

SENATORS WILL TAKE IT EASY

They Will Have to Wait on the Lower House.

THE GYMNASIUM NEW YORK SUN.

A Thrilling War Story Revived by a Pension Bill—Seven Male Barons Refuses to be Placed—Sherman's Home Endorsement.

Grave Senators Can Play

WASHINGTON HERALD (The Omaha Bee). SENATORS WILL TAKE IT EASY. SENATORS SAY THEY ARE GOING TO HAVE A session of from four to six weeks of play compared to the work that usually devolves upon them at this period in a session. They do not intend to exert themselves very much during the debate on the tariff bill...

For Party First

WASHINGTON, April 20.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Senator Gorman, the spot horse of Maryland, is industriously engaged driving the democratic members from his state into line on the Mills tariff bill. During the past four or five years the mining and manufacturing industries of Maryland have developed so immensely that the people are...

For Pleasure

BOSTON, April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A reporter yesterday discovered James Russell Lowell packing up and down the coat of the Cunder Cophonia, and, according to Mr. Lowell said it was obvious that he was going abroad, but as to why, where, or for what reason he was going, that was his business. The reporter asked him to send him the report that he had been tendered the English mission in case Phelps should be made chief justice. "It is not so," said Lowell, "I saw the president lately and he would not let me go."

The Press Mistreated Her

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Mrs. Carline and family were taken to Chicago, she says that the papers had treated her shamefully. She did not care to see any reporters. "How have they mistaken you?" "They say I was in collusion with my husband to get a divorce. It is not so. I wanted the divorce on just grounds. What did I get out of it except a painful notoriety; and now he has married Miss Crute."

Deadwood's Delegates

DEADWOOD, Dak., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The democratic county convention elected delegates to go to Watertown to-day. Colonel Steele heads the delegation. The delegation chosen were all Church men.

Steamship Arrivals

SOUTHAMPTON, April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Arrived—The Belconland from New York for Antwerp. New York, April 21.—Arrived—The Sixth and Germania from Liverpool.

An Extensive Snowshed Burned

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—An immense snowshed on the line of the Union Pacific railway at that station, near the city, caught fire this afternoon and was destroyed. The shed was a quarter of a mile in length. Trains were delayed ten hours by the fire.

Some Kickers in the Crowd

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The saloonkeepers protective association decided as a body at their meeting to-day to keep their places closed on Sunday. A few have determined to keep open and will make a vigorous protest.

LARRABEE LOWERS THE BARS

Removal of Iowa's Quarantine Against Illinois Cattle.

WORSER THAN THE CRIME OF GAIN.

WASHTON, April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Governor Larrabee to-day issued a proclamation removing all quarantine against Illinois cattle, as follows: WHEREAS, On the 23rd day of September, A. D. 1883, a proclamation was issued from the office of the Governor of this state...

The Quarantine Removed

DES MOINES, Ia., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Governor Larrabee to-day issued a proclamation removing all quarantine against Illinois cattle, as follows: WHEREAS, On the 23rd day of September, A. D. 1883, a proclamation was issued from the office of the Governor of this state...

Will Commemorate

CRETE, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Odd Fellows of this county will give a grand dinner in the Chautauque assembly grounds on the 30th of this month to commemorate the establishment of their subordinate lodge No. 2, No. 1, on the 21st of May, 1848.

Going to Have a Good Depot

CRETE, Neb., April 20.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Missouri Pacific railroad intend erecting a magnificent cut stone depot and passenger building in this city as soon as the work on the road will warrant.

Delegates to Omaha

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The democrats met in mass convention and elected the following delegates to attend the state convention at Omaha, May 2: J. A. Phillips as president, and W. L. Rutledge as secretary.

Fire at Lincoln

LINCOLN, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Empire planing mill, operated by C. C. Munson, burned to-night. The loss is estimated at $8,000; partially insured. The department confined the fire to the mill.

Grant Democrats Organize

GRANT, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The democrats of Grant and vicinity met at this place to-day and organized a local party. J. A. Phillips as president, and W. L. Rutledge as secretary.

A Mad Dog's Frolic

WASHINGTON, N. J., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—William Cowell, a farmer, owned a bloodhound seven years old, weighing 150 pounds. Last night Cowell went out to chain the dog up when it sprang upon him, catching him by the throat and bearing him to the ground. Cowell broke its hold, but the brute then fastened its fangs in his arm, crunching the bone and terribly lacerating the flesh.

Manufacturers' Conference

DES MOINES, Ia., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The manufacturers and capitalists of center Iowa have decided to hold a national convention of manufacturers in this city lasting four days, beginning May 15. The call for that purpose was issued to-day. It is expected that manufacturers of St. Louis, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Omaha, Kansas City and other western cities will attend in large numbers, and an invitation, with special inducements, will be sent to eastern manufacturers.

Hermit Acquired

BOONE, Ia., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The jury in the trial of J. Reed Hurbit, charged with being an accessory to the shooting of Constable Logan at Des Moines, brought in a verdict of acquittal at 9 o'clock this evening. This was a case of great interest in this part of the state.

A FAMOUS QUARREL

Lively Factional Contest in the David City Democratic Camp.

DAVID CITY, Feb. 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Butler county democratic convention was held to-day and the following delegates were elected to the state democratic convention at Omaha, May 3: C. D. Casper, Matt Miller, H. H. Smith, Frank Loomis, Henry Vraig, M. C. Delaney, Michael Miller, and John L. Johnson.

