

New spring goods at Heller's. New York Plumbing company.

Additional Council Bluffs on Fifth page.

The republican drill corps will meet at headquarters this evening for the regular weekly drill.

The work of laying the motor crossings on Ninth street is nearly completed.

The Council Bluffs district conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at Glenwood, Ia., Tuesday, June 26, and continue in session two days.

If the same vigilance and enthusiasm should be shown by police officers in hunting up crooks that is shown in hunting up trumping reporters, property would be safer.

City Clerk Burke has issued building permits to the following named parties: Mrs. Emily Scott, $1,000; O. Christensen, $1,000; E. E. Hoagland, $1,000; W. E. Unthahn, $1,000.

A gang of men were set to work yesterday morning tearing down the Washington avenue school building.

The agitation is being renewed for the driving out of the gambling houses from the main floors of prominent business blocks.

Mr. W. F. Iden, the Pacific Mutual operator, has shown very commendable enterprise during the Chicago convention.

A detachment of Dodge Light guards, under command of Lieutenant Dixon, will appear in the gypsy scene of the "Bohemian Girl."

Chief Lucas spent a portion of yesterday visiting the various saloons of the city in the interest of the "dry" law.

The newspapers of Omaha and Council Bluffs are devoting much space to and saying many good words of this city.

There is a rumor that the city will be the scene of a boom in the near future.

County Supervisors Waite and Underwood drove over the road between this city and Lake Manawa yesterday afternoon for the purpose of ascertaining its condition.

The Chautauqua literary circle held its closing session last evening and now adjourns for the summer.

There was a larger crowd of visitors at Lake Manawa Sunday evening than had ever been on the grounds before.

The committees having in charge the Chautauqua enterprise are crowding along the subscriptions pretty well.

Buy a "White" sow, mach. 20 N. Main.

Buy mantels, grates and hearth furnishings of the New York plumbing Co.

Union Abstract company, 235 Main street.

The engineers strike for Durlin Bros. for their groceries, 533 Broadway.

Remember the benefit concert for Miss Mamie Fleming at the M. E. church on Friday evening, June 20.

Tipton has bargains in real estate.

S. B. Wadsworth & Co. loan money.

Personal Paragraphs. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Evans and son George have returned from Chicago.

United States Deputy Marshal Duncan was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Dr. Sarah A. Smith is expected to return from Chicago to-day after a three week's visit.

Judge Carson went to Harlan yesterday to attend to the closing matters of the term there.

Mr. Harry Swan returned yesterday from Chicago accompanied by his niece, Mrs. Kirby.

Miss Belle Parkinson, of York, Neb., who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Al. Parkinson of this city, left yesterday for Plum Creek, Neb.

On Wednesday evening the grand secretary of the Northwestern Legion of Honor will be in the city and attend the session of the local order.

Omaha Prices. "One week only" at Schmidt's photo graph gallery, 230 Main st., one doz cabinet size photos for only $2.00, now wanted to suit. Don't like them, don't take them, and sit again.

E. H. Sheafe loans money on chattel security of every description. Private consulting rooms. All business strictly confidential. Office 500 Broadway, corner Main street, up-stairs.

Travelers! Stop at the Bechtels.

How the Bluffites Talk—A Des Moines Man in Search of His Wife—The City Marshal Sues the County—A Reporter Thumped.

On Their Muscles.

The disturbers of the peace monopolized the attention of Judge Aylesworth in police court yesterday morning.

It proved a very prolific day in the way of furnishing pugilistic amusement, and several of the "spurs" were trotted into the arena to settle for their fun.

John Miller had refused to settle for his lash in a Lower Broadway restaurant, and had made the atmosphere rather warm for the proprietor when he insisted on immediate payment.

He was fined $10.00 for his diversion, and being short of collateral, was relegated to the leech for a space of seven days.

The next case was against William Jeffries, Harry Jeffries, John Maher and Mike Killane for rioting at the "Turk."

The two latter did not make their appearance, and their names were declared forfeit. William Jeffries pleaded guilty, and was fined $5.00. His brother pleaded not guilty and his case was continued until afternoon.

Kildane and Maher showed up later, and asked to have their cases heard, as they did not wish to lose their $15 apiece. The three cases were tried in the afternoon.

The court concluded that it was "a very lively little difficulty" for the new building.

James Mapleton was the only name presented on account of liquor puzled, and the usual topic prescribed in such cases, $7.65, was chalked against it.

The case of Officer Nick O'Brien was then called. O'Brien was charged with assault with intent to do greater bodily injury on the person of W. J. Carter, the local representative of the Omaha Republican.

He waived an examination and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500. J. Shea became his bondsman and he was released.

A warrant was then issued for the arrest of James Madden, O'Brien's father-in-law, for threatening Carter, and he will be put under bonds to keep the peace.

The attack of which Officer O'Brien stands charged was most cowardly and brutal.

He took exception to an article that Carter had written, and because the latter refused to retract, gave him a terrible beating and kicking.

