The internal revenue collections yesterday amounted to $4,795.46.

Johnson, the Pinkerton hireling, who clubbed a Union Pacific employe, and was fined $300 by Judge Berkus, was hanged in effigy yesterday.

Nora Brown and Kattie Hammond, the young misses, who stole diamond rings from the jewelry store of S. Frachman, were fined $100 each and costs by Judge Berkus yesterday, which were promptly paid by their admirers.

James Seever, of St. Joseph, Mo., is in town looking for his wife, whom he claims, was spirited away from his domicile by one Edward Corning. Her name is Maria, and James would be awfully pleased to see her.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Kate Butler, deceased wife of Major Butler, Second infantry, will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock, at Major Butler's quarters, No. 15, Fort Omaha. The remains will be taken to Holy Sepulchre cemetery for interment.

F. P. Finney, the telegraph operator at the transfer, who was arrested for seducing Ross Collamore, of Crawford county, Ia., has ended the trouble between them by marrying her. This satisfies Rose and she is indifferent whether she ever sees him or not. It is thought that she will return to her parents again.

On South Twelfth street from Williams to Pierce workmen have been engaged since Wednesday in an attempt to locate a break in the sewer, which had inundated the street and allowed itself being the curbing for some distance. The break was found near Brownell Hall, and it was found that the damage done will exceed in amount $4,000.

A painter named Moran, who is in the employ of Lehmann, while working on a house on Twenty-second street, yesterday afternoon, fell to the ground and suffered a fracture of the leg below the knee. Moran was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where his limb was set, and at last reports he was doing well. He is not known to have suffered any other injuries.

In the office of General Manager Fitch, of the Elkhorn road, are some five specimens of bituminous coal and natural soap from the Black Hills and northwest Wyoming. The soap is quarried just across the Wyoming border from Dakota Hot Springs and is reported to have most singular and valuable qualities. Besides being available for cleansing purposes it is claimed to be used by the teamsters for axle grease.

P. S. Rice, from Brownsville, who is wanted in Yankeon, Dak., for obtaining money under false pretenses, was arrested yesterday at the Omaha house, Fred Kimball, sheriff of Yankeon county, was notified of the arrest yesterday, and he telegraphed back immediately that he would be here to-day to take the prisoner into custody. Rice carries a number of Missouri state bonds on his person which are thought to be bogus, and it is supposed that he has worked off one of these on some greeny in Yankeon.

A retaining wall was ordered for the Webster street school.

AMUSEMENTS.

"She" at Boyd's to be Played This Week.

The original version of this weird work of H. Ryder Haugard, will be presented at Boyd's opera house on the evenings of June 27 and 28, by the Webster-Brady company, a combination that comes highly endorsed by the critics in the cities where it has appeared.

The dramatization of the romance is the work of William A. Brady, and is credited as following the book in every detail. The most startling effects are introduced, and the situations and climaxes are so arranged that the audience is held spellbound through the performances. Some idea can be had of this enormous production when it takes no less than two cars to carry the scenery, electric

Selection.....Miss Powell "THE TWO JOHNS."

Next Saturday evening the season at Boyd's will close with the "Palshofa of amusement," "The Two Johns," one of the most amusing comedies ever seen in Omaha.

That portion of the community to which the advent of a circus is always welcome—and this embraces pretty nearly every body—is rejoicing that the great American menagerie of the Sells Brothers will exhibit in Omaha next Tuesday afternoon and evening at the corner of Saunders and Hamilton streets.

The greatest marvel appearing during the season at the Elbow Museum is announced during the coming week in Prof. Mohr and his great imitative act. It is most daring and startling, requiring unflinching courage and a keen eye for its performance. In addition to Charlie will be exhibited a live bear and the Turtle boy, now wax works and new illusions. In the theaterium J. J. Leitch's comedy in "The Burglar" and Warren and Wiley's novelty combination will appear. There will be seven performances daily, beginning at 7 and ending at 10 o'clock P. M. The management as usual assures all attending that the good order for which the Museum is noted will be maintained, no improper characters being allowed to enter under any circumstances.
