The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian association will be held at the residence of Mrs. Simon Eisman tomorrow at 3 o'clock. The Ogden house is not yet formally opened, but it is so far completed that last evening supper was served. The house is now ready for business. Yesterday afternoon the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Miller was buried. The funeral services were held at the residence, 1409 South Seventh street. Yesterday marriage licenses were granted to the following persons: Jacob Nelson and Gertie Larison, Willis J. Fowler and Maggie Stuart. All parties reside in this city.

Yesterday afternoon the deaf mutes from the institution met those of the Nebraska institution, on the Omaha base ball grounds and a rattling good game was the result. Wall McFadden started for Hawthorn lake yesterday afternoon. The object of his visit is not known. He took along a bit of fishing tackle, but, of course, he won't use it. Yesterday the band stand was moved from Bayless to Fairmouot park and placed at the head of Park avenue where it will be used for the same purposes as those for which it was originally made. Mr. A. B. Davenport lies in a critical condition at the Ogden house. His disease is typhoid fever. His family is with him, and everything possible is being done to alleviate his painful condition.

Masonic—Star Chapter No. 47, R. A. M., will hold its regular convocation Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work in the R. A. Refreshments after. All visiting R. A. M. cordially invited. By order M. E. H. P.

The pupils of Prof. Yonkermann gave an informal music recital yesterday afternoon at the hall in the "Gardens." He paid $8.10 for a plain drunk yester-day morning and before night was slid in on the greaser again. This time it is a double and twisted drunk. The Northwestern road ran out a lot of new coaches yesterday on Nos. 3 and 6. They were direct from the Pullman shops. They are of the most improved patterns throughout, and furnished with Baker heat-ers Within a week or so full vestibuled trains will be sent out, which will add much to the efficiency of the carrying service of Next Thursday evening the ladies of the Baptist church will give a social and strawberry festival. During past years the ladies have worked nobly for the cause they love, and it is largely through their efforts that the church is to-day in its flourishing condition. Such efforts merit recognition at the hands of the multic and this correctainment should be the public, and this entertainment should be most liberally patronized.

In the game of ball which will be played to-day at Manawa park the J. J. Hardins will be constituted as follows: Battery, Milwill be constituted as follows: Battery, Mil-lett and McElroy; Lucas, shortstop; Holland, first base; McLaughlin, second base; Ham-mond, third base; Bruington, left field; Baldwin, right field; McCray, center field. A collection will be taken at the beginning of the game to defray the expenses. To-morrow evening the Rev. Joseph E. Roy, D. D., of Chicago, will give a most entertaining and instructive jecture on 'Indians, negroes and Chinese." The lecture will be illustrated by seventy-five stereopticon views thrown on a screen by a powerfu dissolving calcium light. The lecture will be delivered at the Congregatinal church. No admission fee will be charged. No one can afford to miss it. Late Friday evening George T. Rounds, aged 20, and Gussie Tremaine, aged 18, both of Omaha, came over to the Bluffs and very quietly secured a marriage license and were married, the Rev. T. J. Mackay performing the ceremony. The groom is a son of the late S. P. Rounds, editor of the Omaha Re publican. The marriage is a surprise, for few knew that it was contemplated. Congratulations are in order.

A Hitch in the Prohibition Law. It seems that notwithstanding the decision of the United States supreme court in the Kansas cases, which was supposed to settle forever the validity of the Iowa prohibitory statute, that Messrs. Wright, Baldwin and Haldane do not regard the matter as settled. The fact that the circuit court of the United States has not yet remanded to the state court any of the Council Bluffs cases is a somewhat significant one. It will be remombered that motions to remand about three hundred cases were argued before the full bench in Dubuque some time since, Judges Brewer, Love and Shiras all being present. At that time it was discovered that present. At that time it was discovered that the grounds upon which Messrs. Wright, Baldwin and Haldane attacked the law were different from those relied upon by the other lawyers, and the Council Bluffs cases had a separate hearing. Nothing was done by the federal court until the decision of the supreme court was announced when all the lowa cases were presentable to the council the coun was announced when all the lowa cases were peremptorily remanded except, the Council Bluffs cases. It now transpires that the federal judges are in doubt as to these cases, and that an order has been made that further argument will be heard upon them when the United States circuit court convenes at Keo-kuk on the fourth Monday in June.

