LINCOLN BURRAU OF THE OMARA BEE, 1020 P STREET, LINCOLN, May 8.

The opening session of the state druggists convention was held at 3 p. m. to-day at the place of meeting, Bohanan's hall. Over one hundred druggists were in attendance, fully as many more will arrive on the pight trains.

M. E. Shultz, of Beatrice, president, called the session to order, and Mayor Sawyer delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by W. C. Lane. The opening routine work occupied attention then for an

In the meantime the main floor of the hall presented a most handsome appearance, with the magnificent displays of the wholesale druggists who are represented from all sections of the country. The hall is a miniature exposition, and undoubtedly will attract a large number of citizens as visitors the coming two days.

The programme of the convention for to morrow and Thursday is as follows:

Wednesday—Second business session, 9 a. m.; third session, 2 p. m. Grand pharmaceutal ball in the evening at Temple hall.

Thursday—Fourth business session, 9 a. m.; fifth business session 2 p. m. Grand complimentary banquet in the evening at the Windsor hotel.

Windsor hotel.

The programme last evening was an illustrated lecture on the "Rise and Progress of Pharmacy," given by Prof. Nicholson of the state university, the lecture being given at the chapel of the university. The ball Wednesday evening promises to be a great success, and the banquet on Thursday evening at the Windsor hotel will be the spread of the season.

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXPENSES.

Mr. W. Q. Bell, secretary of the board of education, has submitted his annual report, which shows the financial work of the year as well. The expense of the different schools in the city for the year is as follows:

Central high school $9.285.04

Capital school $5,110.05 street school..... East Lincoln.

McCall school

year by electing Rev. Lewis Gregory president; Rev. E. H. Chapin, vice president; W. Q. Bell, secretary.

NEW STREET RAILWAYS.

A number of new street railways were incorporated a year ago, and a number of them were pushed during the year in the work of construction. The Rapid Transit was opened for business in the fall, and the second of the new lines will soon be in operation. This second line is known as the Capitol Heights street railway, and two cars for service have already been received by the company. This line, that is constructed from the suburbs of the city on the east will be connected with the Lincoln street railway at Sixteenth and K streets, to afford patrons a continuous line to the business center. Cars have also been received for the line from the terminus of the Tenth street line to the asylum, and uch of the iron is laid, so that the pro of this road hope to open it at an early day.

POLICE NOTES. The police court has fallen off in business the past few days. Nothing in the way of trouble has developed around the Burlington depot, and the toughs that held sway there have evidently moved to new fields. Yester day morning the judge had a sorry specimen of a drunkard, who after filling up the night before had rolled in the mire and bore evidence of having been slugged while on his drunken bout. He could give no explanation of his actions and was fined and committed.

A man named Wainwright was arrested to-day on the suspicion of being a pickpocket. Officer Bates has been transferred to the day force and he will give his especial care to making loafers move on.

The premium list of the coming state fair in this city—September 7 to 14—have been received from the printer and the secretary is now distributing them over the state. The list is in every way a creditable one and has a great feature in that it is entirely shorn of advertisements that have heretofore confused and rendered life a burden to the exhibitor seeking information between the covers. The premiums offered are even more abundant than usual, and cover a range of topus that it would seem could scarcely be enlarged upon. The speed department has been compiled to make excellent entertainment on every day of the fair and to bring together some of the best steppers in the west.

The monthly report of the state asylum located at this city shows that there were admitted during the past month seventeen patients, and during the same time twelve were discharged and dismissed on parole, and one died. The death was that of Sophia Herlser, admitted from Lancaster county, April 5, 1882, a native of Germany, who has been at most times a violent patient so that frequently she had to be tied to her bed. The cause of her death is ascribed as paralysis of the heart.

The Orleans Building and Loan association filed articles of incorporation to-day with the secretary of state; capital stock $500,000, with T. J. Cleaver, L. H. Kent, O. H. Deaver, John Manning, M. Z. Shaff, W. R. Davis, A. L. Kelman, H. T. Ferguson, A. E. Harvey, G. W. Cook, S. R. Knowlton, D. Graft, J. R. Konnedy, Geo. W. Burton as incorporators.

The state board of pharmacy were holding an examination of applicants at Representative hall to-day. There were some thirty persons passing the examination seeking certificates as registered pharmacists.