A Boom at Columbus

COLUMBUS, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Articles of incorporation of the City Improvement company were filed to-day with the following as incorporators: J. P. Becker, Jonas Welsh, David Scupback, Herman Oelrich, Adolph Joeggi, Charles Davis and H. Sheldon. An important business meeting will be held to-day at 10 o'clock.

The Holt County W. C. T. U.

STUART, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Holt county has been in session for the past two days at this place. The attendance is very large and all meetings are of great interest.

Almost Burned to Death

SCHUYLER, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—To-day while Newell Wheeler, a blind man living out in the country several miles, was at home alone, his house caught fire and endeavoring to escape he was severely burned. The fire being between him and the doorway he had to get out of a window. The house and contents were entirely destroyed.

Will Commemorate

CRETE, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Odd Fellows of this county will give a grand dinner in the Chautauque assembly grounds on the 30th of this month to commemorate the establishment of their subordinate lodge No. 2, No. 1, on the 21st of May, 1848.

Going to Have a Good Depot

CRETE, Neb., April 20.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Missouri Pacific railroad intend erecting a magnificent cut stone depot and passenger building in this city as soon as the work on the road will warrant.

Delegates to Omaha

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The democrats met in mass convention and elected the following delegates to attend the state convention at Omaha, May 2: J. A. Phillips as president, and W. L. Rutledge as secretary.

Fire at Lincoln

LINCOLN, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Empire planing mill, operated by C. C. Munson, burned to-night. The loss is estimated at $8,000; partially insured. The department confined the fire to the mill.

Grant Democrats Organize

GRANT, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The democrats of Grant and vicinity met at this place to-day and organized a local party. J. A. Phillips as president, and W. L. Rutledge as secretary.

A Mad Dog's Frolic

WASHINGTON, N. J., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—William Cowell, a farmer, owned a bloodhound seven years old, weighing 150 pounds. Last night Cowell went out to chain the dog up when it sprang upon him, catching him by the throat and bearing him to the ground.

THE ST. PAULS GET REVENGE

Omaha's Nine Saddy Routed on the Diamond Field.

MAINLY DUE TO THE PITCHING. Sowers' Curves Puzzle the Visitors While Healy is Badly Batted—Summer Hacing East and South—General Sport.

St. Paul 8, Omaha 2

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—St. Paul's base ball fanatics are happy this evening. The one thing that they desired more than another was to see the home team wipe up the diamond with the Omaha representatives this afternoon. The memory of three straight defeats had rankled in their bosoms until every one had sized the home team up as simply rotten, and nothing but a decisive victory over Omaha would induce them to change their opinion.

Almost Burned to Death

SCHUYLER, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—To-day while Newell Wheeler, a blind man living out in the country several miles, was at home alone, his house caught fire and endeavoring to escape he was severely burned. The fire being between him and the doorway he had to get out of a window. The house and contents were entirely destroyed.

Will Commemorate

CRETE, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Odd Fellows of this county will give a grand dinner in the Chautauque assembly grounds on the 30th of this month to commemorate the establishment of their subordinate lodge No. 2, No. 1, on the 21st of May, 1848.

Going to Have a Good Depot

CRETE, Neb., April 20.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Missouri Pacific railroad intend erecting a magnificent cut stone depot and passenger building in this city as soon as the work on the road will warrant.

Delegates to Omaha

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The democrats met in mass convention and elected the following delegates to attend the state convention at Omaha, May 2: J. A. Phillips as president, and W. L. Rutledge as secretary.

Fire at Lincoln

LINCOLN, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Empire planing mill, operated by C. C. Munson, burned to-night. The loss is estimated at $8,000; partially insured. The department confined the fire to the mill.

Grant Democrats Organize

GRANT, Neb., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The democrats of Grant and vicinity met at this place to-day and organized a local party. J. A. Phillips as president, and W. L. Rutledge as secretary.

A Mad Dog's Frolic

WASHINGTON, N. J., April 21.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—William Cowell, a farmer, owned a bloodhound seven years old, weighing 150 pounds. Last night Cowell went out to chain the dog up when it sprang upon him, catching him by the throat and bearing him to the ground.

AMUSEMENTS

Boyd's Opera House Monday and Tuesday, April 23 and 24.

THE MAGIC QUEEN. A large and complete dramatic company headed by the great and only GEO. H. ADAMS. The wonderful prima donna, MISS PAULINE MONTAGNE, just before the hour arrives, they make up a little club among themselves, and slip away to a restaurant. They are back, though, on time, and ready to dance away any little remaining strength that the young ladies may possess.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

AMUSEMENTS

Boyd's Opera House Monday and Tuesday, April 23 and 24.

THE MAGIC QUEEN. A large and complete dramatic company headed by the great and only GEO. H. ADAMS. The wonderful prima donna, MISS PAULINE MONTAGNE, just before the hour arrives, they make up a little club among themselves, and slip away to a restaurant. They are back, though, on time, and ready to dance away any little remaining strength that the young ladies may possess.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

AMUSEMENTS

Boyd's Opera House Monday and Tuesday, April 23 and 24.

THE MAGIC QUEEN. A large and complete dramatic company headed by the great and only GEO. H. ADAMS. The wonderful prima donna, MISS PAULINE MONTAGNE, just before the hour arrives, they make up a little club among themselves, and slip away to a restaurant. They are back, though, on time, and ready to dance away any little remaining strength that the young ladies may possess.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.

Boyd's Opera House

Friday & Saturday, April 27 and 28. The Prince of Comedians, CUS WILLIAMS, Supported by Unquestionably the best Comedians in the world.