THE WIZARD OF WALL STREET

Jay Gould Passes the Night In Omaha.

HE SLEEPS IN THE OUTSKIRTS.

Strongly Enconsed and Guarded In His Private Car He Refuses to Be Seen-What He Is Doing Here.

Mr. Clarke Explains For Him. The rolling palace in which the famed rail road magnate and wizard of Wall street, Jay Gould, luxuriates when skipping over the country, rolled into the depot of the Missouri Pacific yesterday afternoon. Attached to this sumptuous house on wheels was the private car of S. H. H. Clarke, general manager of the Missoury Pacific, and a baggage car which contained an extra shirt and collar for Mr. Gould, and the catables and viands necessary to appease his delicate appetite three times a day. The engineer and his fireman upon whom devolved the responsibility of carrying the financier and his party have their headquarters at South St. Louis, and it is understood that the only work the engineer does is "to draw" Mr. Gould when he goes over the road. During the interim the knight of the cab is supposed to spend his leisure going over the various divisions of the great system, and making himself per-

The party, which comprised Mr. Gould, his brother, General Manager Clarke, Mr. Hopkins, a heavy stockholder in the Missouri Pacific, and a fifth gentleman, came on direct from Atchison, Kan., to Omaha, which is the terminus of the western division. Upon their terminus of the western division. Upon their arrival in the city the cars were sidetracked near the depot, the curtains of the rolling palaces were drawn, and but little life was visible, except that shown by the train attaches and the colored attendants, of whom there are several. Mr. Clarke was the only one of the party who presented himself, and that was only to give instructions to employee of the company who fitted in and out ployes of the company, who fitted in and out of the cars bearing voluminous documents. About 4 o'clock a messenger was dispatched About 4 o'clock a messenger was dispatched to the office of the engineer of the road for plats of the belt line branch, and these were closely scrutinized by Mr. Gould and thoroughly and minutely explained by Mr. Clarke. Dinner was served in Mr. Gould's car. Those who attempted to gain an audience with him were informed that he was sick and was not in condition to receive company. The train erew were alert in guarding the car, and kept outsiders at a respectable distance. Shortly after 6 o'clock Mr. Gould and Mr. Clarke took a short walk, and much fatigued Mr. Gould and his companion returned in fifteen minntes time. Like magic a switch engine down on the cars, and in a few seconds they were hauled off to Oak Chatham, two miles distant, where they were safely encoused on a siding and Mr. Gould immediately retired. From this point the party leave for Lincoln this morning.

A Beg reporter went out to Oak Chatham last night with the expectation of being ac-corded an interview with Mr. Gould, but was refused a hearing, not by the gentieman himself, but the numerous guards who surrounded his car. "Mr. Gould is very sick," was the warning, "and he cannot be disturbed. He left his car to-day for the first time in sev-eral, and he does not wish to see any one." At this functure Mr. Clarke appeared, and in his affable manner welcomed the reporter. In response to queries Mr. Clarke said: "Mr. Gould's present trip is in part for his health, but principally in the interests of the roads he owns and represents. As the people of the western division of the Missouri Pacific are fully cognizant we are now engaged in mak-ing vast and important improvements, and as to their extent Mr. Gould is arxious to inform himself. We are replacing the present iron with heavier rails of steel, and put ing on heavier engines. The lighter ones which have been doing duty on the division we are transferring to branches, and getting ready for enlarging the business between Omaha and Atchison." "Are any improvements contemplated on the belt line system?"

"Improvements that will prove beneficial to the citizens of Omaha are under consideration, but as nothing definite has been settled upon we are not prepared to state our plans as yet."

"Hasn't Mr. Gould's trip some political significance?" asked the reporter. "I don't talk politics with Mr. Gould," replied Mr. Clarke emphatically. "When I am with the gentleman it is on railroad business, 'Do you know who he favors for presi-

"I must repeat I know nothing of his political favorites."

"Has he expressed himself to you on the Blaine letter of declination !" Again I must say that Mr. Gould does not council me, or discourse on politics in my presence."

