

THE CITY.

BREVITIES.

The internal revenue collections yesterday amounted to $13,002.03.

J. Martin was arrested at the races yesterday while trying to "work" a drunken man.

A club run of the Omaha Wheel club is called for Tuesday next to the fort and return, starting at 6:00.

Byron Clark, of the Full Dress salon, who accepted a customer's watch instead of his money, was discharged by Judge Berka.

Tim Dailey, the good for nothing, who may be wanted as a witness against Burglars Wilson and White, has been sent to the county jail as a vag.

James Brady, the Pinkerton detective, arrested for clubbing Charles Meyers at the & C. was discharged. Meyers failed to appear against him.

J. F. Hahn, of 1612 North Twenty-fifth street, left two horses in the care of George E. Scofield on Ohio street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth. Scofield has disposed of the property and disappeared.

The police are congratulating themselves on the good work they have done in sending five crooks to the district court since Saturday. They are Frank Wilson, Charles White, Frank Desmond, John Charles and John Walsh.

A coroner's inquest was held last night over the body of George Owens, who was hurt at the Union Pacific crossing on Twentieth street and died at the hospital. The verdict was that he came to his death from causes unknown to the jury.

Edward Marsley was arrested last evening charged with "indecent assault on Lizzie Evans." The girl says he caught hold of her arm as she was passing his saloon at Eleventh and Howard streets. Marsley says he merely spoke to her.

The ten-year-old girl taken in by W. H. Adams, at Thirty-first and Miami streets, is Blanche Wilson, who was picked up by the police a few nights before and said she had been deserted by her mother. She seems to be an incorrigible runaway.

Albert Morton came to Omaha Thursday with a brother he had removed from the Beatrice institution for the feeble minded. They were putting up at the American house when the unfortunate brother bolted and climbed a chimney. He is deaf and dumb, about five feet six and has gray eyes.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

E. J. Roderick of Beatrice, Neb., is at the Paxton.

W. E. Lawler of Salem, Neb., is at the Paxton.

F. J. Ellis of Hastings, Neb., is at the Millard.

F. H. Penny of Fullerton, Neb., is at the Millard.

John H. Dahl of Nebraska City, Neb., is at the Millard.

E. M. Lambeth of Nebraska City, Neb., is at the Paxton.

E. D. Einzel and wife of Holdrege, Neb., are at the Paxton.

Thomas F. Bird left last night on an extensive eastern tour.

John P. Organ, of Neola, is in the city attending district court.

W. S. Bruner, of Oakland, Ia., is in the city attending the races.

W. W. Drummond and wife of Plattsmouth, Neb., are at the Millard.

John C. Watson and wife, F. B. Smith and wife, and Elia Hills, of Nebraska City, Neb., are guests at the Paxton.

Mrs. A. C. Osterman, wife of the chief clerk of Captain John Simpson, depot quartermaster in this city, left Wednesday for West Point, N. Y., on a visit to relatives.

Attorney George, of Oakland, Ia., passed through the city yesterday en route to Tecumseh with a requisition for Frank Mapes, who is wanted at Oakland for grand larceny.

W. E. Foster, of Denver, who has been in this city for some time, left last night for Houston, Tex., where he has accepted a position with the Wells, Fargo & Co. Express company.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

J. T. Cole fell from a wagon sent on Pacific street last evening, and was seriously injured about the body and head. He was taken to his home and medical aid summoned.

OFF FOR LINCOLN.

Sheriff Coburn and Jailer Miller left for Lincoln yesterday, having in charge Ellen Smart, an insane woman, and Volney, the South Omaha man convicted of grand larceny who pleaded guilty and was sentenced to nine months in the penitentiary.

THE TERRY'S MISFORTUNE.

The Terry is still lying in a precarious condition where she sank on last Sunday night. There is now about five feet of water above the lower deck. The work of appraising the goods damaged in those lost in the wreck is progressing as rapidly as possible, the boat owners, the Union Pacific and the soldiers having representatives among the appraisers. The intention on the part of the Union Pacific is, if possible, to settle with the soldiers without having recourse to law.

A FEROCIOUS DOG.

