

OFFICE NO. 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by Carrier in Any Part of the City at Twenty Cents for Week.

Business Office, No. 12 Pearl Street. Telephone, 12. Night Editor, No. 2.

N. Y. Plumbing Co. New spring goods at Reiter's. Clearance sale of straw goods this week at H. Friedman's.

The district court adjourned yesterday until the 25th. Fresh school hats reduced from 50c to 15c at H. Friedman's.

Judge Deemer yesterday announced that he would decide the motion for a new trial in the Jones case on the 30th.

Ladies' sun hats reduced from 50c to 15c at H. Friedman's. J. M. Oursler has presented his "banner" to the Republican club.

Building permits have been issued to W. H. Cole, Jr., West and Mrs. McKenna for 300 dwellings, and Norman Green for a $75 addition.

The chautauqua circle has an interesting literary program for Monday evening. Every body welcome to the meeting in the Mueller music hall.

Ladies' muslin underwear regardless of cost this week at H. Friedman's. The funeral of Mrs. Henry Miller will occur at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Ladies' black silk plaited hose reduced from $1.00 to 60c per pair. H. Friedman's. The "boy choir" at St. Paul's Episcopal church sang yesterday at Lake Manawa on a picnic.

Children's white dresses, from 2 to 14 years, 25c and upwards at H. Friedman's. The nuptials of Dr. P. E. Seybert and Miss Ida Wiles will be celebrated at the Episcopal church next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. T. J. Mackay.

All parties having anything to do with the tickets on the raffle for the elegant gold watch to be disposed of for the benefit of the Sisters' hospital are requested to make immediate returns, as the raffle is to take place within the next thirty days.

Yesterday excavation work began at the corner of Seventh and Broadway, owned by Cole & Cole. They will erect a single story building. On account of its location this is a valuable lot and there is a very general opinion that a two or even three story building would prove a valuable property.

Ladies' fast black cotton hose, full regular made, reduced from 35c to 20c per pair, this week only, at H. Friedman's. The committees appointed to close up the subscriptions to stock in the Chautauqua assembly are all expected to begin work tomorrow morning, and the enterprise should be successful to start at once.

There was a very small audience at the opera house last evening to attend the mass meeting to review the moral situation of the city. The children of the home conducted the introductory exercises. Revs. Mr. Rees and Dr. Phelps delivered short addresses. The meeting was under the management of Rev. Henry DeLong. It is probable that the object of the meeting was not thoroughly understood, and it could hardly be called a success.

The death of James Frayne; his nephew, J. J. Frayne, was appointed administrator. He filed his report the other day, and now there are filed objections on the part of the heirs, claiming that he is not a legal administrator, and asking that he be made to appear in court and be examined as to what has become of a $500 diamond pin, a certain quantity of diamonds, and some notes and mortgages, for which he has failed to account. The matter is set for a hearing on the 28th.

Ladies' fancy striped cotton hose, full regular made, at 15c per pair, would be very cheap at 25c; at H. Friedman's. Arrangements have been made to accommodate an immense crowd of visitors at Manawa to-day. The athletic park management have secured permission to operate the motor line, and Hotel Manawa will be the place open for the visitors. Harmon Bros. will entertain their visitors as usual, and aside from the regular attractions of the lake, there will be an interesting game of ball between the home club and the C. E. Maynes, of Omaha. Bettl and Benn will be the battery for the Bluffs club, and the first game under the new management promises to be a fine one.

A notice was served yesterday on Harry Inman, of the Phoenix, to sell no more liquor at his last night. The notice will run no more as a saloon. The proprietor announces his intention of thoroughly fitting the place, and putting in a stock of fruits, cigars, etc., and will sell all kinds of temperance mixed drinks, but has promised Attorney Sims that he will not handle any whisky, wine, beer or any other intoxicating liquor. He says he will not open an establishment in Omaha, as his interests are all in Council Bluffs, and he will remain here and conduct a legitimate business.

Union Abstrac company, 236 Main street. Buy a "White," 20 W. Main. Personal Paragraphs. Riley Clark, of Neola, was in the city yesterday.

