

THE CITY.

The funeral of the late C. C. Thrane will take place from his residence, corner Tenth and Centre streets, at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

J. J. Quinn, arrested in this city some days ago on the charge of stealing a watch from a woman in Lincoln, was yesterday taken to that place for trial.

The fire at 9 o'clock last night was at 1067 Capitol avenue, occupied by Hattie Anderson and owned by Thomas Cotter. A lamp exploded, and $100 will cover the loss.

Edward Spellberg, whose cabinet shop and tools were burned with the Mayo paint works, saved a beautiful piece of inlaid wood, a desk with a lid of walnut, brought from the old country. The walnut is inlaid with branches of orange and pieces of a prune tree printed by Mr. Spellberg's mother.

It was reported on the streets last evening that J. E. Riley, a well-known contractor, had been thrown from his carriage and killed. In answer to a telephone call, Mrs. Riley cheerfully reported her husband well and sound, and somewhat later in the evening Mr. Riley himself was seen on the street on his way to Kansas City.

J. F. Cullinan, wife and family, of Sioux City, Ia., are at the Windsor. B. R. Tehault, of Beatrice, was in the city yesterday on his way to Mississippi to plant the stakes for the new iron town to rival Birmingham.

She Came More Than Half Way. But one marriage license was issued Saturday. The parties were Henry C. Venn, of Hollis, Wyo., aged 33, and Mrs. J. A. Graft, of Glenwood, Ia., aged 31.

Drunkenness and Wife Beating. Ellen O'Neill filed a petition in the district court Saturday asking for a divorce from Jefferson W. O'Neill. The husband is accused of maltreating his wife and of being a habitual drunkard. He is also branded as being unfit to have the custody of his children.

To Sell the Truth. The Truth newspaper concern has been advertised to be sold at auction June 13 at 10 a. m., on the corner of Thirteenth and Douglas streets. The order of sale is given by Judge Anderson in favor of J. W. Everts, former editor of the paper, the Carpenter paper company and the Western Newspaper Union, plaintiffs in several attachment suits.

Insulting Women. There is a class of idlers upon the street who have been accustomed to make obscene remarks to abandoned women with impunity. Some of them have become reckless and indiscriminate, with the result of insulting respectable women. Judge Herber has issued such cases before him Saturday and fined them from $5 to $15 and costs.

Wanted by His Bossman. John Dingman has gone to Des Moines in search of Will Bryan, who is reported to be charged with seduction. A real estate dealer named Foster sent on his bail bond for $1,000, and wants to turn him over to the authorities. Bryan was manager of the Des Moines ball team the forepart of last season, and is otherwise known to the sporting fraternity as a sprint runner. His wife is of some fame. The girl in the case is named Stack.

The Crete Assembly. Considerable interest has been manifested during the past week in the meeting of the Chautauqua assembly at Crete on the 28th of this month, and many prominent citizens have taken stock in this institution and are arranging to attend this year. The programme published in last Sunday's Bee speaks with the best talent in the world. The following gentlemen have taken stock the past week: Governor Saunders, Henry Yates, Joseph Millard, John L. Thurston, L. Rice, L. O. Jones, Dr. A. B. Somers, Charles W. Higgins, Rev. Charles W. Savidge, Wing B. Allen, George Jephia, James Bonner and Lu B. Calk.

In the Nick of Time. A few minutes after 1 o'clock Sunday morning Officers Ormsby and Dempsey noticed smoke issuing from the saloon of Montgomery & Adams at Dodge and Fourteenth streets. They found the side door wide open, and after groping about in the smoke located the fire in the cellar. With the help of the block warden they got the water and extinguished the blaze. The fire was in a heap of rubbish, and the circumstances point to incendiarism. The owners were called but did not discover anything stolen. They had closed up at 12 o'clock.

A Traditional Stepmother. Isaac Williams spent the night in the central station on the charge of wife beating. An officer who knows him well says Williams is a sober, industrious and well-behaved carpenter. Mr. Williams was a widower and his wife a widow when they married. The woman led her first husband a lively dance, and married within a month of his death. Williams has a daughter by his first wife and her stepmother has driven her from home. She also objects to her father supporting her among friends, and it is possible the quarrel led to blows. It is intimated that the arrest was made at the instance of a man rooming in the house.

Preparations for Celebrating. Arrangements for the coming Fourth of July celebration, by the various labor organizations of the city, are being rapidly perfected. The sub-committee on finance, which was appointed last Tuesday evening to gather funds from the various corporations and merchants, has been meeting with fair success, over $500 having already been collected. The salaries have all agreed to be greatly reduced rates, while the use of the fair grounds has been donated for the occasion by its managers. Among the interesting displays at the grounds on that day will be chariot and horse racing, as well as balloon ascensions. In the evening a pyrotechnic display will either be given on the high school campus or in Jefferson square. The speaker of the occasion will be ex-United States Senator Van Wyck, who has kindly consented to deliver an oration.

Put to Bed $40 Worth. It is a dangerous practice for Iowans to come over to Omaha to do their shopping. They can't keep pace with the town. For example, Frank M. Jones, having an indefinite residence in the prohibition state, put in Saturday getting full. When he rolled into the Metropolitan hotel at night he was in the 'ow of a man who registered as Frank Backer. The night clerk didn't like the looks of Backer, who was ignorant of his companion's name, but as the strangers insisted on having a room together they were accommodated. An hour later the clerk heard some one leave the hotel. Suspecting it to be Backer, he went into the room and found the fellow gone. Jones was in too heavy a stupor to be aroused. In the morning he reported that he had been robbed of a pocketbook and $40. Jones scoured the city and got track of the man, but that is all.

