THE MINNEAPOLIS CONVENTION.

The Association By-laws-Delegates to the Convention-A Drummer Taken Down-The Omaha Boys-Sample Case Notes.

Amended Bylaws. The board of directors of the Commercia Travelers Indemnity and Rollef association, consisting of William Corbett, W. F. Hachmann and W. H. Ritchie, have submitted amendments to the by-laws of that organization so they will read, in substance, as follows: Article 2, section 1, as amended allows any man of good moral character under the age of forty-five, and traveling north of the 38th degree of north latitude, to be a member of the association.

Sections two, three and four set forth that he board of directors must pass on applications for membership; that applicants must submit a doctor's certificate, and that they must pay a membership fee of $3 and advance

$3 for the first assessment.
Section 3, of article 4, after defining the fluties of secretary, further sets forth that it shall be his further duty to make, prepare and file with the insurance commissioner an annual report at such time and in such form as is prescribed by chapter 184 of the laws of the state of Minnesota for the year 1885, under which we are incorporated. The section further defines his duty as treasures The of the association.

Article 4, section 4, prescribes the duties of the members of the board of directors as to admitting members, allowing death losses, calling meetings and transacting all the ex-ecutive business of the organization.

There was an addition made to article 4, ection 8, giving the board of directors authority to accept resignations and fill official vacancies by appointment. The following was substituted for section 1

Art. 5, sec. 1. All applications for member-Art. 5, sec. 1. All applications for membership shall be in writing, consistent with article 2, and in the manner and form to be prescribed by the board of directors. Certificates of membership shall issue signed by the president and secretary, to all applicants whose applications shall have been accepted by the board of directors. No applicant for membership shall be entitled to any benefits or deemed a member of the association until his amplication, shall have been accented by is application shall have been accepted by ne board of directors and a membership certificate ordered issued thereon.

Section 4 of article 5 was stricken out and article 6 was amended in substance as follows: That any member who has forfeited his membership by reason of the non-pay-ment of an assessment may be reinstated by the board of directors. Section 1 of article 5 was changed to read as follows: The annual meeting of the association shall be held each year in the city of Minneapolis, Minn., on the 5th of July, exept when Sunday or legal holiday, then on the day following.

Section 7 of article 13 was made to read as follows: No member of the association is entitled to benefits from this association un-less totally disabled and unfit for business for a period of twenty-eight days, then he is entitled to benefits from the date when his sickness began. Commercial Travelers' Convention.

All the arrangements have been completed for the sixth annual convention of the Travelers' Protective association to be held in Minneapotis beginning to-morrow. The Chirago, St. Paul & Kansas City railway and the Wisconsin Central railway have made the low rate of $7.50 from Chicago to Minnesota and return and will each run a special train through by daylight, leaving Chicago about 7 o'clock a. m. on to-day. A committee from the Minnesota division will meet these trains upon arrival. The Minneapolis hotels are first-class in every particular and will do all In their power to make visitors comfortable and the time spent in their midst one of pleasure. The leading hotels have made the following special rates: West hotel, $2.50 to 83.50 per day; Nicollet house, $2.50 per day; Windsor hotel, $2 per day; St. James hotel, $2 per day. The business meetings of the convention will be held at the People's theater, and the headquarters of the national offi-pers and board of directors will be located the West hotel. The general feeling that the Chicago convention may detract from the meeting, but a large attendance is already assured from the reports that have come in and from the requests for rooms at the hotels. The convention will meet and organize to-morrow. Crushed a Drummer.

A Chicago drummer valanced his chin on the edge of the seat in front of him, says a writer in the Detroit Post, and tickled a sandy-haired passenger's ear with the remark: "You've been in Chicago, of course?"

"Where?" "Chicago,"

An uncertain look came into the sandyhaired man's eyes.

"Let me see," he mused retrospectively; *"pears to me I must have passed through there. I've traveled a good deal. I know I've heard of the name before. What line of road

"Line of road. Why, it's the biggest rail-road center on earth." 'Not bigger'n Crestine, Ohio, is it?' asked the passenger with an amused expression.

'T've seen four trams to once at Crestine, waitin' to start off. Is Chicago a place where the trains stop for dinner?"
"Naw," said the disgusted drummer; "Chigago is a place where the passengers stop for

'Of course, that's what I meant," explained the red-baired man gently. "Fact is," he went on with confidential frankness, "Tve traveled so much and been in so many different places in my life that I don't pretend to remember more'n a quarter of 'cin. What's the name of the hotel in Chicago!"

There isn't any," said the drummer, Bloomily.

Then he walked forward to the filter, filled his month full of water, gargled his thront, whooshed the liquid on the floor and hung his leg over the corner of the coal box.

