A Banquet at New York.

NEW YORK, April 27.—In commemoration of the anniversary of the birthday of General Grant, an elaborate banquet was given at Delmonico's to-night. As was most fitting the arrangements for the affair were made by an old comrade of the dead general and president, General W. T. Sherman. About one hundred and fifty persons were present and all parties and all ranks were represented and everywhere appeared the small bronze button significant of service in the war and membership in the Grand Army of the Republic. The seat at General Sherman's table which was to have been occupied by the late Roscoe Conkling, was vacant, and on the chair was hung a heavy wreath of laurel. Each table was presided over by some distinguished soldier, statesman, or man of affairs, and on either side of the presiding officer were seated six or seven others. General W. T. Sherman presided over the first table and on his right was Channey M. Dewey, orator of the evening, and on his left Mayor Hewitt. The others at the table were General William Malone, General William Crook, General John Childs, Cyrus W. Field, Rev. John H. Paxton, Edward Pierpont, General C. B. Conestock, Wm. Andrew W. Sherman, Captain W. B. Paxton and Albert Bierstadt. Among the others present were Fitzjohn Porter, Colonel A. Snowden of Philadelphia, D. C., General Stewart, L. Woodford, General Swayne, General Douglas, Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, General I. S. Shepard, Hon. Eliot Root, General Sherman, and a menu card was an elaborate one, engraved on a double sheet of celluloid, shaped like an old tent and on one side was a portrait of the late general. Among the letters of regret received were those from Hon. William M. Evarts, General S. Adams, General S. B. Buckner, General J. E. Johnson, J. C. Bancroft, General P. H. Sheridan, Governor D. B. Hill, Senator John Sherman, Senator H. C. Sherman, and others.