A little boy living near the corner of Sixteenth and William streets was badly bitten in the breast by a ferocious dog yesterday afternoon. Constable Masterman was called to kill the dog and he followed in order to pull the dog out, when the animal flew at him, biting and lacerating his arm from the hand to the elbow. While the dog had its teeth in his flesh the constable shot it with a revolver which he held in the other hand.

IT FIZZLED AND SIZZLED.

Messrs. Rothacker, McConnell and Judge Hawes sizzled for a long while in front of the council chambers last night, and waited until nearly 9 o'clock for additional ones to come and help them establish a boom for the candidacy of John Sherman for president. The looked for boomers failed to materialize, Rothacker said something about fizzle, McConnell declared the race off and Judge Hawes sought the nearest water fountain.

A FINGER FOR DUCATS.

Dr. McDonald, who for some time past has filled the position of associate priest to Father Jeanette at St. Patrick's church, Fourteenth and Castellar streets, has had his "faculty" withdrawn by Bishop O'Connor.

The cause for the action is the practice to which the reverend gentleman has been addicted, of raising funds from his various congregations, ostensibly for church purposes, but which have been appropriated to his own use.

MR. MCCARTY GETS A LIGHT FINE.

The case of M. J. McCarty, charged with firing a murderous shot at Lindsay, the ex-officio prize fighter, on Wednesday evening, was finished in the police court yesterday and resulted in an acquittal on the charge of shooting with intent to kill. It was thought that the conduct of Lindsay, who is a low and dangerous character, was such as to make the firing on him by McCarty an act of self-defense. The judge thought, however, that some penalty should be imposed on McCarty, and therefore fined him $5 and costs.

DISTINGUISHED JAPANESE.

Omaha was the recipient of a visit from another party of distinguished Japanese Thursday. It consisted of T. Tokuno, vice chief of the bureau of engraving and printing, finance department, Tokio, Japan; S. Takiyama, general chemist of the same bureau, and S. Taoka, of the Petroleum Oil company, Kobe, Japan. They were en route from the firing on to San Francisco. Each member of the party is highly educated, and as suave and approachable as a reporter can ask for. They have been in America nine months investigating the national departments, and return home more inflated than ever with American ways, which S. Takiyama says his countrymen are rapidly adopting. In his questions concerning Omaha he inquired particularly concerning the factories, remarking that they were a source of great wealth to a state, and that his country, realizing this, was encouraging the establishment of a great number of such industries. The party resumed their journey yesterday.

NEBRASKA'S MOTTO.

The committee having in charge the decoration of the Nebraska headquarters during the republican convention in Chicago, left for that place Thursday night. They have had all their banner work done in this city, the artist being Herman Kowalevicz, on Fifteenth street, the following inscriptions having been painted in excellent style: "Headquarters of Nebraska, 1867-1888"; "Corn is King of Cereals and Republicans"; "Fifty Thousand for the Republican Nominee"; "Our Guest, General John C. Fremont, First Non-Comm. Republican Party, 1846." The motto will be displayed both inside and outside the headquarters.

FELL DOWN A CISTERN.

Mrs. Locke, a lady living at 1913 Iowa street, had a narrow escape from drowning Thursday night about 9:30. In the rear of the house in which Mrs. Locke resides is a cistern and she may be supposed the house is a tenement, which the owner of the premises has left without any protection whatever. Mrs. Locke, who had just moved in was unaware of the existence of the cistern, and while walking around in the back yard fell headlong into the well. Her daughter, who witnessed the accident, screamed frantically, which brought several men to the rescue and the lady was taken out after being in the water about ten minutes. A physician was summoned and yesterday the poor lady was all right with the exception of some sore bruises.

HIS GIRL WAS WITH HIM.

There was a row of hicks in front of the Grand opera house Thursday night waiting for the exit of the Gilmore concert audience, when the following conversation between two of them was noted: "Got a load going home?" inquired one of the high seated men. "I have if I can find them, or if they go home, but I may stop in town." "Where did you get them?" "You know where the cut is on the road to South Omaha? Well right there, I brought two up and when I dropped here, the asked how much I wanted and I told him $4. Gave him ten, but you ought to see him kick. But I knew he had his girl with him so I soaked it to him, and I know that he could not kick long." "The enterprising extortionist laughed and the other man inquired to whom he was speaking roared as if it were the best joke of the season.

A MAN WITH TWO WIVES.

