ADDITIONAL COUNCIL BLUFFS.

"Hello There, Central!"
"Hello there, Central!" realize that they are only a part of the crowd who are all demanding attention at the same moment. The telephone business here has increased greatly, and much of this is due to the promptness and accuracy of the service. For a few days past a record has been kept of the number of calls made. The check was kept only for eight hours each day, from 8 o'clock a. m. to 12 o'clock, and from 1:30 p. m. to 6 o'clock. During these hours the first day there were 1,800 calls, those only being counted where actual connections were made.
