

THE CITY.

The internal revenue collections yesterday amounted to $15,358.88.

Among the vagrants in the police court yesterday was a dark-skinned man with a white shirt and a pair of trousers...

To-day will be the last day of the Pinkerton police force in Omaha. At 6:50 the entire crew will board the train for Chicago.

Only one marriage license was issued yesterday by Judge Shields, the contracting parties being Rasmus P. Rasmussen and Emilia Bergquist, both residents of Omaha.

Rasmus P. Rasmussen and Miss Amelia Bergquist were united in matrimony yesterday by Justice Anderson. Both of the contracting parties are residents of Omaha.

W. F. Clark, John Ruff and A. M. McGarvey were arrested yesterday and fined $5 and costs for violating the sign ordinance. There are 100 names of other violators of this ordinance against whom warrants are being issued.

F. H. Johnson, the Pinkerton hireling who made such an unwarranted assault upon Con Hetzler, the assistant yard master of the Union Pacific on Thursday, was given a trial in the police court yesterday afternoon and fined $20 and costs. On Monday Johnson was guilty of a similar brutal attack on Pat Martin.

August Lipold, the absent-minded inmate of the insane department at the county poor farm, whose peculiarities were fully described in a recent issue of THE BEE, died suddenly at the farm on Thursday and was buried yesterday. He was an old soldier, and but very little is known of his ancestry.

Chief Seavey has been invited by the Cincinnati superintendent of police to co-operate with him in calling a national convention of the police forces of the United States. The object is to organize a system whereby the police bodies of different cities will better co-operate for the apprehension of fugitives. Chief Seavey is heartily in favor of the project.

A test of the fire alarm in the Long school was made upon the scholars yesterday afternoon. In just one minute and one quarter the rooms were cleared of the 600 pupils, who marched out with the greatest of decorum, not being aware that the alarm was a false one to test their proficiency should an emergency arise.

Army Notes. Brigadier General Brooke, accompanied by Lieutenant Roe, will pay a visit of inspection to Forts Niobrara, Robinson, Kussel, Sidney and old Fort Casper. Leave of absence of twenty days has been granted to Lieutenant Williams, twenty-first infantry, Fort Sidney, Neb.

Death of Mrs. Brooks. Mrs. D. C. Brooks died of cancer at St. Joseph's hospital yesterday. Mr. Brooks was for years prominent in Omaha newspaper and political circles, and the deceased was well known here. Of recent years the Brooks home has been in Chicago. Mrs. Brooks was brought to Omaha some time ago for treatment.

Stole a Watch. A laborer at Thirteenth and Vinton streets left his vest, containing a watch and some money, on a fence near by yesterday and while at his work was surprised to see a man take the garment and skip. Special Policeman Farr gave chase, but was unable to capture the thief. He will doubtless be apprehended, as all the officers have his description.

Omaha and the A. O. U. W. The claims of Omaha are once more recognized. The delegates from this city to the supreme lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, now in session at Louisville, Ky., have secured the next annual session of that body for Omaha. The first news of their success was in a telegram to Mayor Livasch signed by James W. Carr, J. D. Tate and S. R. Patten.

Locked Out. A man named Morton who lives at 1214 Capitol avenue—or rather did live there—was looking for a justice yesterday in order to obtain a writ of replevin for his goods which are in the building which is owned by a gent named O'Neill. The former forgot to pay his rent and the latter locked him out, more in the nature of an air. O'Neill claims that Morton broke in the door and proposes to swear out a warrant for forcible entry.

An Encouraging Turn-Out. There was an encouraging turn-out yesterday afternoon of the manufacturers, wholesalers and merchants committee appointed at the board of trade meeting last Wednesday night, to complete arrangements for the purpose of going before the board of state transportation at Lincoln on the 26th inst. to secure an equitable rate of freight tariff for Omaha and points west of the Missouri.

Mr. W. F. Griffith presided and a map of procedure was laid out, after which the meeting adjourned until Monday afternoon, when another committee will be selected.

First Call at the Police Court. When Court Officer Whelan opened the gate yesterday morning twenty-two prisoners trooped into the presence of his honor with alternate hope and apprehension pictured on their faces. Eleven of the number were vagrants and seven drunks. For the daily scrubbing of the jail Ed Williams, Frank Layed and George Hanlon were selected from among the yags, and the other eight were held to "kick" some of them to work and others out of town. Of the drunks,

Tom Murphy, William Poltz and John Roush were assessed from $1 to $5 each. The others were turned out with an admonition to go no more. Tom Fenev got $7 and Pat Conway $10 for fighting. John Borill of the Blues, whose German was gibberly interpreted by Sergeant Hazo, was taxed $10 for carrying a revolver, and John Brockhoff $10 for the satisfaction of firing a gun within the limits corporate.

Thomas Feeney is one of the shipwrecked soldiers of the General Terry, but when he got drunk the police ran him in just the same and the judge fined him $7.50. On the plea of his captain the mayor remitted the fine and the soldier will be shipped southward at once.

Federal Building Supplies. The bid for the supplies for the government building for the ensuing year were opened Thursday by R. C. Jordan. The lowest bidder for coal was Mr. Bedford, $12.50 per ton for 2,340 tons. Kimball & Hunge and Westberg were the bidders for the other supplies. The bidders for the water and gas supplies and street sprinkling. The contracts will all be forwarded to Washington and reported on in about three weeks.