The impression has gained ground that Mr. Gould's present trip is not solely for health and railroad business, but has political tendencies, as the following, from the New York Commercial Advertiser, leads to the belief that it is to combat the Gresham boom. The Advertiser says:

"It is the general opinion, or suspicion, among the politiciaus at Washington, as we learn by special advices from that city, that Mr. Gould's western pilgrimage is undertaken, not so much for physical reasons as with a deep-laid political purpose not wholly unconnected with the Gresham boom. It is believed, in fact, that Mr. Gould proposes to burst, rend asunder, destroy, and utterly annihilate this hitherto highly prosperous boom, because Judge Gresham has not com-mended himself to Mr. Gould as a friend to the Gouldian theory and practice of railway management. Mr. Gould is a wealthy man, a shrewd man, and a determined man. It will be interesting to see how far the power of wealth, shrewdness, and determination can go toward undermining a popular candidate and shaping a presidential campaign according to the personal wishes of one private individual. It will be interest-ing to see whether the republicans of this country will consent to leave the selection of their candidate to Mr. Jay Gould. It is pre-cisely such occult and sinister influences as this that the people most sharply resent. Nothing has been brought forward as yet that is unfavorable to Judge Gresham. His decision in the Wabash case, which is sup-posed to have provoked Mr. Gould especially, is one of the strongest points in favor of the judge with the people, and if Mr. Gould's re-puted purpose should turn out to be his 1224 purpose, and should come to the knowledge of the community at large he would be and of the community at large, he would be apt to find that its effect on the boom would be just the reverse of that which he contem-plated and desired."

A Great Big No Sir!

NEW YORK, May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mayor Hewitt did not appear on the reviewing stand at Madison Square to-day, and the marching veterans were satisfied with the attendance of President Cleveland. The truth is the grand army men have snubbed him. Mr. Hewitt has been deliberately ignored by the committee of arrangements. He received as an invitation only a plain card, such as hundreds of other citizens were given, bearing the in-scription: "Admit A. S. Hewitt to the grand stand," which came to him by mail. He scemed to regard this as adding insult to injury. "Will you review the parade to-morrow, Mr. Mayor!" asked a reporter. "No, sir," came in thunder tones the an-

of Vegetation. DENVER, Col., May 30 .- A marvellous rain fall, which is perhaps at its culmination today, has visited Colorado the past few weeks. Never before in the history of the state has one-fifth such an amount of rain fallen in a similar period. Last week has witnessed a downpour every afternoon and something over a fortnight ago there was a steady fall of rain for thirty-six hours at a stretch. In this last named instance the deposit of moisture was greater than pre-vious years have shown for two months. Other recent rains have lasted during twenty-four hours. The extraordinary watering has not been confined to the vicinity of Denver, but the large extent is gen eral throughout the state, reaching to points like Akron and Sterling, and permeating equally the country once known on the naps as the Great American Desert. sons who have crossed the plains annually for sixteen years declare that they have never seen the prairies present such a spectacle before. The usually flat country seems a brown, barren waste, with grass growing only in tuffs or bunches. Now the vast prairie resembles a great lawn, so smooth and bright is the green sward. Around the city of Denver at present people have no use for irrigating ditches and the same is true of land for 120 miles eastward. It is expected that hay wil be gathered within six weeks or two months on tracts that have heretofore never been utilized for that purpose. The extraordinary rainfall has benefitted all kinds of crops and causes considerable excitement among producers, as the demand exceeds the supply, owing to a heavy influx of emigration. The generally accepted theory for the increase of rainfall is the breaking up of so much new land by settlers and the setting out of trees and shrubbery.

