

THE CITY.

The internal revenue collections yesterday amounted to $3,075.

Up to last evening 450 building permits were issued for this year, which is fifty-three more than were issued last year up to the same day.

Christina Barry, of Des Moines, writes to Chief Seavey begging him to look up her runaway son, Albert, aged sixteen. She says he is a sweet boy, and she is greatly alarmed lest some evil has befallen him.

The case of Charles Greevy, the B. & M. ex-freeman, who was charged with assaulting H. S. Hudson, a scab engineer, in Edinger's saloon a few nights since, was finished yesterday afternoon in the police court and resulted in an acquittal.

Mrs. Shu San Sen, a Chinese lady who is twenty-six years of age and has feet only three inches in length, passed through this city yesterday with her husband on his way to California. This lady has undoubtedly the smallest feet of any person of her age in the world, and has of late been holding receptions at Epstean's museum in Chicago.

Personal Paragraphs. R. M. Cox, of Palmer, is at the Windsor. A. Peterson, of Fremont, is at the Millard. O. C. Bell, of Lincoln, was at the Windsor yesterday.

J. D. McCane, of Topeka, is a guest at the Paxton. G. J. Washburne, of Davenport, Ia., is at the Paxton.

H. N. Moore, of Red Oak, Ia., is a guest at the Windsor. George Dorrington, of Falls City, is a guest at the Millard.

W. D. Clarke, of Des Moines, is registered at the Millard. R. F. Blake, of West Point, was at the Paxton yesterday.

W. E. Beach, of North Platte, was at the Paxton yesterday. T. H. Donahue, of Creighton, was at the Windsor yesterday.

J. H. Francis, traveling passenger agent of the Union Pacific, is at the Millard. F. M. Wood and F. W. Baldwin, of Lincoln, were at the Paxton last evening.

William E. Walton and Edward S. Burcko, of Genoa, are registered at the Paxton. Mr. Jeff Davis Bill, the general editor of the Music Trade Review, which is published in New York, is spending a day or two in the city. Mr. Hill has just returned from a professional tour along the coast which has improved him considerably.

Business Failures. Bradstreet's agency reports 180 failures during the last week against 177 the previous week and 142 for the corresponding period of 1887. Of this number the western states had 48 a loss of 17 as compared with the previous week and a gain of 15 when compared with the same week in 1887.

Army Notes. Brigadier General Brooke has ordered that Troop C, Ninth cavalry, be relieved from duty at Fort Robinson, and then proceed to Fort Du Cheno and take station. Troop B, Ninth cavalry, will then proceed from the latter point and take station at Fort Robinson.

By another order from the same source Troop D, Ninth cavalry, is detailed for duty in general recruiting service at Fort Sidney in place of Captain Joseph W. Duncan, Twenty-first infantry, who is relieved.

While C. W. Postly, engineer at No. 6 engine house was engaged in a friendly scuffle with another fireman yesterday afternoon, he fell backwards through the sliding door to the floor of the story below. He was knocked senseless and the boys thought at first that he was killed. He recovered consciousness in a few minutes, however, and discovered that his right arm was broken and his head and face were bruised and cut. He is now being cared for at the hospital.

The Judge a Gentleman. James Francis appeared before Judge Berka yesterday afternoon to answer to the charge of assaulting Patrick O'Connor. Francis pleaded guilty to the charge, but said he was prompted to do it because O'Connor had circulated reports damaging to the reputation of his sister. His honor said that while personally he would not defend the honor of his sister, still there was nothing in the statute that would allow him as a judge to justify such an action by acquittal. However, he would fine the lowest possible limit—$5. This Francis smilingly paid and left the court room declaring Judge Berka was a gentleman.

Placed Under Bonds. John Lisco of Clark, gave $500 bonds in Judge Anderson's court yesterday to appear for trial to answer the charge of obtaining some $500 under false pretenses from Solomon Seligman of this city. Lisco claims that there is no case against him whatever. He has papers to show that on August 4, 1887, he entered into a partnership with Seligman to buy, press and sell hay. Seligman was to furnish $100,000 which he bought and was to allow Lisco the privilege of drawing on him for $500 more. Lisco was to pay for all work relative to the handling and pressing the commodity, and for expending the limited $1,500, Seligman asked to retire from the firm and received as his equivalent for the money spent, $1,300 worth of baled hay. He had the hay, but Lisco got the $500 fraudulently, and will have him punished for it.

