 9.—[Special to the Bee.]—While a number of eager inventors are knocking at the door of congress for approval of their various schemes for making warfare more destructive, such as new explosives, torpedoes, etc., there is one concern which has just made its appearance in Washington that has adopted an entirely new policy.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS. SENATE. WASHINGTON, April 9.—In the senate Mr. Payne, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported a joint resolution accepting the invitation of the Belgian government to participate in the international exhibition at Brussels and appropriating $3,000 for that purpose.

The Prussian Floods. BRUSSELS, April 9.—Empress Victoria and Princesses Victoria, Sophie and Margaret have started for Posen to inquire as to the condition of the sufferers by the floods.

Boulanger Thanks His Friends. PARIS, April 9.—Boulanger has written a letter to the electors of Dordogne, thanking them for having elected him, and saying that he would sit for the department of Nord.

City Market. W. H. Coombe, prop. City Market, has moved from 1415 Douglas st. to 316 S. 16th st., between Farnam and Harney.

For $200,000. A solid gold stem wind gentleman's watch, for 3 days only at EDHOLM & AKIN'S.

The Sunday Paper. NEW YORK LETTER.—I can remember the time, and so can you, when it was a great offence to read a paper on Sunday, the material for which had been collected, edited, put in shape and printed on Saturday night.

General Boutanger's Election. PARIS, April 9.—In the election yesterday for all the vacancies in the chamber of deputies from the department of the Dordogne, General Boutanger was chosen.

A French Protest. PARIS, April 9.—Faure, ex-under secretary of state, has written to Le Matin protesting against the proposal of the British government to place a tax on bottled wines.

A Jockey Whipped. NEW YORK, April 9.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Jockey James McLaughlin was presented at the Star theater last evening with a whip mounted in gold and silver, studded with gems, said to have cost $1,000.

Weather Indications. For Nebraska: Fair weather, light to fresh variable winds. No decided change in temperature.

The Bogus Patti Ticket Swindler. NEW YORK, April 9.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court to-day, decided that George Benson, who swindled the Mexicans out of $30,000 on bogus tickets for a concert, must be surrendered to the Mexican authorities.

The League Alive and Kicking. DUBLIN, April 9.—The Freeman's Journal says: "Halfpence's provocative and foolish boast that the National league had been killed, when pricked exploded like a bladder.

Good News for the Creditors. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The comptroller of the currency has declared a second dividend of 15 per cent in favor of the creditors of the Fifth National bank of St. Louis.