Mrs. COLBY announces in her Women's Tribune that "Firth, Neb., has an artillery battery composed of ladies."

CHARLEY GREENE tried to climb the ladder of oratory after the manner of his more illustrious predecessor.

The late Emperor Frederick was an author of considerable merit. He made a visit to Egypt in 1876, on the occasion of the formal opening of the Suez canal.

A TELEPHONE line eight hundred miles long, from Marseille to Paris, has just been completed.

It begins to look as if the good things the obituary writers were ready to say concerning General Sheridan may be indefinitely postponed.

Mrs. CLEVELAND is an enthusiastic admirer of lawn tennis. It is said that the president refuses to play.

TRAIN robbing in Texas and the southwest has recently assumed such prominence that it may well be classified as one of our "infant industries."

The Canadians suggest that the presidential campaign in the United States be made a war of the roses.

It is said that a great Mormon exodus to Mexico is taking place from Utah. This looks like jumping from the frying pan into the fire.

COMMISSIONER ATKINS, of the Indian bureau, has sent in his resignation to the president, which should be accepted without delay.

The extension of the eight hour law to letter carriers which goes into effect July 1, will involve, in the opinion of the postmaster general, the employment of at least one-fourth more than the present force.

It is claimed that the eastern trunk lines defiantly disregard the inter-state commerce law.

Only a Freight Tracer. A band of gypsies is making its headquarters near Rock Rapids.

A Sure Prediction. Only one day until the nomination of the next president of the United States.

The Virginia Contest. The contest carried into the national convention by the republican factions of Virginia is to be regretted on several accounts.

Angry Nebraskans. There is something rotten in the state of Nebraska as represented in the Chicago convention. Rosewater, of Omaha, is not the only angry protestant.

It is not necessary that the people of Nebraska shall support the democratic ticket in order to free themselves from corporate aggression. The remedy does not lie in that direction.

A Serious Charge. At the last meeting of the city council Mayor Broatch in a communication proposed charges of collusion between certain contractors and members of the city government.

In Case of a Deadlock. A deadlock in the national republican convention is not improbable.

However brilliant John M. Thurston may have been as an orator, his selection as temporary chairman was a grave mistake which may react seriously on the party.

By the admission of Mr. Depew's own organ, the Mail and Express, his nomination by the Chicago convention would seriously endanger the party's chances in California, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska and Nevada.

ONE hundred and ten railroads for May, 1888, show a gain in gross earnings as compared with the corresponding month of last year.

of being able to unite the party in Virginia for the next election, and therefore the idea of many republicans that there would be a fighting chance in that state this year must be abandoned.

The contest was foreshadowed months ago. Such republican leaders in Virginia as Wise and Brady long since declared a revolt against the autocratic domination sought to be maintained by Mahone, and they are men of such ability and character as to draw to themselves a large following from the better element of Virginia republicans.

It is not questionable that the republican party in Virginia would be very much better off if it were wholly free from the counsel and influence of Mahone. If there was ever a time when he had a just claim to its confidence, it has long gone by.

How Cleveland Could Win. Colonel John Ochiltree thinks that among presidential candidates Sheridan would have had the strongest pull in the south.

Boys on a Certainty. The following advertisement was inserted in a morning paper:

housebreaking at Iowa Falls and arrested. He confessed not only to the crime charged, but admitted having broken into other houses during the last few months.

Mr. Simpson of Omaha. "And now, if you like," said the Chicago man to his guest, "I will go and take a look at the gallery of the art institute."

Edward Rosewater, of Omaha, will undoubtedly keep his word and bolt the ticket if Depew is nominated at Chicago.

A timorous looking man stepped into the Grand Pacific hotel yesterday, and circled among the assembled delegates.

The new iron bridge across the Cedar river at Waterloo was opened for travel last Monday.

The postmaster at Merrell hands out 2,000 newspapers daily. This for a town of less than 400 inhabitants.

The Faulkton matrimonial market is booming. The past week was a lively one in Faulkton legal circles.

Ashton wishes to have it understood that she has no natural gas region.

The auditor of Barnes county has this far in the season taken in 50,000 gallons of turkeys each—$3,400. A bonanza for the kids.

Deadwood is somewhat scandalized over the treatment of two or three incurable insane women. The county has no facilities for caring for these women.

STATION AGENTS ORGANIZE. The Nebraska Division Assesses Tangible Share.

Life is burdensome, alike to the sufferer and all around him, while dyspepsia and its attending evils hold sway.

Dogs Are Protected. Child Not. OMAHA, June 19.—[To the Editor of THE BEE.]—On Monday, June 11, 1888, my boy, George, aged 12 years, was playing in the yard of my house, which is on the corner of the neighborhood.
