Bertha Smith stood before Justice Anderson yesterday charged with dis-posing of property belonging to her re-puted liege. The articles disposed of were pieces of furniture which she had sold at a second-hand furniture store. She claimed she had a right to sell the furniture as she was Smith's wife. He denies this saying that she has no legal right to his name. The hearing was fixed for this morning.

As John Daly stood in front of J. L. Brandeis' store about 5:30 p. m. yester-day, admiring the display of goods ex-posed to attract the passer-by, he saw a hat that suited him exactly and which was just his size. As no one appeared to be looking he slipped the coveted article under his coat and walked off with it. But one Ole Peterson saw this quiet theft and reported it to Officers Bloom and Boyle, and in a few minutes Daly was arrested.

Thursday night nineteen young men assembled at the residence of Dr. Denise for the purpose of organizing a committee to assist in securing the money required to complete the Y. M. C A. building. Mr. George C. Jenner was elected chairman while Mr. Silas Cobb was chosen secretary. After the business had been transacted the genia doctor announced that refreshments would be served. Short speeches and songs followed after which the company dispersed to meet again next Thursday at the same place.

Richard Kitchen has returned after an absence of several weeks, and yesterday stated that while away, he had done nothing with reference to the proposed Temple of Ceres, which was suggested some time ago by the fair and exposition. He did not know what action would be taken in the premises, because the committee had not yet held a meeting to consider the subject definitely.

The May Fete.

Owing to the great success which has greeted the efforts of the managers of the "May Fete," which was observed Thursday and last night at the Exposition hall, it has been decided to hold it again this evening, which will bring the entertainment to a final close. So as to have a large attendance the prices of admission have been fixed at 15

A Correspondent On Hats. A correspondent of THE BEE in David City asks by telegraph, "What are the colors of campaign hats this year?" It is yet too early in the season to answer the question and it is not likely that any hat will be accepted until the nominations have been made. Thus far, however, the Young Men's Democratic club of this city have adopted, to wear to St. Louis, the tall grey hat which has figured in almost every campaign since Greeley's candidacy.

McDermott-Reynolds.

Mr. Wilkes McDermott, well known among the architects and contractors of this city as part owner of one of the best quarries of brownstone in the neighborhood of Duluth, was married in this city to Miss Hattie Reynolds, a charming young lady of Sloux City. The speed with which the knot was tied led some of Mr. McDermott's friends to believe the affair an elopement which the ponderous groom did not deny, but laugh-ingly said he was satisfied if the rest were. The newly made pair left for an extensive tour through the northwest.

A Cable Franchise.

The mayor has called a special election fo Tuesday, May 22, to vote upon the subject of granting a franchise to the cable tramway company to build and maintain tracks on a number of streets in this city, reference to which has already been made in these columns. The list of thoroughfares is a formidable one, though it is not intended that on any of them the read have right to that on any of them, the road have right to the possession of the same to the exclusion of any other road which may desire to build thereon. The proclamation has been made in compliance with the ordinance passed at the last meeting of the council. The Railroads.

Mr. Hollo-baugh criticises the conduct of the officials in no very complimentary manner, and asserts that they have used every effort possible to conceal the results of the catastrophe. He has had photographs of the wreck made and will exhibit them on his travels.

The dispatch avers that the condition of the road is bad and that the strike and low rates have crippled it to an alarming extent. Its dependant yet controlling company, the Chicago, Burlington & Northern, is practically bankrupt. The dividend which should have been declared about the middle of the month, was sold a few days since upon the stock exchange for 1 per cent. The last dividend declared was 1 per cent, or one half the amount which it has paid quar-terly since 1884.

The stock of the road also declined very much, as the following figures will show: On January 28, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy stock was 128. This morning it is 115, a decline of 13 cents. A comparison with other leading stock which have declined a trifle only will show that slowly but surely the strikers, assisted by Providence, are getting there despite the sterotyped phrase at the head of this item. On June 28 Chicago & Alton was 188, to-day 136, a decline of 2 cents. Lackawanna, which was 1813, is to-day 1234, a decline 3 which was 13134, is to-day 12834, a decline cents. Union Pacific, then 5614, is now 58, a decline of 334 cents. Verily,

On Tuesday last the general freight agents of the Iowa lines adopted a distance tariff which took effect at noon Thursday. The which took effect at noon Thursday. The rates are as follows: First-class freight, five miles, 15 cents; 50 miles, 28 cents; 100 miles, 38 cents; 200 miles, 50 cents; 300 miles, 60 cents; 500 miles 64 cents. Rates on stock are: $5 per car for 5 miles; 10 miles, $12; 15 miles, $13; 20 miles, $14, etc. The lumber rate is 11 cents per 100 miles, and the same rate applies to corn, oats and barley, while the rate on wheat and flour is 15 cents

THE NORFOLK CONVENTION.

The Union Pacific railway has made special arrangements to accommodate all who may desire to attend this convention. In addition to its present service to Norfolk, on May 14 train No. 67 will be held at Columbus until the arrival of No. 8 from the west, thus enabling delegates from all points west of Columbus to make direct connection and arrive at Norfolk in time to attend the convention. Tickets for the round trip will be sold at a fare and one-third.

HIT BY AN ENGINE.

Lewis Hendrickson, a married man who resides at Nineteenth and Castellar streets, while crossing the tracks of the Union Pacific at Thisteenth street, was struck by switch engine No. 1017, and thrown several feet. The unfortunate man was taken to St Joseph's hospital and attended to by Dr. Raiph, city physician. His injuries, while very serious, are not fatal. Contrary to re-ports, Hendrickson was not intoxicated, and is not a drinking man.

The manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offer, in good faith $500 reward for a case of catarrh which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists at only 50 cents.

The passenger department of the Union Pacific, "The Overland Route," has just gotten out as an advertisement is known Puzzle, capable of solution in ten moves. A JOYFUL TIME.

Second Bauquet of the "Kamerdschaft" at Rosenmund's.

The arch to the entrance of the handsome cafe of Rosenmund was prettily decorated Thursday night with American colors Germanic. Potted plants, trailing arbutus, roses and other tender tributes of nature enlivened the fostered colors of the gentleman who occupied the long tables and made merry over their second banquet. They composed the members and guests of the "Kameradthe members and guests of the "Kamerad-schaft," an organization composed of Ameri-can-Germans to perpetuate and keep green the memory of their fathers and kin who had fallen in battle. We would be pleased to know of a man or woman who has never had headache or been subject to constipation. As these seem to be universal troubles a little advice may seem in order. Why should persons cram their stomachs with nauseating purgative pills, etc., which sick-en and debilitate when such a pleasant and sterling remedy as Prickly Ash Bitters will act mildly and effectively on the liver, kidney-stomach and bow-els, and at the same time tone up and strengthen the whole system; causing headache, constipation and all such dis-tressing evils to quickly disappear.

The management of the Union Pacific—"The Overland Route," made a change in the running time of its local trains Sunday, April 29th, that will be halled with delight by the residents of "The Omaha and Republican Valley." This change is made in conjunction with the St. Joseph and Grand Island, making the leaving time of No. 7 at Council Bluffs at 8:40 a. m., and Omaha 9 a.m. Arriving at Valley at 10:25 a. m.; it connects with the train "EVERYTHING BUNNING SMOOTHLY."

The Chicago Herald's Wall street special postains a brief amount of highly interest and at Stromsburg at 2:50 p. m. Here

Grand Island train, via McCool Junction and Fairfield, arriving at Alma at 10:00 p. m. The train running opposite leaves Alma daily at 5:80 a. m., arriving at Stromsburg at 12:00 p. m., Vai-paraiso 2:30 p. m. and Valley 4:15 p. m., connecting with No. 8 arriving in Omaha at 5:50 p. m. and Council Bluffs at 6:10 p. m., making close connections with all eastern trains. These trains run through solid between Alma and Lincoln, and passengers leaving Alma in the morning reach Lincoln at 3:40 p. m. Leaving Lincoln at 11:35 a. m. they arrive at Alma at 10:00 p. m. Good time and through chair car necommodations makes this the most de drable line running into this portion of Nebraska.

IRISH FOR A DAY.

The Men Who Wore the Green For

Campaign Charley. The weather was like that of the average St. Patrick's day yesterday. The streets were muddy, the rain fell at times in torrents and it was about as disagreeable a day on which to honor Erin's confessor as the most devoted trishmen could have desired. But the rain did not dampen the arder of those who wore the green, although the emerald was donned in favor of a man who always wears the red-in his hair. The wearers were many in number and hurried in their movements, as they shot out of the B.& M. train from Lincoln and Ashland, at which latter place they contributed to the Charles Greene walk away for district delegate to the national republican convention. Each of the patriotic mortals had a knot of green rib-ben in his button-hole, and one of them, Ed O'Sullivan, had his black thorn twined with a streamer as long as the worthy Charles' political promises. The crowd looked tired and dry. They had been in bed but a few hours before they left Ashland for home, having spent the hours after the adjournment having spent the hours after the adjournment of the convention in the most exuberant of congratulatory revelry. Every reveller was inspired by the occasion and soared into the realms of sentiment and political wisdom. The only man who did not speak was Hugh Murphy. He was mad because he got only five votes in the convention, and left immediately for Lincoln to concal his chagrin. But five votes were not ccal his chagrin. But five votes were not considered so bad after all for a democrat. Everybody was also impelled to music, the only song allowed was the "Wearing of the Green," and in singular appreciation of the liberty of this country seemed entirely oblivious of the fact that some of the somnolent drummers in adjoin-some of the somnolent drummers in adjoining rooms wished the warblers in that fated isle where it is said they are addicted to hanging men and women for doing something infinitely less objectionable.

The Greene delegates did not want for amusement. They had it and the whole Selma house until the morning, and besides, it was said they "owned" the only saloon in the place, which it is said the jubilant individuals "bought." The delegates had the question of transportion also removed from their minds. They simply took their seats in dueston of transportion also removed from their minds. They simply took their seats in the car, and Ralph Breckenridge and Dave Mercer went ahead of the conductor, like a pilot engine before a "scab" and designated to the man in blue the emerald patriots whose hats had been chalked with that same color. Of course, it is not doubted that Charley Greene afterwards put up paste boards, but that was a little mat-ter which did not in the least interfere with the equanimity of the delegates.

That Tired Feeling

Season is here again, and nearly every one feels weak, languid and exhausted. The blood, laden with impurities which have been accumulating for months. moves sluggishly through the veins, the mind fails to think quickly, and the body is still slower to respond. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just what is needed. It is, in a peculiar sense, the ideal spring medicine. It purifies, vitalizes, and enriches the blood, makes the head clear, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling, and imparts new streugth and vigor to the whole body.

Beside Horace Kinney, the man mentioned in yesterday's BEE, in Drexel & Mauls was early yesterday placed the remains of another man who died suddenly, and supposably from heart disease.
