OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle.

UNION STOCK YARDS, 6 p. m. }
Friday, April 13, 1888. }

The fresh receipts of cattle were very light, but with the holdovers there were liberal offerings. The market was rather slow at an advance of 5@10c, but quite a good many cattle changed hands. The packers were light buyers, but the speculative demand was fair. The average quality of the offerings was rather common, and the proportion of fair to good cattle was small.

Hogs.

The receipts of hogs were light, although there was some gain over yesterday. The market was strong and active, but closed with the feeling a little easier and not quite as brisk.

Sheep.

There were no sheep here to make a market.

Live Stock Notes.

No sheep on sale.

A strong hog market.

Cattle advanced 5@10c.

Light receipts all around.

Hogs averaged yesterday 241 pounds, and 65 head to the car.

Among those who marketed hogs at $5.30 were Farrington & Son, of Lyons.

Mr. Paulsen, of the firm of I. Anderson & Co., Mead, came in with a load of cattle.

Louis Swift was at the yards to-day, looking after the packing interests of G. F. Swift & Co.

Among the visitors at the yards was L. Wakefield, of the firm of H. E. Mallory & Son, Chicago.

L. L. Stevens, of Waterloo, one of the regular shippers to these yards, topped the hog market with a load sold at $5.35.

Silas Adsit, of Boone county, Neb., was in this week with his first shipment of cattle from his ranch, and notwithstanding the hard cattle market, went home satisfied with his first venture.

The sun-down cattle buyers continue to hold the field. Meanwhile all reports sent out before dark quote the market as slow and dull, while the truth is that a goodly number of cattle are being sold every day.

Louis Burke, formerly of the firm of M. Burke & Sons, but now manager of the stock yards at North Platte, was here today shaking hands with old friends. Louis made a host of friends during his stay here, all of whom were pleased to learn that his new location is a pleasant and profitable one.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS.

Produce, Fruits, Nuts, Etc.

Friday, April 13.

The following quotations are wholesale and not retail. Prices quoted on produce are the rates at which round lots are sold on this market. Fruits or other lines of goods requiring extra labor in packing cannot always be supplied on outside orders at the same prices quoted for the local trade. Rates on flour and feed are jobbers' prices. Prices on grain are those paid by Omaha millers delivered. All quotations on merchandise are obtained from leading houses and are corrected daily. Prices on crackers, cakes, etc., are those given by leading manufacturers.

For the benefit of all interested it may not be out of order to remark that trade is picking up rapidly and that the prospects are good on nearly all lines. Poultry is in good demand and for the especial information of those who send dressed chickens to market the following suggestions are made in this column where all may read. First kill your fowl and then scald it, not too much nor too little, but just enough to loosen the feathers nicely. Pick it clean above all things. Do not under any circumstances cut the skin over the craw; it can be removed just as well without. Cut a very small incision and remove the entrails, cross the fowl's legs and insert them in the incision, put the wings over its back and then drop it into boiling water for about 5 seconds. Remove and place in a tub until you are through with your task of killing; wipe them with a clean towel and the result will be your chickens will bring 1@2 cents more per pound than ordinary grades. Try it and see.

Butter is in good demand at a slight advance; that is good butter. Eggs are firmer and a shade higher. Other produce is about steady.

BUTTER—Fancy creamery roll butter 25@27c with solid packed at 23@25c; choice country butter 21@22c, with some sales of fancy butter at 25c, common grades 17@18c, inferior stuff 9@15c, according to quality.