Six years ago C. H. Gordon was married to Emma Chambers, of this city. She knew at the time that he had been married before, but he assured her that his first wife was dead. He did not prove much of a prize, however, and Emma found that instead of having somebody to support her, she herself had to do the providing. He essayed to make a little money once by counterfeiting two years ago and got into jail for his efforts. Since then he has abandoned all efforts to make a living. Three weeks ago she was astonished by his announcing to her that his first wife was still living and he intended going back to her. Wife No. 1, meanwhile, had been living in Lincoln, and at his solicitation she has come to Omaha and the re-united pair are at present living near the corner of Nineteenth and Chicago streets. Wife No. 2 has sworn out a warrant for his arrest on the charge of bigamy.

RAILROAD NEWS.

An official circular by General Manager Gault, of the Omaha & St. Louis railway, has been issued and by virtue of it M. B. Williams becomes commercial agent, with headquarters in this city. The Durant hose company go on an excursion to Fremont to-day. A train of ten coaches and one baggage car will be provided. The train leaves the depot at 5:30 a. m. William M. Sage, general traffic manager of the Rock Island, was in the city Thursday.

C. F. Zimmerman, assistant general freight agent, and Captain W. F. Tibbets, general passenger agent of the Denver & Rio Grande, were in the city Thursday.

No. 2 on the Union Pacific yesterday morning consisted of sixteen passenger coaches all filled to their utmost capacity. Superintendent Dickinson, Division Superintendent Bockenscler, R. W. Baxter, Agent, and Car Accountant Buckingham and J. B. Hovey, master mechanic, went west on the pay car on the Union Pacific yesterday.

DIED BY THE ROPE.

Christian Peterson Found Dead In His Shop Yesterday.

Yesterday morning about 6:30 o'clock Christian Peterson, a carpenter aged thirty-five, was found hanging by the neck and dead in his carpenter shop in the rear of 3019 Center street. He was discovered by Mrs. Peterson, the wife of his cousin, at whose house he was a boarder. Dr. Crawford was called when the body was cut down, but pronounced the man dead. A coroner's inquest was called, and empaneled a jury, consisting of Dr. Crawford, J. H. Jacob, J. Harman, J. Decker, and John M. Tamm. The coroner returned that the deceased had come to his death by hanging while suffering from despondency. The only witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, who mentioned, who testified as to his being found and that the deceased has been fearful lest some of his contracts would not prove remunerative, and that his partner would not prove true to him and that his fiancée, a young woman residing in the neighborhood would jilt him. Some days ago, it is stated, Peterson stated his partner for a statement, but the statement was not made. The partner was Thomas Lund. Peterson was considered well to do.

THE POCKET PICKING.

Mr. Creighton Was Not There—Woods' Losses—Goodwin's Trial.

The report that John A. Creighton was "touched" for $600 by the pocket-pickers at the races proves a mistake, as that gentleman was not at the fair ground Thursday. A later report, however, credits Dick Wilde with a loss of $50.

The $1,000 note taken from E. B. Woods, proprietor of Woods' express, was paper made by Louis Kaupke, of the wholesale grocery firm of Meyer & Kaupke, on Douglas street. Mr. Kaupke acknowledges the obligation and will not take advantage of the loss of its evidence. The banks were notified and the railroad companies his customers' freight on delivery to him, but had not collected of the customers. Of course he can ascertain the amounts due him by reference to the books of the railroad companies, but it will be a long and vexatious job. Mr. Woods also had a large number of memoranda, but the most serious damage is to his self-esteem. He had been a railroad conductor for four years, and thought he knew the ways of men too well to be "worked."

Charles Goodwin, who was arrested on suspicion of being the pocket-picker, demanded a trial by jury, and his case was set for Tuesday afternoon. The evidence of stealing is only circumstantial. He will be tried for being an inmate of a house of prostitution and a vagabond.

BENCH AND BAR.

District Court. The day's work consisted principally in the call of the assignment calendar and the arranging of the cases that are on the call for trial and cannot be reached before next Monday. Some of the lawyers who are interested in the cases are thinking longingly of Chicago and the great republican convention and are arranging their work here to meet their engagements with James C. Blaine's agent in the Chicago meeting next week. There is a possibility that business will become so dull that one of the members of the bench will look at the waver and take Michigan before all of next week has rolled by.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

The case of Ellen Schaller against the city of Omaha was called for trial before Judge Doane. Mrs. Schaller resides on Twenty-fifth and California streets, where the city has done some grading. The street on the side of her property and the alley back of it was cut down from twelve to eighteen feet and she will be compelled to reduce the level of her lot accordingly. She is damaging her well, cistern and other such improvements as are on her property. She asked the court for $5,000 damages on account of this case and the city has offered to pay the same.