RESCUED THE MURDERER. A Minnesota Sheriff Chased by Indians in Canoes. DULUTH, M'nn., May 30 .- [Special Tele gram to THE BEE.]—Ten days ago Deputy Sheriff Free started from Tower, accompanied by Tim Beede, for Deer lake, in Itasca county, to arrest Cut Face, the Indian who murdered Joe Bannille recently. Arrived there they discovered that Cut Face had departed for Net Lake reservation, in St. Louis county, fifty miles away, where he had a father and brothers. Obtaining a cance the officers started for Net lake, where they arrived Sunday at 5 a. m. They found an Indian awake, together with several children. They discovered that he was Cut Face by his one eye and other distinguishing marks, Enticing him to the cance on the pretense that they wanted a paddle repaired, they gagged and manacted him, put him into the canoe and started off. The children saw this and aroused the camp. Sixteen Indians pursued and brought them back, using knives pursued and brought them back, using knives and axes. The officers' clothes were badly cut by their weapons. After parleying the white men were allowed to depart, being told that it was right for an Indian to kill a white man and no Indian should be punished for such a murder. Free, as soon as he arrived in Tower took a train for Duluth. To-day he obtained a warrant for the arrest of Cut Face, the chief of the Net Lake reservation, and four or five others. Returning to Tower, he will take a posse of ten men armed with Winchesters and capture the Indians.

A WEE INDIAN FIGHTER. Tired of His Escapade, He is Tramp-

ing Back Home. BRAINERD, Minn., May 30 .- | Special Tele gram to THE BEE.]-When the Pacific express on the Northern Pacific, coming east, arrived here to-day a wee lad, apparently about ten years old, stepped therefrom, and, pausing to study the circus bill boards, was observed by a policeman who took him in charge. The little fellow, who is very bright and well dressed, said that his name is Joe Friend; that he will be eleven in July, and that he lived at No. 1194 Jackson street, Chicago. He ran away from home three weeks ago to go out west where the great hunters are. He had no money and says he went as far as Yellowstone Park, and return ing had stopped a few days at Fargo. H was now working towards home. Taken t a kind citizen's house the lad showed him self a voracious reader, thrilling stories wit flashing pictures preferred, and to be ver smart. His father is said to be a job printe in the employ of Shepherd & Co., Chicago nd has been telegraphed to.

Church Howe at Kearney. KEARNEY, Neb., May 30 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-Hon. Church Howe, on behalf of the Missouri Pacific railway, met a large number of citizens to-night to have a conference in reference to the building of the road here. He stated that he was authorized to say that the road was coming to Kearney, but could not say just how soon. There is no doubt but that the road will reach here by fall at least. It is pretty well understood that the company will want the right of way into the city as a bonus.

Cattle. Wednesday, May 30, 1888.
There was a falling off in the receipts of cattle as compared with the day before of about twenty loads. There were some very choice cattle here and two bunches reached $4.65. The market was fairly active and about steady on desirable grades. Cattle that were inclined to rough and coarse were hardly as strong. About all the cattle suita-ble for the dressed beef trade were sold before the close.

Hogs. The receipts of hogs continue heavy, there being ninety fresh loads on the market today. The market opened with a few loads selling at about steady prices, but the shipping demand was very light and the local packers were rather indifferent buyers. The market lost in strength as the morning progressed, and at midday fully one-third of the hogs were unsold with trade completely the hogs were unsold with trade completely at a standstill. The market closed 5c lower with about 1,000 hogs unsold.

J. H. Cole, Palmer, was in with a load of cattle and a load of bogs. Both members of the firm of Berry & Bivin, Seward, came in with cattle. Sames Wehrman, Nelson, was here and marketed two loads of cattle.

John Russell Fullerton was here and marketed a load of hogs at the top, $5.40. Messrs. Bergess and Bennett, Cambridge, were here for the first time with stock. Geo. White and James Leslie were at the yards from Belvidere with cattle and hogs. Whiting, Ia., was represented by T. W.

Sieves, who came in with a load of cattle. Among the visitors at the yards to-day was L. Rappell, a well known live stock dealer of Chicago. Among those in with hogs were the following: J. Holderman, Alda; Richard Davis, Dewitt; D. K. Hancock, Pender, and Mr.

Mitchell, Schuyler. William Orr, Keg Creek, Ia., marketed 102 head of cattle to-day of his own feeding. They were Herefords and Durhams, and were the finest bunch of the size and kind seen here in some time. Swift & Co. were the purchasers. Mr. Orr marketed ten loads of cattle of his own feeding here last season and two loads of yearlings that weighed over 1100 were spoken of at the time as being something extra. Mr. Orr is one of the most successful and one of the heaviest feeders in lowa, and so long as he can come here with cattle, there ought not to be any question in in the minds of lowa shippers as to the advisability of marketing their cattle here.