Look out for the Children. Living in the neighborhood of Twentieth and Cass streets are about forty children, bright, blue-eyed, black-eyed, golden-haired, black-haired little children, who will, if properly cared for, grow up into presidents and senators and presidents' and senators' wives. But some day, when their parents are not looking, a cable car will run over one of them, and then one more childish voice will join the angelic choir across the little brook that we all some time must cross. A conductor on the cable informed a reporter yesterday that accidents were only prevented by exercising the greatest caution, and that the little ones flock on the tracks and in the cable cars without any remonstrance by patrolmen or cable car side partner. And he also stated that the saying was official that unless the children were kept away it was almost impossible to prevent an accident.

DEMOCRATS. Union Pacific. "THE OVERLAND ROUTE." Will sell through tickets at one fare for the round trip, from points in Nebraska and Kansas to parties desiring to attend the meeting of the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 12th to 16th inclusive. Tickets good going June 8th to 13th and returning June 13th to 19th inclusive, with continuous passage only in each direction.

FROM BELOW THE LINE. Stop at the Globe hotel. FOR FALSE IMPRISONMENT. Dan Shandy Will Sue the City for Damages Very Soon. On Saturday night Dan Shandy, an employe for the Union Pacific, was arrested on the charge of assault with intent to kill. The nature of the complaint was that on April 26 Shandy knocked one Barrett, a B. & M. engineer, down the stairway at the Eden museum from which he received injuries which will terminate his life. Shandy was taken to the city jail and confined there for four or five hours and then released on a bond of $5,000. As soon as he was released he asked that he be taken to the hospital, where he was sent, and upon entering the room in which the injured man lay, was surprised to learn that the two men were old friends, and that since receiving his injuries Barrett had been the recipient of many favors and visits from Shandy. Of course Barrett stated that Shandy was innocent. These facts coming to Judge Berka at the preliminary hearing, he at once ordered the prisoner liberated. Mr. Shandy demanded to know the name of the party who preferred the charge against him, but was told by Judge Berka that he (the judge) had neglected to bring the keys of the drawer in which his papers were kept, and consequently his desire could not be gratified. Shandy then relates that he met Captain Green upon the street and propounded a like question to him and the only satisfaction received was the assurance that it was an unfortunate circumstance and that he was sorry it had happened.

As Mrs. Shandy was ill at the time the arrest was made, and in view of the fact that the arrest was made on very flimsy grounds, Shandy is of the opinion that he has very good grounds for a damage suit. On the day the assault was committed Shandy was at work switching cars at Howell's lumber yard and the least inquiry on the part of the party making the complaint would have resulted in his being arrested. It was not consulted as to whether he could or could not identify him, but the warrant was sworn out and the man arrested without further ceremony. Barrett was seen yesterday morning at the hospital, in a much improved condition and will doubtless recover. He positively refuses to sue Shandy, and the man who committed the act and declares that he can identify his assailant when captured.

Stop at the Globe hotel. HE DRAWS HIS BUNDLE. C. A. Jensen, the Contractor, Swindled by His Foreman. One year ago last November C. A. Jensen, the grading contractor, whose office is at the corner of Farnam and Dexter streets, employed one J. C. Wilson to work for him. Wilson was an entire stranger to Jensen, but so faithfully did he discharge his duties, and so generally useful did he make himself to the contractor, that he was but a few months before he was appointed foreman. And then in addition to the duties of this position he acted as Jensen's business adviser, kept his books, and attended to his bank account, depositing and drawing money whenever such services were required. Saturday night he was given the pay roll and Jensen signing his name to a check permitted Wilson to fill in the required amount and pay off the hands. Last Saturday evening he was given this check for the purpose indicated and Wilson cashed it thereupon, but being exactly $1,234. He lost no time in notifying the police, but all to no avail, the rascal had made good his escape, covering up his tracks well behind him. Mr. Jensen, however, at the bank, and identified both his own signature and Wilson's writing, for the latter, as had been his custom, filled in the amount. Diligent search was made to develop any clue to the thief's whereabouts, and it is doubtful whether he will ever be apprehended, as he is well shrewd and intelligent. Jensen has in all likelihood put a long stretch of country between himself and Mr. Jensen. He had told him the time and place that he was a widower and had two children and that they were living on a small farm near the city. A telegram was sent to the place named, but it was found to be a boarding-house on South Thirteenth street, and which he said, by the name of Smith would call for. This may possibly lead to the detection and arrest of the absconder, but the police have little hopes of being able to lay hands upon him.

