THE CITY.

The internal revenue collections yes terday amounted to $3,111.08. Justice Anderson yesterday continued for two weeks the case of Patrick Reardon, charged with breaking into a saloon in South Omaha. Hon. G. W. Lininger denies the story printed in an Omaha paper stating that he was about to build a $500,000 hotel. He says at the present time he has no such intentions.

John Solan was knocked down in front of Higgins' saloon yesterday, but don't know what struck him. His face is badly battered, and he is supposed to have been hit with a brick. William Healy, drunk, was identified as the as-sailant, and will have a chance to make an explanation to his honor this after-

A Bohemian named Rosisky, living at Cass and Thirty-third streets, re-sisted a constable who was levying on his chattels to satisfy a judgment and was before Judge Berka yesterday afternoon. Rosisky had paid the judgment, amounting to $28, but objected to $18 of fees as excessive. The court let him off with a fine of $7.50.

The members of the Women's Chris tian association wish to express their sincere thanks to all who contributed their time, labor and money to the success of the recent "May Fete." Espe cially do they thank the merchants of this city for their liberal donations and assistance in many ways, and to the press do they extend hearty thanks. The net proceeds amounted to $625.

Judge Berka gave an emphatic opinion yesterday of a class of beligerents who waste the time of the court with petty neighborhood squabbles. The occasion was the arrest of Mrs. Peter Ferron, of Chicago street, at the instance of a girl named Alice Shannon, for striking the latter. Eight hours were consumed by an officer in looking up witnesses only to satisfy the court there was nothing in the case. He dis-missed the matter with a little informal but indignant lecture.

They Didn't Boycott.

A rumor having been going the rounds o town for several weeks that the Knights of Labor had boycotted the Omaha Milling and Elevator company's flour, a committee of that organization recently examined into the affair and reported that there was no official boycott declared against the flour; that they have found nothing in the conduct of the company inconsistent with the rules governing the milling business; that the product of the mills should receive the same treatment as the product of all other fair mills, and that being an Omaha mill it should have hearty Robbed of Forty Dollars. David Thropp, a German from Grand Isl and, arrived in the city Sunday on his way to Kansas City. Notwithstanding the fact that he had plenty of money, he preferred to beat his way, and was hunting a convenient box car in the Union Pacific yards when he encountered two tramps, who, upon being in formed of his object, told him they knew of a car which was going to Kansas City, and as they were bound for the same point, they would all go together. They walked down to Sheely's station, and after getting into the car the two men went through Thropp, tak-ing all his spare cash, about $40. Then they, after telling him not to leave the after telling him not to leave the car for an hour, left. The police have been notified and aircady have a good idea of the parties.

E. M. Hill, of Beatrice, is in the city in the interest of the Chautauqua assembly associa tion at Crete, in general, and in the interest of the erection of a Presbyterian headquarters building on the grounds for the use and benefit of the Presbyterians of the state. The church here understands and fully appreciates the advantage and benefits of such a building and are responding nobly. They expect to aid liberally in the erection of a building that will be an ornament to the Keeline, Council Bluffs.

grounds and a credit to the church it represents. Mr. Hill is gratified to find the Pres byterians of Omaha in full sympathy with this enterprise. It is only in keeping with all its former record of good action during the past few years. From the First church twelve swarms have been "hived" and are now doing good work in different parts of the city, and has well earned the name of being the Presbyterian "stronghold." Many families are intending to spend the ful time on the assembly grounds this year.

BENCH AND BAR.

United States Court. A LAWYER ON THE RACK. A short, thick man, about forty-five years old, with a round face and head ornamented with a short, stubby, red mustache and brown hair, occupied a seat in the States court yesterday. He was dressed in a light gray suit of clothes that were made, perhaps, in New York, and wore lluloid cuffs. The gentleman in estion is H. H. Blodgett esq., Lincoln, Neb., a prominent attorney that city and a member of the ite bar. Mr. Blodgett was arraigned celluloid state bar. in court yesterday on the criminal charge of perjury and when asked what was his plea, said "not guilty," and demanded an immediate trial. "This," the court stated, "can hardly be given you as there is no money in the treasury for witness fees." Mr. Blod-gett, in the eagerness for his trial, stated that if the United States was too poor to furnish witnesses for the trial he would advance th money to procure the witnesses and allow the case to go on. He gave $500 bonds to appear June 15. The grounds upon which the Lincoln attor-ney was indicted were that he had tampered ney was indicted were that he had tampered with a juryman in a case that was on trial during the January term of court in Lincoln and that he had taken said juryman to his office during the course of the trial and thoroughly filled him with good, strong whisky. Mr. Blodgett denied the charge in court, and on this denial he was indicted "The case is all soite work." dicted. "The case is all spite work." said the attorney to a Brr reporter vesterday. "I was the attorney for the plaintiff Rhodes in his case against Meleck and others. The jurer whem they claim was given the whisky was not indicted at all. They simply want to do me up, but I will show you that I will exonerate myself if I get a hearing." The attorneys who are prosecuting the case think they will send his lordship down to spend the year with Mr. Van Etten, and allow them to go into partnership in the criminal law business.

VICTIMS OF OIL. Two Young Men Burned Sunday at

a Restaurant. A very painful accident occurred Sunday at the Hub restaurant on Fourteenth street between Dodge and Capitol avenue, in which two young men were very severely burned. An attache of the place named Frank Cotton, in an attempt to make his Frank Cotton, in an attempt to make his grate fire burn more rapidly threw upon it some kerosene which he had placed in a basin. The oil burst into a flame when it struck the coals and burned Cotton badly about the hands. He had not emptied the basin, however, and opening a door on the side of the kitchen threw out the blazing pan. As it reached the ground the liquid was dashed upon David Mahoney, and instantly his clothes were in a blaze. Cotton aided, with his own burned hands, to extinguish the flames on burned hands, to extinguish the flames on Mahoney, but was not successful un-til the latter had been burned se-verely all over the body and face. Cotton is confined to his room and Mohoney is at Dr. McMenamy's medical institute, where he is being cared for. He is a student at the Omaha Business college and takes his meals at the Hub. He rooms in 1416 Chicago and resides in Sabetha, Kan. He happened by accident to be near the door out of which the oil was thrown and was more severely injured than the man who threw it out.

Deceitful Bags.

The attention of THE BEE has been directed to a practice which is unjust to purchasers of cut feed. It is said this feed is generally put up in sacks which originally contained and are now supposed to contain 100 pounds. They are bought with that understanding, and paid for necord-ingly. But it has been discovered that in some instances they weigh less even than ninety pounds. They are prepared by millinen and sold to feed men by the pound, but to consumers, are disposed of as above indicated. A number of consumers have finally discovered the deceit, and the first to announce it was some of the Jobbers them-selves. It is evidently about time for the mill men to look out for themselves.

was discovered, and we are justified in saying it is the only remedy in the world that will positively cure, because the latest medical works, published by the best known authorities, say there was never a true specialc before. Our remedy is the only medicine in the world that will cure when everything else has falled. It has been so conceded by a large number of Gelebrated Physicians. It has NEVER YET PALLED TO CUIE. Why waste your time and money with patent medicines that never had virtue, or doctor with physicians that cannot cure you. You that have tried everything else should come to us now and get permanent relief; you never can get it elsewhere. Mark what we say: in the end you must take our remedy or NEVER recover. And you that have been addicted but a short time should by all means come to us now. Many get help and think they are free from the siseare, but in one, two or three years after, it appears again in a more borrible form.