John Quirk is Guilty.

Yesterday morning in the district court the arguments in the Quirk case were continued. These were closed and the jury was charged at 4 o'clock. At 8:45 the jury announced an agreement, and they were taken into the court room, where the judge was waiting to receive the verdict. Quirk was pronounced guilty, and the judge set next Thursday to pronounce sentence.

The Finest in the Land. During the past week the Omaha and Council Bluffs Bridge company has completed its arrangements for equipping the notor line which is to connect the two cities. Mr. Pullman, of Chicago, was here and the order for this equipment was placed in his hands. That gentleman assured Manager Evans that when completed and in running order that line would be without exception the best in the entire west. It was also definitely settled that the motor cars will, after intersecting the present line at Six-teenth street, run up Broadway to First street, at the Methodist church corner. Then a person can get on the car at First street and step off at the postoffice in Omaha. This will assuredly give all that can be de-sired in the way of close connection between the two cities.

Motor Line Time Table.

Until further notice the Manawa motor line will leave the Rock Island tracks at 9, 10 and 11 o'clock a. m. ; at 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 o'clock p. m. and at 7, 8, 9 and 10 o'clock p. m.

Kansas City and Omaha. Commencing June 1, 1888, the K. C., St. Jo & C. B. R. R. Co. will run their trains Nos. 3 and 4 between Kansas City and Omaha via Council Bluffs and the U. P. bridge. They will arrive and depart the same as heretofore.

Why Not Go to Crete? Probably more than one-half of the population of Council Bluffs are more or less interested in the matter of establishing a Chantauqua assembly here. Very many have hardly an intelligent or adequate idea of the operation of this work. They are interested because they believe it will bring good results to the city and its interests. They are desirous of learning more of its practical workings than they have been able to do from the discussions of the subject which has been had heretofore. This opportunity will be given them during the sessions of the assembly at Crete, Neb. There is no question but what a large attendance of Council Bluffs and Omaha people would be secured if an excursion train would be run from here. Then the Chautaugua members here could attend these sessions at a very nominal expense. Let some one take the matter in hand. The investment would, without question, prove a paying one. hardly an intelligent or adequate idea of the

A PRETTY GIRL'S MISHAP.

Released from a Trying Position by a Gallant Mail Transfer Clerk.

A pretty, light-haired, blue-eyed girl, fashionably dressed, was strolling along on the north side of Chestnut street, above Eighth, yesterday afternoon, says the Philadelphia Times, when she came to a sudden halt, and was about to pitch forward on her face just as a lady caught her.

The French heel of the pretty girl's boot had caught in a little round hole, which, like hundreds of other little round holes in the sidewalk, had been filled with glass to give light to the basement of the store in front of which she had been walking. The glass had come out of one of the little circles, and the boot heel fitted the hole so tightly that it went in, but it would not come out. The young girl would have broken her ankle probably had it not been for the presence of mind of a woman passerby, who caught her. The young woman struggled heroically to free her heel, and her pretty face took on a deeper crimson blush as men, women and children gathered dround.

In a few minutes she was the center of 600 curious people. The imprisoned beauty was modest and sensitive, and she almost fainted as a hundred people volunteered their advice at the same time on the best way to release herself. An old military looking man, who is a well-known personage on Chesthut street, ordered Dobson's colored porter to go down the cellar and make "that fellow let go the lady's heel," and Mickey Mooney, the bootblack, of Eighth and Sansom streets, shouted: Sav. Jimmy, get me an axe.

Another man wanted somebody to go down the cellar and shove the plate out of place, and dozens of other foolish Mail Orders Carefully Filled. of place, and dozens of other looksh and stove House, will lady was smiling smiles of agony when goods on equal terms.

a good-looking young fellow, fashionably dressed, pushed his way through the crowd. He took in the situation, and after a courteous salute to the embarrassed woman, gallantly dropped on the knees of his new spring trousers on the dusty sidewalk. The young lady blushed deeper than ever as he gently raised her skirt, unbuttoned her boot and gave her freedom. Then he yanked the hee of the boot out of the hole and replaced the shoe on the shapely foot, and, after receiving the grateful thanks of the oung woman, modestly slipped out of the crowd, while the young woman took refuge in the store.

The young man was Mail Transfer Clerk Woodward of the Broad street station. He lives in Winchester.