Want Their Clothes Back. The senior member of the firm of Nelson & Wesberg, tailors at Boone, Ia., arrived in the city yesterday in search of the burglars who robbed their store Thursday night of $500 worth of made-up clothes. The thieves took out the cash of the front window and carried away nine coats, seven vests and fifteen pairs of trousers. The tramps, for such they evidently were, went to a Chicago & Northwestern railway box car and rigged themselves out in new suits, leaving their old duds in the car. The also left two of the new vests.

A Serious Charge. Frank Murray died of dropsy at St. Joseph's hospital yesterday. He was about thirty-eight years old and leaves a wife and family at Rochester, N. Y. A man named O'Neill, who attended Murray while at their boarding house, reported that the deceased had given a Dr. Smith $300 on a guarantee that he would be cured, but that the doctor sent the patient to the hospital after a week's treatment. The only Dr. Smith in the directory could not be found last night at the address given and O'Neill's residence could not be learned.

DR. GERTH AND TUBERCULOSIS.

The State Veterinarian Ordered by the Governor to Root It Out.

The following order has been issued to Dr. Gerth, state veterinarian, by Governor Thayer, and will be readily understood by everybody, especially dairy men in this vicinity. It emphasizes the governor's appreciation of pure milk, as referred to in Tim Bree yesterday, as also the active measures necessary to be resorted to in order to attain that result.

STATE OF NEBRASKA, Executive Department. Lincoln, Neb., June 2, 1888. Dr. J. Gerth, State Veterinarian. Dear Sir: Having completed your labors at Sutton you will please return to your office in Omaha and resume the examination of all the dairy herds which supply Omaha with milk; and you will continue this investigation without interruption, as I will not call you away for duty at any other point until your labors around Omaha are completed.

I trust your investigations will be of the most thorough and searching character, and on the slightest sign of tuberculosis in any animal of the herds, you will require the owner to separate her entirely from the most stringent orders to that effect; and also lay upon them the most rigid prohibition of their use of milk from any such animal. Inform them that any disregard of your orders in these respects will be followed up by the severest penalties the law can inflict. I trust, however, that every owner of a cow will be ready and willing to comply with your orders liberally.

When your labors there are concluded, I shall await your report with a great deal of interest.

The live stock agents are ready to render you every assistance at all times. Very truly yours, JOHN W. THAYER, Governor.

P. S. If there should be any discrepancy of your orders you will at once lay the matter before the prosecuting attorney of Douglas county.

A BIG BLAZE.

The Mayo Paint Works Entirely Destroyed. Yesterday forenoon about 11 o'clock the Mayo paint manufactory was discovered to be on fire, and notwithstanding the fact that the department was on hand in a very short time after the alarm was sounded, the damage acquired a remarkable headway owing to the large amount of combustibles inside the building. The stable belonging to the American District telegraph company, a laundry building and two dwellings next the paint works were badly burned, the former being almost a total wreck. The paint works were completely destroyed, as were the entire contents. The loss is estimated at $7,000, which is nearly covered by insurance.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have originated from the carelessness of some little boys who were playing in the rear of the paint works nearly all the forenoon, and it is believed the little fellows had matches with them, which were lit, and upon being dropped caused the blaze.

There should be some place for the key to the fire alarm box at that point. Yesterday it was hanging in the office of the Wyeth lumber yard, and the building being locked, the man who discovered the fire burst in the door, and the disgust of the gentleman in charge of the building, who was highly indignant. Had the lumber yard been ablaze it might have differed.

HIS STORY.

The Mulatto is Ready to Marry the White Girl. Cyrus Terrill, the mulatto accused of betraying the Norwegian girl, Maggie Nelson, was found in his restaurant last evening busily serving customers as though nothing had occurred to disturb the even flow of his life. The restaurant is on Dodge street, near Twelfth, and receives its patronage from the colored and "sporting" population so numerous in its immediate neighborhood.

The girl's story was given in a dispatch from St. Paul in yesterday's Bee. Terrill denies that he used his position as her employer to overcome her scruples, and says there is no truth in the statement that he showed her a paper purporting to be a marriage certificate. He says they had been acquainted and intimate for several months before he engaged in the restaurant business, and she had frequently betrayed the expenses of their coquetry. They were both cooks at the Cozzena house about a year ago. The girl had come there in company with a white cook from Atlantic, Ia., under promise of marriage. The latter then secured $20 of her money and disappeared.

Terrill sent the girl to St. Paul, as stated by her. He says he expected to follow and open a restaurant in that city, but his partner here failed to put up the cash necessary to buy up the Omaha business. Terrill claims that he then wanted to send for the girl to come back, but could not learn of her whereabouts. When notified of her condition by a telegram from the city physician of St. Paul, he wired back to give her all needed attention and send her to Omaha as soon as possible.

"I don't think it just the thing for white people to marry colored," said Terrill, "but I'll do anything the girl says. If she says 'marry me,' I'll do it. The best way out of the trouble is the best way. I want to do what's right by her. As long as I have a nickel she's welcome to it."

The girl returned from St. Paul yesterday morning. She reported at the home of Terrill's partner, J. T. Rice, but left immediately without calling on Terrill. The latter made a search for her, but up to last night her whereabouts remained a secret.