Miss O. P. McKesson leaves this evening for a two weeks' trip through the northwest. Mrs. Laura Baumer, of Denver, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kuhn, of this city.

Miss Dora Smith, of St. Joseph, Mo., is visiting with Mrs. Horace Everett, of this city. Mrs. W. A. Maurer is quite ill. Her condition yesterday was somewhat more favorable.

Mrs. Hattie Shepard, nee Gardner, of North Platte, is here for a visit with her parents. Miss Stella M. Pierce returned yesterday morning from a three months' visit with friends in Kansas.

Miss Eva Pickering, of Garden City, Kas., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. A. Pierce, 720 Seventh street. Miss Grace McCrary, of Keokuk, is visiting with the family of her uncle, W. M. McCrary, on Seventh street.

Mrs. L. Simmons and daughter, Miss Susie, leave to-day for a few months' to Boston and eastern pleasure resorts. Mrs. Don Southard and Mrs. Davis, of Creston, are in the city, the guests of Mrs. S. J. Swanson, on Glen avenue.

W. A. Green, editor of the Onawa Sentinel, was in the city yesterday renewing friendships made during his residence here years ago. Mrs. T. F. Thickstun is attending the commencement exercises of the Denison, O., university, where her son, Will, is one of the graduates.

Dr. Cleaver and wife leave this afternoon with the delegation for Chicago. They will proceed to East Bethelton, Pa., the home of the doctor, and will be gone about two weeks. Mr. J. C. Gleason, brother of Dr. E. Gleason, arrived home yesterday morning from a six months' trip through the states of Oregon, Wyoming, Utah and Idaho. His coming was a pleasant surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth are preparing to make a change of residence, Lincoln to be their new home. Mr. Wadsworth has been connected with Burnham, Tully & Co. Mrs. Wadsworth will also be missed, especially in musical circles, she having justly the reputation of being one of the finest sopranos in the west.

THE BATTLE OF THE REGS. A WEEK.

The Last Batch of Injunctions Issued, and Bars Barred.

THE MOTOR AND MILWAUKEE. Another Delay in Court—Three Mad Women—Good Races Coming—Among the Church Folks—Personal Paragraphs.

Prohibition at Work. In the district court yesterday Judge Deemer was busy hearing motions and saloon cases. A number of injunctions were issued against owners of property, as well as against occupants. Temporary writs were issued against David Beck, Benjamin Haag and U. H. White. Permanent injunctions were issued against Mrs. Amy, Conrad Geise, W. H. Beck, Jacob Apel, L. Seubert, F. Lover, Paul Meyers, William Gibson.

One Neola case was heard, that of August Ruttiger, who has been running a tailor shop with a liquid attachment. The evidence was weak, but the judge showed that he had been selling a drink called "B. B." which Riley Clark testified was somewhat like beer, but it was never did, and he was also shown that Ruttiger had tried to buy up one of the witnesses against him. Ruttiger refused to answer whether he had a government license, as that would criminate him. Judge Deemer decided to issue the injunction. This closes up the cases so far as they have been concerned.

It has become apparent that the open saloon business in the city is about at an end, there is a general inquiry as to the future movements of the men who are now engaged in that business, their feelings and opinions regarding the matter, and the policy of the city with reference to the business. For the purpose of ascertaining the exact situation a Br. representative interviewed a number of persons with reference to it. The majority of the ex-saloon men were about equal in their opinion of the law and order league, and Mayor Kohrer. Said one: "Kohrer has betrayed us. We paid our license and expected protection, but he got ground, and then he went on the law and order league. Said another: "I would have quit a long time ago if the other fellows had, but I proposed to stick to the business as long as they did. Now the only thing I look on is that some of us are forced to close, while the others are still running."

"What course do you follow propose to pursue in the future?" asked the reporter. "As far as I am concerned, I have quit for good. I presume some of them will continue business and run temperance (?) places."

