Lively Shooting at Valentine.

Valentine, Neb., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A desperate shooting affray took place at Mattie Sanderson's house of prostitution near Fort Nebraska late last night in which Sergeant Nolan was fatally wounded by Private Taylor and a woman by the name of Cary. Road dangerous on the left shoulder of the woman. Taylor gave himself up to the officer of the guard, claiming he shot in self defense. Nolan died at noon today. An inquest was held by Dr. Lewis, coroner, and Dr. Wilcox, of the post. One ball passed through the thigh and the other directly through the body from right to left, passing the liver and stomach. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that Nolan came to his death by a bullet fired from a pistol in the hands of Alexander Taylor, maliciously and feloniously. Sheriff Little brought the prisoner here to-night and has him safely in jail. The shooting occurred on a piece of dead land in the military reserve, therefore subject to civil law and not like the murder at Fort Robinson which occurred on the reservation, which Judge Kinkead decided on the military jurisdiction. The woman is lying in a critical condition.

Gresham and Manderson.

LOP CITY, Neb., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A mock national republican convention was held in Smith's opera house last night by the republican club. The convention was called to order with Fred Bacon, president of the republican club, in the chair and C. W. Gibson secretary. The roll was called by states and the convention proceeded with nominations for president.

Scott of Illinois.

Scott of Illinois, in an eloquent and enthusiastic speech, nominated Gresham. After many compliments to him he concluded his speech by saying "that should his nominee be elected no trophies of the battle field would ever be returned to the south, and no man would be called a seceder on the same bench who would better grace the scaffold." The first ballot resulted as follows: Hawley 110, Gresham 123, Harrison 96, Allison 34, Alger 94, Manderson 25, Dewey 175, Sherman 108. The second ballot stood: Gresham 258, Allison 28, Alger 12, Manderson 1. The call for states for nominations for vice president was not responded to until Kentucky was reached, when Culley, in a short but brilliant speech, nominated Manderson, who was immediately elected by acclamation.

Suicide at Norfolk.

NORFOLK, Neb., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—F. H. Barrier, who came here a few days ago to open a shop for the manufacture of fine shoes, bought strychnine at a drug store this morning on the pretense that he wished it to kill rats. He went to his shop, took the poison and in a little while was dead. He was about thirty years old and a widower with several children. He was sober this morning, but had been drinking heavily the night before. Dr. Long was summoned from Madison and an inquest held, the jury finding that he came to his death by strychnine administered by his own hand. A note was found on his counter which read: "Dear Joe: Good bye. Be fair to the children. Frank." There was also an unfinished note to his sister.

Fremont Democrats.

FREMONT, Neb., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A number of the democrats of Fremont met at the court room last night for the purpose of organizing a democratic committee club. George W. Davey was chosen chairman and W. H. Hunter secretary. After appointing committees on soliciting recruits under the red banner, constitution and by-laws, the order of business was to meet at the residence of Mr. Davey, who was called to the court room by a messenger who had just received a telegram from the Kansas legislature.

Horse Thieves at Sutton.

SUTTON, Neb., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Last night horse thieves stole four valuable horses from Dan George, a wealthy farmer on the Blue river north of Sutton. They took also his family phaeton and two sets of fine harness. One was a fine team of matched sorrels and the other matched pair. The thieves are supposed to be parties from Kansas who wintered with Mr. George. They have been together with Genova and Clay Center and will probably reach Thayer or Nickolls county last night. A force of men is being sent to hunt them and it is expected will overtake the thieves by the time they reach the Kansas line.

Wahoo has decided to keep up with the procession and have a celebration on the Fourth that will excel anything ever before known in this part of the country.

Fremont's Free Delivery.

FREMONT, Neb., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Postmaster Murray of this city has just received official notice from Washington that free mail delivery service will be commenced here on the 1st of July. It was intimated that the service should have begun on the 1st of last January, but there were so many applications in ahead of Fremont's that the appropriation for this department were exhausted before Fremont was reached. Three carriers have been appointed. Twenty-eight iron mail boxes for different portions of the city were received today.

Arrested For Gambling.

NELSON, Neb., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Quite an excitement is caused here by the arrest of our city marshal, Mr. Thomas Monger. He had been quite active in bringing our temperance billiard hall within the bounds of the law, several parties being arrested and fined yesterday. Yesterday he was arrested for gambling with them last Sunday. His name is to be withdrawn if he will resign. It is expected that the citizens will back the marshal.

His Hand Crushed.