The case of Bemis against Her et al., before Judge Hopewell, and the injunction of the street railway companies before Judge Wakeley, were argued.

HEAVY DAMAGES.

A number of suits were begun against the Omaha and Council Bluffs Railway and Bridge company for damages to property fronting on Douglas street and situated east of the terminus on Douglas street of the above named company's bridge. Each petitioner sets forth in the petition filed that Douglas street, by which they reached their property has been so filled up by the piers and trusses of the bridge that their property is rendered almost entirely useless. They claim damages in the following amounts: George Warren, lots 3 and 4, in block 125, $23,100.

James Barker and George E. Barker, east half of lot 7, and all of lot 8, block E., $23,500. Samuel S. Curtis, Carrie and James W. Townsend, lot 2, block 125, $10,000. Herbert E. Galt, N. B. Ours, lots 5 and 6, block 99, $23,100.

George A. Hoagland, lots 1, 2 and 3, block 126; 1/2 of lot 4, block 6, 7 and 8, block 126; lots 7 and 8, block 126; 1/2 of lot 1, blk 131; lot 1, block F; lots 5 and 6, block E; $191,900. This property almost all fronts on Douglas street.

Lot 10 Bradford asks for $25,100 for damages to his lots.

TO FORFEIT. Emma Sessman has begun suit to foreclose a mortgage given by Frederick Schuell, senior, to secure two notes of $40 each, dated May 20, 1877, one for a year and the other for two years.

UNITED STATES COURT.

Judge Brewer is expected this morning and will hear two important causes. One is the butter and cheese case of Archibald L. Vale against the West Point manufacturing company. The other is the cattle case of Thomas B. Spaulding against Elisha B. Graham. Judge Miller will probably leave the city to-day.

MORTUARY.

After a lingering illness of over a year, Mary, the wife of Officer Cullen, died at 1:30 yesterday afternoon of consumption. She was born in Buffalo, N. Y., thirty years ago, has been married to Officer Cullen for several years, and in every way has been an exemplary woman and wife.

Dr. Joseph W. Dysard died yesterday at his home, 1817 Davenport street, after an illness of two months. He deceased was a prominent Mason and Knight of Pythias. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

HOT WEATHER BARGAINS.

A visit to our second floor where we keep our Summer Clothing, will convince you that we are selling more light Coats and Vests, than probably all the clothiers in town together. The reason is simply because we sell them at about one-half the price. We did not brag half enough about them last week. Every customer admits that this Summer Goods Sale is without a parallel. Those Flannel and Seersucker Coat and Vests we sell at 75c, are going off rapidly. The patterns are so nice, and they fit so well, one could not be duplicated in any clothing house in the city for less than double the money. Merchants from the interior send for these goods as they are far cheaper than they can buy them in the wholesale market, but we refuse to sell them in quantities, as we only cater for retail trade.

In addition to the bargains offered last week, and the sale of which will be continued this week, until all are closed out, we make today one of the choicest offerings of the season, in an extra fine coat and vest, made of genuine French flannel, in exquisite patterns. These goods were gotten up for the very finest trade and are usually only handled by the finest houses in large cities, who ask from $8 to $10 for such a coat and vest. At the price we own them, we can afford to sell them for $4; one half of their real value. We only have a limited quantity of them.

In Mens' Summer Underwear, we carry the largest line in the city and buy only from the manufacturers, which places our prices below all competition.

Mens' Novia Gauze Shirts at 15c each. Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, at 25c each. Fine Balbriggan Shirts, with French neck and finished seams and patent drawers, at 35c each. These goods are usually sold at 60c.

Natural wool summer Shirts and Drawers at 35c. Fine Jean Drawers, with reinforced seats at 40c. In our hat department we offer this week, a large lot of good cloth summer Hats, in nice light colors and latest shapes, at 50c. These are usually sold by all hat stores at $1.

One Price Only. No Deviation.