Suicide. Charles Harm hung himself early yesterday morning at his home in Park Forest, which is at the southern end of Thirteenth street. He was found by his family hanging by the neck. He is supposed to have committed the deed about 3:30. Harm was a basketmaker and a man of about forty-five. He has been crazy for some time having an insane fear that somebody was trying to kill him.

An inquest was held last evening over the remains. The jury gave a verdict of death by suicide while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity. The coroner's inquest occurred at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at his late home in Park Forest, and will be conducted by the German society of which he was a member. He will be buried in Laurel Hill.

Death in the Cigarette. Behind in nothing, Omaha had a death Thursday evening as the alleged result of an intemperate use of cigarettes. The victim is Fred Bark, living at 417 Williams street. He was only nineteen years old but smoked several dozen cigarettes each day. His death resulted directly from blood-poisoning from an ulceration in the cheek, which is supposed to have come from the cigarette smoking. Deceased was a truckman at the Union Pacific express office. His father was telegraphed at Lincoln and arrived yesterday. The Knights of Labor, of which young Bark was a member, will probably participate in the funeral.

Not a Road House. OMAHA, June 22.—To the Editor of THE BEE: I notice in the report of the city council proceedings that a petition has been received against my keeping a road house, signed by some worthy ladies.

Now I wish to say that I never have kept an establishment which is termed a "road house." The premises where I have lately resided, Elmwood Park, have been rented to parties for ten (10) years. They are going to expend a few thousand dollars in beautifying the grounds with drives, walks, fountains and buildings, making it a beautiful park for the north part of the city, where all may visit, whether in the sun or winter, without fear of being offended. The parties are under $8,000 bonds not to use the premises themselves or to let to others for immoral purposes. GEORGE W. FOMMIS.

Smoke Seidenberg's Figure and get the best 5-cent cigar in the world. Max Meyer & Co., wholesale depot.

Auction Sale. Monday, June 25, will be offered at public auction, at No. 114 South Nineteenth street, household furniture, consisting of parlor furniture, bed room, kitchen, dining table, bedroom suits, sideboard, dining table, chairs, china, glassware and kitchen utensils. Sale commences at 10 a. m.

C. Leo Staub, Architect and Supt., office 1619 Howard; 16 years' experience. Fine, stylish buildings a specialty.

The Union Pacific Railway. "THE OVERLAND ROUTE." Has arranged to stop all suburban trains at Q street, South Omaha, to better accommodate the constantly increasing suburban travel.

Do not know her name. A bride of a few days skips out with available funds. The stagnation which prevailed the matrimonial bureau of Judge Shields yesterday was enlivened by the romping in of an Italian who was in a high state of agitation, and Clerk Ed Morcaarty had his afternoon very greatly disturbed by the demonstrations of the dandiest son of sunny Italy. He demanded to know the name of the woman he had married a few days ago, making it known to the sons of god and a display of agitation that she had skipped out before he had become thoroughly familiar with her name, taking with her the proceeds of the sale of several bunches of decayed bananas and dozens of rotten peaches which the Italian had palmed off on an unsuspecting public. The name of the inconsistent and dishonest bride was disclosed, and the outraged Garibaldi rushed forth to find a policeman to run down the runaway.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economic than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in any O'Neill claims that Morton broke in the door and proposes to swear out a warrant for forcible entry.

LAST WEEK WITH A RUSH. Last week we have supplied thousands of Customers with thin Coats and Vests; they are going off with a rush and every day's business, especially last Saturday, has taxed our capacity sorely; but success only stimulates us to stronger and more liberal efforts, and while we are just now having the biggest run in Summer Clothing, we do not neglect our other departments. We open to day and place on sale for this week two new styles of very fine Men's Cassimere Suits, which at the price we have marked them will make a reputation for us, as the cheapest clothinghouse in the United States. Ten dollars for a good suit having become such a popular price with us we have decided to mark them so, although this is just one-half the value. Both styles are excellent, one a dark, the other a lighter shade of grey, elegantly trimmed and made, and the goods are of fair weight, thus making them suitable to wear along in the fall. They are the biggest bargain ever shown and are in every respect equal if not superior to the other Ten Dollar suits of which we sold so many this season.

We have just opened an enormous assortment of fine pants, which we marked $2.50, $3.00 and $3.25. Every pair is unquestionably a big bargain, as they are very fine all wool goods in splendid patterns of stripes; they fit as well as any you can have made to order for three times the money, and at the price we have marked them, you buy them actually at 50c. on the dollar.

In our Childrens' department we offer this week, some extraordinary bargains in Blouse Suits, just the thing for hot weather, for boys from 4 to 10 years. One blouse and pants at 95c; a good looking and strong suit, another fine blue flannel suit with silk embroidered collar at $1.35. Still another extra fine flannel of a beautiful shade of chocolate color at $2.75. None of these suits could be had at any other place for less than double these prices. Another big offering in this department, is a strong and good wearing knee pant suit, in beautiful checks which we have marked down to $1.50. This suit is a big bargain and we have only marked it down so low because the largest sizes are sold out.

One Price Only. No Deviation. We have just opened an enormous assortment of fine pants, which we marked $2.50, $3.00 and $3.25. Every pair is unquestionably a big bargain, as they are very fine all wool goods in splendid patterns of stripes; they fit as well as any you can have made to order for three times the money, and at the price we have marked them, you buy them actually at 50c. on the dollar.
