thinking that you will buy cheaper than you can to-day. Realty in Omaha—I. e. such as we sellis at bed-rock now. The city is growing rapidly and there will be an advance before there is a decline. Bon't let this fact escape your memory.
You will make money by heeding this advice.

While real estate matters are quiet and the city is fast developing into a great metropolis is the time to pick up a good business corner. We have bargains to-day that could not be touched for less than 25 per cent more than is now asked should there be a little flurry in realty. And this "little flurry" is pearer than most people think. Omaha is ripe for another advance, another cable line, a million doller hotel, or something of the sort would start speculation in good property again. The "wild cat" is too dead for anything, but inside Omaha property is better than a gold mine, as its resources are inexhaustable. M. A. Upton