MORTUARY. SCHULTZ. Mary Schulta, aged twenty-six years, with her little babe in the same coffin, were buried yesterday from Healy & Healy's, in St. Mary's cemetery.

MILES. Yesterday death came to the relief of a good young man named Arthur Miles, who died after a lingering illness at the poor farm. He was but twenty-one years of age, and the son of John Miles, formerly a blacksmith in the Union Pacific shops, more recently a member of the police force, and lately it claimed a party who made a hasty exit from town. Arthur was once a promising student in Creighton college, and since leaving he had held several clerkships, the last of which was in the office of the American District telegraph. He seems now to be without relatives and unless the friends of his father come forward, it is likely that his remains will find burial in pauper ground.

We would be pleased to know of a man or woman who has never had headache or been subject to constipation. As these seem to be universal troubles a little advice may seem in order. Why should persons crane their stomachs with nauseating purgative pills, etc., which sicken and debilitate when such a pleasant and sterling remedy as Prickly Ash Bitters will act mildly and effectively on the liver, kidney, stomach and bowels, and at the same time tone up and strengthen the whole system; causing headache, constipation and all such distressing evils to quickly disappear.

Drink Maltio is pleasant. Licensed to Wed. The following marriage licenses were issued Saturday by Judge Shields:

- Name and Residence. Age. Charles A. Swanson, Jamestown, N. Y., 23; Hulda K. Valien, Omaha, 19; Charles A. Schlander, Omaha, 30; Carolina Anderson, Omaha, 30; Henry R. Gould, Omaha, 30; Annie C. Platter, Omaha, 24; Charles E. Stryker, Omaha, 24; Aggie E. Bertelman, Omaha, 30; Daniel W. Forsberg, Concord, Neb., 29; Christmas Johnson, Omaha, 30.

TO SALT LAKE AND RETURN. "THE OVERLAND ROUTE." Will sell tickets from all Kansas and Nebraska points for the special excursion to Salt Lake City and return, June 6th, at one fare for the round trip. Tickets going good five days, and returning fifteen days, extreme limit thirty days. Stop-over privileges allowed within these limits. Parties desirous of visiting Garfield Beach, on Great Salt Lake, the famous watering place of the west, should improve the opportunity now offered.

Stop at the Globe hotel. A SAVAGE POLICEMAN. He Beats Up a Defenseless Prisoner in a Horrible Manner. Francis Carney and Thomas Abbott were arrested at the corner of Eleventh and Harney streets yesterday by Officers Haze and Ryan as suspicious characters. The men protested their innocence, and offered to furnish testimony as to their characters, but the coppers said that could only be done before the police court. Realizing that they were to be run in, Carney suddenly broke away and ran. He was pursued by Policeman Haze, who overhauled him near Bell's drug store on South Tenth street, and it is said by numerous onlookers that he drew his club and knocking the defenseless man down, beat him up in the most horrible, brutal and uncalculated manner. One young man, who was witness of the scene, said he saw Carney faint at the sight and had to be carried into the drug store and restoratives administered before he was brought around all right.

One or two men who were so close to the scene that they thought the policeman intended to club the man's brains out, and finally a number intervened and probably averted just what a tragedy this is another case of investigation, and if one half is found true that is alleged against Officer Haze, he should not only be fined for the force, but severely punished and sent over the hill as long as the law will allow.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS. Union Pacific. "THE OVERLAND ROUTE." Will sell through tickets at one fare for the round trip, from points in Nebraska and Kansas to parties desiring to attend the meeting of the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 12th to 16th inclusive. Tickets good going June 8th to 13th and returning June 13th to 19th inclusive, with continuous passage only in each direction.
