The first schedule of the home team will be played on the 25th inst. between the Council Bluffs and the J. J. Hardins of Omaha. On the 26th the Crane Brothers team will cross bats with the home nine. Work has been commenced putting the grounds in order, and they will be in fine shape for the good playing that is promised in the season's championship games.

The river reached the fifteen foot mark again yesterday, and is still rising. It is washing badly at Cumbe Point, having taken about eight feet of the bank for a distance of several hundred feet. The water is nearly up to the power house at the new bridge, but no material damage has been done. The river is free from ice, but the current is very swift. The central caisson of the new bridge still stands firm, and it is not probable that any of the piles will be disturbed.

Notice was received in this city yesterday of the death of Miss Sarah E. Wright, at Sioux Falls, Dak., on Wednesday last, of cancer. Miss Wright was forty years of age, and was a native of this city. She was a member of the church, and was a devoted wife and mother. Her death was a great loss to her family, and it is hoped that another year will bring a different result.

An Evening With Art. The ladies of the P. E. O. won high honors last evening at the meeting of the mysterious title which this society bears. It is kept a profound secret from the curious, uninitiated masculines. It matters little, however, in view of the fact that the society is composed of such ladies as surely would have none but an honorable secret. The purposes of the organization seem to be largely charitable, and the object of last evening's entertainment was to swell the fund which they desire to expend in helping those less fortunate than themselves. The opera house was crowded, and the audience was as finely composed as any which ever gathered there. There was sufficient enthusiasm manifested to fully assure the ladies that their efforts to do good were appreciated, and had proved truly successful. It was a varied programme, and there were no poor numbers from beginning to finish.

Prof. Baetens, with his "Stryker Blues" club, kindly favored the audience with some very pleasing instrumental selections, opening with the "Swedish Wedding March." There were interspersed selections from Schubert's symphonies, and from Weber. An enjoyable evening could have been had by such music alone. The other musical numbers of the programme were also truly excellent. Miss Morley, who has one of the sweetest soprano voices, sang to whom all gladly listened, joined with her sister, Mrs. Ward, and with Mr. Treynor, in a charming trio. Mr. Treynor sang in solo also, winning as always, enthusiastic applause. Mrs. Ward gave a one of her rich, contralto solos. Mrs. Wadsworth, who is considered to be one of the best sopranos in the west, sang "Lo, Hear the Lark," one of her best selections. One of the most pleasing numbers was the duet of Miss Morley and Mr. Treynor, in the "Swedish Wedding March." The music interspersed throughout the art programme, the evening was made most enjoyable.

Notes About the City. W. T. Rockley, of Columbus, brought in a load of hogs. J. J. Hanns, of Fort, Neb., is on the market with a load of hogs. Wm. Juest of DeWitt, is in with a car of sheep. Ben Majors has eight cars of Wood River cattle on the new rail park. C. H. Pettjohn, of Belvidere, caught the top price for hogs. To-day Grader Kincaid will finish work on the new rail park. Seventy cars of hogs, and forty-six of cattle were reported at noon to-day, and the market was quoted $5 higher. In the suit of Norton vs. Sandlin, a new resident, Justice Levy issued a writ of attachment for $24.50. James Olesby was run in on a charge of doing an express business without a license, but proved to be only carting his own goods and was discharged. Henry Livesey is erecting the necessary buildings for the erection of a mammoth brickyard. The brickyard, at the corner of M & M bridge where there are ample shipping facilities. Jim Crowley started out on an ordinary drunk last night, and was in a fight to a finish. At the finish he was minus a part of an ear, but received sympathy from Judge Reuther, who fined him $1 and costs. Doud & Pierce is the style of a new firm going into the hog fattening business. They have secured a five-acre lot for feeding grounds down near the river, and those who know Jim Doud, say it will be a success. The revival services in the Methodist church were brought to a close. The Rev. J. E. Ensign was in charge and devoted some time to advocating the establishment of a branch of the Christiana. Circumstances in all probability his advice will be followed. Marshal McCracken picked up the five-year-old daughter of John Daden. She had been left out on the street until the world's trip to Albright and back, and she did. She was cared for at the Delmonico until claimed by her parents. The withdrawal of the night switch engine is giving everything but satisfaction to the packing house men. The Union Pacific are doing the work to the best of their ability, but the packers want it done to suit them. This morning there was considerable delay in starting up, owing to the stock being handled to slowly, and to the packers delay means money lost.

Among the people of to-day, there are few indeed, who have not heard of the merits of Pearly Ash Bark and Berries as a household remedy. Tens and drunks have been made of them for centuries, and in hundreds of families have formed the sole reliance in rheumatic and kidney diseases. Pearly Ash Bark and Berries now take the place of the old sitters and is more beneficial in all troubles of this nature.

now, nor at any time in the future. If these conditions hold over Monday night, which now seems more than probable, a party fight will result. If from this shall come a better condition of things, a cleaner government and a strict enforcement of law, the people of the city may well be satisfied and rejoice.