The clerk of the railroad commission was busily engaged yesterday sending out the letters to the congress of the United States on the passage of the Nelson bill.

The monthly report of the state peniten-tiary shows an increase in the number of convicts over a month ago. The number of convicts in the pen on the 1st of April was 31s; admitted during the month, 17; sentence expired during the month, 9; commuted, 2; leaving a total of 321 in the reformatory May 1.

MANFORD AND HIS WATCH.

How the Tenth Street Cheap Jewelry

Sharks Take in Unwary Strangers. T. F. Conner, auctioneer, and M. Golden and William Cole, cappers, in the swindling Cheap John jewelry dive of A. Rothold, South Tenth street, were arrested Monday evening on complaint of J. C. Burns, charged with obtaining money by false representa-tion. Yesterday morning W. H. Manford. an emigrant from Logansport, Ind., put in an

THE PHARMACISTS' FIRST DAY spearance and filed information against Rothold and his swindling gang, charging them with fraud and misrepresentation. Monday afternoon, Manford, attracted by the braying of the loud-mouth erier, Conner, dropped into the Rothold joint to look around. He was instantly spotted as a sucker. Conner had a watch, he said, a Louisville commercial traveler had pawned there, and as his time had run out it would be disposed of at a sacrifice. He told Manford that the chronometer was worth at least $40, but as they made it a rule to keep no overdue pawned goods on hand, he would let him have it for $13—the generous shark. The sucker, for such, of course, he was, needed a watch, and he said if it was what they represented it to be, he would take it. Of course, they assured him of this, and he planked down his thirteen big iron dollars and took the ticker. No sconer had he possession of the watch, however, and carefully examined it, than he saw it was n.g.—that it was the snidest kind of a snide. He declared at once that he had been cheated, and that he wouldn't keep the watch. Here, however, the oily tongued capper stepped up and said:

"Let me look at that watch. I am a jeweler from Minneapolis, and I'll tell you whether these men are getting the best of you. You are right," he added, after scrutinizing the watch with a professional air, "it is not worth the money you paid for it, but you've bought, however, and you'll dropped into the Rothold joint to look around.

tinizing the watch with a professional air, "it is not worth the money you paid for it, but you've bought, however, and you'll have to keep it. They may trade with you, though, and if they will, there's a watch in the case," and he pointed at a highly burnished article in brass, "which is worth $35; perhaps if you would give them $20 more they'd let you exchange."

Manford examined the time piece in the case, asied Rothold if it was worth what Mr. Minneapolis said it was, and was assured that it was. "But, as my friend says," shrowdly continued the sharp, "if you are dissatished I'll exchange with you for $20 to boot."

Manford hesitated a moment, but making up his mind that he might as well go the whole hog, forked over the additional $20 and received another worthless ticket in return. Suspecting that all was not right, Manford left the deadfall and proceeded to a respectable up-town house, exhibited his purchase and asked them to tell him its value. "It might be worth $3 or $4, but we wouldn't give you a penny for it, was the confronting reply. This information, of course, perturbed Mr. Manford exceedingly, and hurrying back to Rothold's he laid the watch on the counter and told them that he had been swindled, and and told them that he had been swindled, and that if they did not see proper to return him his money they could keep it, watch and all, but he would make an effort and see whether they were going to be allowed to rob innocent people after this outrageous fashion. Of course they kept his money, and the timer, too, and all that Manford escaped with was a receipt written on a piece of wrapping paper, which reads about thus:

Sold to W. H. Manford, a solid gold watch, low karrat, at auction.

A. ROTHOLD,
This house is not the only "dive" on the street that should be broken up, nor is it the street that should be broken up, nor is it the only time this particular place has sold worth-less goods to the unwary. A thirteen year old boy was victimized some days ago but regained his money with the assistance of an attorney. A green gosling looking fellow with Webster county soil still clinging to his brogans was observed industriously bidding on a "solid gold watch" at a shop below Rothold's this morning while a "capper" was "raising" him a dollar each time. A policeman in citizens clothes, who was passing at the time, observed the matter and stepping inside led the unsuspecting agriculturalist outside and inunsuspecting agriculturalist outside and in-formed him of the designs the gang had on his shekels, which to say the least, surprised him. But he left, much to the chagrin of the sharks who were trying to fleece him It has been a question for some time why these places were permitted to run openly and many complaints have been heard. With out doubt the business will now be stopped