WAHOO, Neb., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—William March, an old and respected citizen of Saunders county, met with a severe and painful accident near Weston yesterday afternoon. Mr. March was using a road grader and was using the machine, when the team suddenly started up, catching the right hand in the cog wheels, and before the team could be stopped his hand was nearly torn off and it is so badly crushed that it will probably have to be amputated.

St. Paul 5, Omaha 2.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Omaha's dropped their third straight game to the St. Pauls today through their inability to hit Tuckerman. Burns hit very often, but the hits that St. Paul did get were well bunched and timely. St. Paul scored three in the first half of the third inning after two men were out, on a single, a batsman hit a pitched ball and a double. In the fourth a single by Slater and a steal of second and third, followed by Tuckerman's single, gave one more. St. Paul scored but one hit from this time until the ninth inning, when a base on balls to Shafer, a single, and a home run by Burns gave one more. Omaha got on to Tuckerman in the third inning on singles by Nagle, Miller and Burdick, and Cooney's out gave them two runs. It looked as though they would score several more in this inning, as Carroll muffed Adams' fly and Tuckerman threw Wilson's hit wild to second to head off Adams, but Burns hit to Tuckerman, who threw Burdick out at the plate and the catcher sent the ball to first ahead of Burns. Omaha had another good chance to score in the sixth inning. After two men were out, Nagle made a hit and Miller and Burdick were sent to first on balls, but Cooney popped up an easy fly and the side was retired with three men on bases. The score:

A PERSECUTED RACE.

The Treatment of the Unfortunate Morocco Hebrews.

A writer in the Boston Transcript says: The Jews of Morocco are to my mind one of the most interesting and the most trying race of people I ever met. Subject to restrictions in their life and business which would exterminate an ordinary race of people in two generations, they have grown, prospered, and in many places are masters of their masters. It would take more room than I can give to tell you the story of the Jews in Morocco, so I must be content with the shortest sketch possible. No one knows just where the Moorish Jews came from, but of course they have been connected with the lost tribes and all that. The main facts are, they are in Morocco without knowing themselves just how they got there. Among the anomalies connected with them is that they are hated and despised by the Moslems, subject to every insult and degradation that can be imagined, and they are recognized as such necessary members of society that there is a law, which is actively enforced, forbidding Jews to leave the country under any circumstances, and if they do, they are treated as outcasts, and treated worse than the meanest and lowest animals; and, whether in the way of retaliation or the means which in the place of society, this is a brutal treatment, I am not competent to say, they in return treat the Moslems with fairly devilish cruelty when they get them in their power, as they often do through money transactions; for, as in other lands, the superior cunning of the Jews makes them the bankers of the country, and with a debtors' law which allows the imprisonment of a man until his debt is discharged, there are ample opportunities for the Jews to act as lenders in Morocco.

An Addition to the Sick List.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Jimmy Burns, the clever left fielder of the Omaha club, had the forefinger of his left hand badly split in catching a fly ball in the first inning of today's game. As he held the ball and continued to play, the wound became very painful. It is supposed he was badly hurt, but it is learned to-night that his finger is in very bad shape and it is doubtful if he will be able to play again for a short while.

DARK AND TRAGICAL.

A Lover Returns and a Jealous Rival Tries to Kill the Girl. A house of ill-fame at Eleventh street and Capitol avenue is occupied by colored women, among them is Alice McDonald. Alice took her other name from an old lover, who left town some time ago. She has since been intimate with a man named St. Clair. McDonald returned to the city the other day and sought out the cyprian. Being in a flush with money he took her out riding yesterday afternoon to the town and making the circuit of the road houses. St. Clair saw them and the fires of jealousy were kindled in his heart. He called on the girl last night and accused her of unfaithfulness. He emphasized the remark by using a stick to knock her down. She was in a state of great alarm and fled to the darkness, but she escaped unharmed. St. Clair then slept, and no arrest was made. Both the men in the case, as well as the woman, are colored.

Senator Frye As a Fisherman.

There are a great many enthusiastic fishermen in the senate; none more so than Senator Frye, of Maine. Every year, toward the middle of May, he and his wife go to the coast, where he takes a tackle and starts upon a two weeks' fishing trip. When Senator Kennebec goes down among the mountain streams of West Virginia he not infrequently takes one of his colleagues with him; but Senator Frye does not want any amateur to spoil his sport. He sometimes takes Dr. Baxter, the medical purveyor of the army, who is an experienced fisherman, along with him, but he is not a fisherman. The senators to join him in his excursion. Senator Frye tells an amusing story of his first experience with a salmon. He went out one morning and returned late in the afternoon enthusiastic over his first catch.