"Who is that evil-eyed, pink-haired, lumpy-legged, prairie-earned microbe at the other end of the car?" ne asked of the conductor, who was passing through the train. Do you mean that gentleman looking out

"He's a fish merchant from St. Louis."

The Problem Solved. The following problem was sent to THE BEE from Grand Island and published the Oth instant without an answer: Please decide the following for three traveling men who are somewhat mixed over a mathematical proposition. When visiting the Grand Island races Thursday three of the boys pooled their issues and took issue with the pool box to the amount of $61.50. Of this amount A put in $97.50, B, $15, and C, $9. They won $25.90, or $8.40 each. After deducting their winning what do B and C owe A to make good their third of the original amount,

Mr. Grant Wyatt, of Rock Port, Mo., sub-

Mr. Grant Wyatt, of Rock Port, Mo., submits the following answer:

The answer to the problem, which by the way is not plainly stated, is. If A takes all the winnings, A owes B $2.90 and C owes A $3.10. If each takes $3.40 of the winnings, B owes A $5.50 and C owes A $11.50.

Delegates to Minneapolis.

At a meeting held in St. Louis recently to appoint delegates to represent Missouri in the Traveling Men's convention to be held there this week the following gentlemen were chosen: George S. McGraw (of George D. Barnard & Co.), president; G. P. Gross (of the Kansas City Hardware company), vice-president; John T. Neilson (of Hargadine, McKittrick & Co.), secretary and treasurer. J. P. Gross and C. W. Brown (of Hrowa Bros.), Kansas City; J. C. Wilkinson (of Hargadine, McKittrick & Co.), J. W. Goodbay (of Goodbar, White & Co.), Thomas J. Daniel (of the R. D. Patterson Stationary company) and B. A. Shelby (of Brown, Ds ghaday & Co.) were elected directors. Ruchard Trever, of Hargadine, McKittrick & Co., and George S. McGraw were chosen clogates to the national convention, with R.

Cox, of Hargadine, McKittrick & Co., and H. C. Johnston, of Brown, Doughaday & Co., as alternates. The out-going presi-& Co., as alternates. The out-going president, T. J. Daniel, will serve as a delegate-

W. W. Finch was looking out for Paxton last week.

J. B. Beall was selling calico on the western part of the B. & M. last week for M. E. Smith & Co. F. D. Morrell was out on his regular trip last week talking Omaha groceries until he was hot and tired every night. J. M. Siusher was along the line of the B. & M. last week with his grocery grip. He f going north until after dog days. M. C. Jones, of Paxton & Gallagher, was loing his regular work last week. He said his grip was too heavy for the hot weather. Harry Loder was seen along the line of the remont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley rail way last week selling Omaha dry goods. He had a big run in fans. D. M. Erskine was selling Omaha groceries from his St. Paul run last week. He is pretty close to the convention this week and will likely call on the boys.

Isaac Hill talks of going into the ice business for the summer season. He says he will continue to take orders in groceries, however, as long as his trade is good.

W. B. Lamis, who sells Omaha groceries from Ashland, finds time to write The Ber once in awhile about the happenings in his territory. He can sell groceries, too.

Mr. John C. Fetzer, a representative of the popular Parlin, Orendorff & Martin company of this city, made a successful four days run last week, making eight towns and doing Mr. J. J. Buchanan, an old newspaper man but at present having charge of the Nebraska collection accounts of Emerson, Tolcott & Co., was in the city Friday last. He is now doing the line of the Union Pacific for his company. J. F. Ferguson spent week before last "in the house" getting posted. He put in his solid time last week selling groceries on the Grand Island branch of the B. & M. He surprised the house with orders for two car leads for Broken Bow.

One of the oldest, best known and popular of Omaha's traveling salesmen is the genial William F. Manning, representing Emerson Talcott & Co., of Rockford, Ill. Mr. Man-ning has been a resident of the city for nineteen years, and has a delightful home near

W. D. Burgess, formerly of Al McDonald & Co., of St. Joe, made his first trip on the road last week for M. E. Smith & Co. He will work territory along the western end of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railway in Nebraska. He has a good reputation among the men and is said to be a rustler with a sample case. with a sample case.

A New Organization. The Kansas division T. P. A., says the Merchant Traveler, is a thing of the past and in its stead has sprung up the Kansas Travelers' Association, a state organization which aims at the betterment socially, financially and otherwise of the commercial men of that state. It aims at no chimerical target such as controlling the railroads and hotels and correcting all the abuses under the sun to which traveling men are subject. In fact they are modest in their aspirations and conservative in their utterances. They have had the benefit of the example set all such had the beacht of the example set all such bodies by the National association and they have learned how great a noise can accom-pany so little achievement. In the light of this example it is to be hoped the Kansas association may fird its way to the actual ac-complishment of some real penciit to the fraternity.

