Bargains That Will Be Appreciated
By Our Patrons.

Why Our Store is Always Crowded
When Others Are Empty—Prices
That Talk, and Customers
That are Satisfied.

It is a known fact that we have the crowds, that we are busy when our competitors are doing nothing. Why is it?
1st. We don't want the earth, we mark our goods at prices that are right; some merchants want 200 per cent profit, all we care to have is a 10 per cent margin, and on many goods even less. Our millinery department is no extra expense, in consequence we are enabled to sell millinery at one-third millinery prices.
Some of our Omaha milliners, we notice, ask about 500 per cent margin.
Their cry is Omaha ladies won't appreciate low prices, they will say it's shoddy if we don't ask outrageous margins. We don't believe this, consequently the following prices go for Monday:

- 1,000 untrimmed hats at 10 cents, worth $1.00.
- 600 untrimmed hats, in fine Milan, at 90 cents, worth up to $3.00. All new shapes just received.
- At $1.98 choice of any untrimmed hat in our store, we have them worth up to $3.00. We will only sell one hat marked over $3.00 to a customer. All our goods are marked in plain figures.
- On account of the rain on Saturday we will offer any trimmed hat in our store for $7.57. We reserve the right of selling more than one to a customer. We do this as certain milliners in the city have bought up pattern hats at special sales.

COMMITTEE.

His Price was too High.
Dallas News: A good-looking young couple with a decidedly business air entered the county clerk's office yesterday and asked to be shown to somebody authorized to perform a marriage ceremony. One of the clerks, observing the county judge standing on the opposite side of the street, put the intended groom on the track of that functionary.

Approaching the judge, the young man informed him of his matrimonial resolve and asked him if he would not tie the knot free of charge. Receiving an unfavorable reply, he asked:
"Take a dollar and do it?"

"No, sir."
"Great good! Won't take a dollar.
Come on, sir," saying which, he seized his affianced by the shoulder and pushed her under way.

White and pink are so much the bridesmaids' colors that a bevy of them strongly suggests the belated apple blossoms.

Card of Thanks.

turn thanks to the many friends who so