The Earth Exhales Poison. To the air in localities where vegetation, rotted by freshets, is laid bare to the sun's rays by the retiring flood Millions of square acres, in the vicinity of the great tributaries of the Missis sippi and the Missouri in the south and southwest, give forth this fever-laden miasmatic vapor, disseminating malarial pestilence broadcast. Not only throughout the great west, but wherever in this continent fever and ague makes its periodic appearance-and what locality is wholly exempt from it? -Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the recognized defense, the most highly accredited and popular means of cure. Fever and ague are cradicated by it. Nor is it less potent when used to remove constipation, liver complaint and dyspepsia, kidney troubless, nervousness and rheumatic ailment. Use it upon the first appearance of these troubles, and with persistency.

SHOULD RUN A BOAT.

A Horse Goes Out of Sight on the Park

Avenue Canal. When car No. 38 on the Park avenue line arrived at the switch on Leavenworth street, between Phil Sheridan avenue and Twenty seventh street, one of the horses accidentally stepped off the ties, and in a few moments had sunk out of sight, with the exception of his head. But for attaching a buoy to this part of his anatomy the animal would have drowned. After an hour's hard work the steed was rescued from his position and travel was once more resumed.

The condition of the streets in this vicinity is frightful, and the residents are protesting very vigorously at everybody in general and the street-car company in particular. The latter, however, cannot mend matters unless they pave the entire roadway, and are not re-sponsible. The company could however provide a crossing at their terminus for the benefit of passengers.

Diseases Cured by Cuticura Remedies when Hot Springs, Dectors and all other Medicines fail.

Having been a sufferer for two years and a half from a disease caused by a bruise on the leg, and having been cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES when all other methods and remedies failed, I deem if my duty to recommend them. I visited Hot Springs to no avail, and tried several doctors without success, and at last our principal druggist, Mr. John P. Finlay to whom I shall ever feel grateful, spoke to me about CUTICURA, and I consented to give them a trial with the result that I am perfectly cured. There is now no sore about me. I think I can show the largest surface where my sufferings sprang from of any one in the state. The CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best blood and skin cures mannfactured. I refer to druggist John P. Finlay and Dr. D. C. Montgomery, both of this place and to Dr. Smith, of Lake Lee, Miss.

Mr. Beach used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, at our request, with results as above stated.

SCROFULA 7 YEARS CURED. I have been troubled with scrofula seven years, which first started on the top of my head, giving me infinate trouble, with constant itching, casting off dry scales, and a watery liquid exuded from under the scales. I treated it for seven years unsuccessfully, and was unable to check it until I found your Cuticuna Remenies. One box Cuticuna, one cake Cuticuna Soap, and one bottle Cuticuna Resolvent completely cured me, my skin becoming perfectly clear and smooth.

HE BACKWARD SEASON

Is having a depressing effect on the woolen and clothing market. Eastern manufacturers find themselves overstocked with fine clothing, and we are now offered stocks of goods from the very best houses in the country, at prices much lower than we could manufacture them ourselves. Our buyer is not sleeping, and the last few shipments we received from him have compelled us to mark down considerable many lots that are left from our first spring purchase. We offer this week in Men's suits:

250 good blue flannel sack suits, the color warranted indigo blue, well trimmed and made at $5.75. The usual retail price of this suit is not less than $8.50.

300 blue flannel suits, all wool and indigo blue, at $7.75. This is as firm a flannel as there is made in this country, and we guarantee it to be as good a suit in quality of cloth and make up as there is offered by any house for $12.

500 elegant Cheviot suits, made of fine imported cheviot, in elegant light colored patterns, for $10.50. We sold these suits only last week for $12.50. and we put them against any $15 suits in the market.

In mens' furnishings, we offer this week a special drive in elegant balbriggan shirts and drawers, finished seams and French neck at 35c each. This is the greatest bargain ever offered in this line, as no house would sell underwear like this at less than 75c a piece. Neckwear---- No such variety can be seen anywhere.

Our 15c silk scarfs in all the latest summer shades, you cannot get elsewhere under 50c. Another consignment of those elelcant light colored derbys, satin lined, at $1. We have them in two shades this time, and also have the same hat without lining for 90c. Everybody who buys one wonders how it can be done.
