Picking Pretty Posies.

New York, June 15.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A World's cable from Asken this morning says the Blaine party arrived here to-day. It was the pleasantest day of the tour. The coach left early in the morning, and stopped before sundown at the Greensman. Says Mr. Crawford: "I had a long conversation this evening with Mr. Blaine, in which, however, politics were carefully eschewed. He has seen the Times dispatch, indicating a very strong movement on foot to nominate him by acclamation on the meeting of the convention, but has nothing to say regarding the matter. While I have little doubt that Blaine is well informed of everything concerning the gathering at Chicago, and as to what his political complexion is, one would hardly think so from his disengaged, frank, unprejudiced manner. It would have been an edifying sight for the gentlemen who at present are doubtless making the corridors of the Palmer house echo with the political palaver, to have seen their chief this afternoon gathering flowers and making them up into wreaths and nosegays in the castle grounds at Tuckahoe. Tomorrow the party proceeds to New York. Sunday will be spent at North Allen.

For this very reason there is no today a remedy within the reach of the public more highly prized for its value in the household, in the counting-room, workshop and factory, than Bessor's PLASTER as a remedy for aches and pains of every kind. In Quinze Colic, Rheumatism, Pleurisy, Chest Pains, Rheumatism, Sciatica and Backache, Bessor's PLASTER is recognized by physicians and public as an external remedy with out an equal. It acts promptly, pleasantly and effectually. To secure good results always ask Bessor's name and take no other plaster.