"Oh, soda water, lemonade, milk shake, etc. Of course, they won't sell anything that the law prohibits, they never did, you know." Said a prominent democrat: "There is no use talking, the boys are between the devil and the deep sea. They have played their last card and are entrenched."

"What do you think the mayor will do?" "I can't speak for him, of course; but there is no question but that he will see that hereafter the law is obeyed. He has kept every pledge either expressed or implied in his election by the party; the closing is no act of his, and it seems to me his duty is clear. He is not pledged to protect illegal traffic in liquor, and it is not expected he will do so."

Said another: "I am not a prohibitionist, but I am in favor of obeying the law. The majority of the people of the state have declared their wish in the matter, and the will of the majority rules in America. If the law is objectionable, its strict enforcement will make it apparent to all."

Many express the belief that while there will be no longer a living chance for the open saloon in Council Bluffs, yet in place of sixty such places there will be a hundred holes where liquors will be sold, and any quantity of boot-leg and back-alley business. New saloons will spring up, the proprietors of which will spend as little money as possible in fitting up, and will stand prepared to close at any time. The prediction is made that it will be here as in Sioux City, and that none will go thirty, the only difference being that the drinks and the bars will be of a sadly demoralized nature.

S. B. Wadsworth & Co. loan money. The engineers strike for Durlin Bros. for their groceries, 533 Broadway. Ed Lloyd will take your order. Tel. 240.

The Motor Squabble. George A. Holmes, the attorney for Mr. Reed, of the motor line, tried to get a hearing before Judge Deemer in the district court yesterday to dissolve the temporary injunction now in force preventing the laying of the motor crossings over the Milwaukee tracks, but Hon. George F. Wright, attorney for the railroad company, succeeded in staying off the hearing for a few days. It is now set for hearing at Avoca, on next Tuesday, and Attorney Holmes is very confident that he will succeed in having the injunction dissolved, as the law on the point is very plain.

If the Milwaukee road would sign a contract the motor trains would be running through to Broadway by the end of the present week. The crossings for the Milwaukee tracks are all being laid, and the crossing of the Rock crossings are being laid. The crossing of the Kansas City track and the remaining three crossings for the Rock Island are on the road and are expected to be in place tomorrow.

The feeling of indignation against the Milwaukee has not subsided in the least, and the feeling is growing more and more. It is an indication of that corporation. The company's attorney, Mr. Wright comes in for a liberal share of the public "scorching," and the motives ascribed to him for looking after the interests of his client so earnestly are anything but flattering.

The Berean Baptist church meets this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Overton mission. Preaching by Rev. T. F. Thickstun. Subject: "God's Soldiers."

A Happy Birthday Party. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Burton have the faculty of making the little folks happy as was evidenced by the party given their little daughters Mamie and Stella on the afternoon and evening of June 12. Forty bright little girls responded at 3 p. m. to the invitations issued. At 5 o'clock they were escorted to the park with hammocks and well-filled lunch baskets. At 6 o'clock the tables were spread and sandwiches, choice cakes, fruits, ice cream, lemonade and other dainties were spread out in tempting array. A happier, brighter circle of faces than those seated at the tables is rarely seen. The party ended at 8 o'clock. Little Miss Stella was the recipient of a number of handsome presents.

Opening the Bids. The school board held a special meeting last evening for the purpose of opening bids for erecting the new school building, in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Ward. The bids were as follows: John Hammer, $37,800; C. Rosen, $37,255; Jens Jensen, $37,185; Chris Straub, $36,985; O. J. King, $36,800; F. Graas, $36,627; M. Hughes & Son, $35,775; John P. Weaver, $35,492; James & O. P. Wickham, $35,430; E. H. Wind, $34,570; J. A. Murphy, $34,750.

The bid of Mr. Murphy was the lowest, but no action was taken concerning the awarding of the contract. The specifications were read and the board then adjourned until Monday evening.

The summer trotting meeting to be held at Union park, begins Tuesday, July 3, and continues four days. The entries include many of the fastest flyers of the west, and all of the ten races are filled. The purses offered amount to $6,000, and the races are all fast enough to make them highly interesting.