Two Omaha Boys.

The Deadwood Times of Friday contained the following: J. R. Haislip, representing W. A. Wilson & Co., cigars, Omaha, one of the most widely gnown and successful men on the road, is at the Keystone for a day or two, with a line of samples including forty different brands, all of the Wilson manufacture. He is accompanied by a brother, J. N. Haisip, representing Tanner & Joy, manufacturers of hats and caps, Omaha. The latter visits us for the first time, but he assures us it will not be the last. Appreciating the value of the Black Hills trade, he would have some of it, and is handsomely equipped for connectition.

Tried to Suicide. The following appeared in last Wednesdays BEE as a special telegram from Sioux City: Irvin G. Rhoads, of Omsha, a travel-ing man for the Des Moines tank line com-pany, attempted to commit suicide here to-day at noon. He was found lying in some shrubbery near the packing houses bleeding.

Clinging to the Last.

The virus of rheumatism often remains in the system through life, when it does not cut the thread of existence suddenly, as it is always liable to do by attacking the heart. Ere the grip of this tenacious disease tightens, it should be unloosed by that beneficient liberator from disease, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will free the sufferer at the outset from subsequent pain and danger No purer or more agreeable blood purent exists, as multitudes of the heumatic neuralgic have ascertained by certified experience. It is through a medium of the regular action of the kidneys and bladder that an outlet is afforded for the escape of impurities which beget not only rheumatic, but gouty ailments and dropsical effusions. To these organs the Bitters gives an impulse, never verging on the bound of irritation, but sufficiently vigorous to cause them and the bowels to perform their functions with clock-like precis-ion. Use it also for dyspepsia, bilious. ness, fever and ague and debility.

HOT WEATHER BARGAINS

A visit to our second floor where we keep our Summer Clothing, will convince you that we are selling more light Coats and Vests, than probably all the clothiers in town together. The reason is simply because we sell them at about one-half the price. We did not brag half enough about them last week. Every customer admits that this Summer Goods Sale is without a parallel. Those Flannel and Seersucker Coat and Vests we sell at 75c, are going off rapidly. The patterns are so nice, and they fit so well, one could not be duplicated in any clothing house in the city for less than double the money. Merchants from the interior send for these goods as they are far cheaper than they can buy them in the wholesale market, but we refuse to sell them in quantities, as we only cater for retail trade.

In addition to the bargains offered last week, and the sale of which will be continued this week, until all are closed out, we make today one of the choicest offerings of the season, in an extra fine coat and vest, made of genuine French flannel, in exquisite patterns. These goods were gotten up for the very finest trade and are usually only handled by the finest houses in large cities, who ask from $8 to $10 for such a coat and vest. At the price we own them, we can afford to sell them for $4; one half of their real value. We only have a limited quantity of them.

In Mens' Summer Underwear, we carry the largest line in the city and buy only from the manufacturers, which places our prices below all competition.

Mens' Novia Gauze Shirts at 15c each.

Inherited Diseases.

In the realm of disease the facts of ineritance are most numerous and are daily accumulating. Here, alas, they become ter-rible, fateful and overwhelming. No fact of nature is more pregnant with awful mean-ing than the fact of the inheritance of disease. It meets the physician on his daily rounds, paralyzing his art and filling him with dismay. The legend of the ancient Greeks pictures the Furies as pursuing families from generation to generation, rendering them desolate. The Furies still ply their work of terror and death, but they are not now clothed in the garb of superstition, but appear in the more intelligible but Modern science, which has illuminated so many dark corners of nature, has shed a new light on the ominous words of the scriptures, "The sins of the fathers shall be visited upon the children unto the third and fourth generation." Instances of hereditary disease abound. Fifty per cent. of cases of consumption, that fearful destroyer of families, of cencer and scrofula, run in families through inheritance. Insanity is hereditary in a marked degree, but, fortunately, like many other hereditary diseases, tends to wear itself out, the stock becoming extinct. A distinguished scientist truly says: "No the chance of being the subject of hereditary disease." Probably more chronic diseases, which permanently modify the structure and functions of the body are more or less far-reaching practical deductions from such facts—affecting so powerfully the happiness of individuals and families and the collective welfare of the nation—are obvious to reflec-ting minds, and the best means for preventing or curing these diseases is a subject of intense interest to all. Fortunately nature has provided a remedy, which experience has attested as infallible, and the remedy is the world-famous Swift's Specific, a pure vegetable compound-nature's antidote for all blood poisons. To the afflicted it is a blessing of fuestimable value. An interest ing treatise on "Blood and Skin Diseases" will be mailed free by addressing THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO.,
