A Split School Board.
The action of certain members of the school board in pursuing a dog-in-the-manger policy in regard to the adoption of plans for the proposed new building is the subject of much unfavorable comment. The public at large, and also those who are personally interested in the matter, said but little when the deadlock was first formed, as it was supposed that after carefully talking over and considering the matter a decision would speedily be arrived at. As has been stated, the choice lay between a plan submitted by E. E. Maxon and one submitted by Allen & Bell, all of the city Messrs. Lawson, Rain and Biassini favored the former, and Messrs. Atkins, Couch and Stewart the latter. The board, however, has not yet reached a decision, and the plan submitted by Allen & Bell.

The well known grocery firm of Taylor & Calef has dissolved partnership. Mr. Taylor retiring. The change took effect on the first of the month. Mr. Taylor is absent in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he has been for several weeks. The business will be continued by Mr. Calef.

The O. E. S. sociable that was to be given at Masonic hall Friday evening has been postponed until Saturday evening, May 5.

As the formal opening of the Manawa hotel has been postponed until next Wednesday, it is quite probable that by that time arrangements will be made to have the motor line furnish transportation for those who desire to attend. One of the new motors has already been shipped, and will probably arrive here this afternoon. The cars have all been thoroughly overhauled and painted and are in the best of condition. The home club and the J. J. Hardins, of Omaha, will play an exhibition game at the lake in the afternoon.

A Chautauqua Rally.
The board of public health has arranged for a mass meeting at the opera house Sunday night for the purpose of encouraging the movement for the establishment of a national Chautauqua assembly here. Strange as it may appear to many, there is a great lack of information in the minds of many as to the intent and workings of such an institution. One of the purposes of this gathering will be to impart such information in such a manner that all may understand just what it is to be done. The meeting is not for the purpose of urging subscriptions, for that work will be left to the committees who will secure the needed pledges at another time, and by personal solicitation, so those who generally absent themselves from such meetings lest they be lured by appeals for subscriptions, need not stay away. The Chautauqua movement is a noble and commendable one, and the finish of the initiatory plans is within easy reach.

It is expected that some speaker from elsewhere will be present, and in view of the importance of the movement, the meeting should be a rouser, and the opera house should be crowded.

Salt Lake Records.
"Yes, I saw what interested me," remarked County Clerk Shea, who returned yesterday from an extended western trip. "At Salt Lake I went through the various offices, and as I thought I would like to see how they kept their records, I asked the recorder of deeds to let me see the books. He asked me what I wanted, and said I could get a copy of the county records if I paid the usual fee, but I couldn't look over the books myself. I asked him if they were not public records, and was a little surprised to have him tell me that they were not public property by any means. All the records were his own private property. He owned them, and he expected to be recorded always, do you?" I don't know," he said, "I've been here a long time, and I expect to be elected again, and I asked him what he would do if they should happen some time to elect another man. 'Well, I'll take the books with me when I go out, or else I'll sell them to my successor. He'll get a fat thing of it. The recorder furnishes all the abstracts. There's a firm who are going to get up a private set, and they have applied to the courts to make him allow them to go through the records.'

St. Bernard's Hospital.
The Sisters of Mercy of St. Bernard's hospital have met with sufficient encouragement to induce them to remain here, and the purchase of the Geise residence property in the eastern part of the city for a permanent location has been consummated. According to the terms of the sale a first payment of $1,000 is to be made within thirty days. About $300 has been paid over to bind the agreement. The city will be enticed for subscriptions, and it is thought that there will be no difficulty in securing the needed amount. The sisters will move from their present location on the Hawthorn property, at the corner of Fourth street and Ninth avenue, as soon as Mr. Geise can make arrangements for vacating his present home. The present property was leased of Mr. W. H. M. Passey for two years, and that gentleman refuses to