Carter offered him the use of the columns of the paper if he wished to reply, but he did not accept it. He is claimed by O'Brien.

Madden made numerous threats against Carter, but this O'Brien denies. The feeling of the citizens against O'Brien is very strong.

His assault was cowardly and brutal, and the popular expression is that he must be made to suffer severely for it.

He has tamed down considerably since the affair took place, as he then insisted that he would "kick Carter seven days in a week" if he did not let up on him.

But now he sees his mistake and fears that he seriously overstepped his bounds. The man Madden was also quite loud in his threats.

Mr. S. D. Wadsworth, a prominent young man, threatened to finish the work that O'Brien had begun. He pulled in his horns yesterday and was remarkably submissive.

The mayor is quite indignant over the affair and censures O'Brien severely, thinking that an officer should be the last one to so grievously disregard the law that he is supposed to enforce.

There is considerable talk of getting a petition against O'Brien's license as an officer revoked, and it is quite probable that the request will be granted.

It is said that he is possessed with the idea that the city cannot get along without his services, and that he will make to convince him of his serious mistake.

Comments on the Bulletin.

The bulletin boards were watched more eagerly than ever by Council Bluffs eyes yesterday.

There was little hurrahing. The republicans seemed strongly in favor of Blaine, and they showed their disappointment somewhat.

Still the large majority of those who were heard to express an opinion, spoke very favorably and with increasing enthusiasm of Harrison.

"If we can't have Blaine, why, Harrison's the man. He's all right and he'll be a winner." The sentiment was repeated time and again by republicans, though differing somewhat in the language used.

A democrat, prominent in sporting circles, voiced the sentiment of many of his party here in remarking, "I don't believe anybody can beat Cleveland. Harrison's a good man, though, and will pull strong. The betting has been in favor of Cleveland, but I don't believe it will be many days before it will be even money."

There was very little disappointment expressed among the local republicans here in the result of the state candidates.

It seems that they were rather surprised that Allison should develop as much strength as he did. "Allison could have had it if he hadn't been from Iowa. They're sure of Iowa anyway."

Wanted His Wife.

A Des Moines couple applied to the police yesterday morning to assist him in recovering the wife of his bosom, who had run away and left him a few days before.

Investigation showed that the woman had been supporting him until she became tired of it, and had come to this city to get rid of him.

Chief Lucas refused to take any steps in the matter, and he is obliged to jump the gun immediately or he would run him.

The police are not disposed to make life any harder than necessary for a woman whose worst failing is a disinclination to support a lazy husband.

Wants His Pews.

The case of Marshal Frank Gannella vs. Pottawattamie county was tried before Judge Aylesworth in the superior court yesterday afternoon.

The suit is brought to recover certain fees amounting to over $600. Attorneys Holmes and Mynster appeared for Gannella, and County Attorney Bailey conducted the defense.

The case was argued at some length, and was taken under advisement by the court.

An Ingenious Grazing Device.

Mr. Fred Hudler has been in the city for two weeks or so, selling territory for "Webber's patent grazing muzzle."

One of the best things for the farmer ever seen. This muzzle allows the animal to run loose in the corn field, and prevents injury to the growing crops, while it allows it to graze freely upon the ground or grass crop.

A calf can run with its mother, eat grass but cannot suck. Horses, colts, etc., can graze in orchards, but cannot injure the trees by eating limbs or leaves, as the muzzle is closed when the animal's head is raised from the ground.

A cow can eat grass, but cannot suck herself. We can and do cheerfully recommend the invention to the public generally.

Mr. Hudler has sold while here the right to several counties to some of the best citizens and still he is negotiating for other sales. For territory apply to Fred Hudler, general agent, at Bechtels hotel.

See in this issue Chautauqua special excursion.

There are hundreds and thousands of places where you can spend your dimes and dollars, but how few where you can save them?

You can save not only DIMES, but DOLLARS, by attending our Six Days' Unloading sale, commencing tomorrow.

Each and every department will be full of the best bargains ever offered.

Grand special sale of Parasols.

Grand special sale of Laces and Embroideries.

Special bargains in Hosiery, Gloves and Corsets.

Tremendous clearing out sale of WHITE GOODS, LAWNs and WASH DRESS GOODS.

Special bargain sale of Silks and Dress Goods.

All must be sold during this week at Half Price at

Henry Eiseman & Co.'s Peoples' Store

Nos. 218, 220, 222 & 224 BROADWAY.

Orange Blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth are welcomed heartily to a permanent residence in this city.

The following details of the happy event are from the Houston, Tex., Daily Post:

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred last evening at 6:30 o'clock at Major B. Hyatt's residence, No. 144 Travis street, when Miss Hattie Hyatt, a popular and charming young lady of this city, and Mr. S. D. Wadsworth, a prominent young business man of Council Bluffs, Ia., were united in marriage in the presence of a few friends.

The parlor was beautifully decorated for the occasion. As the clock pointed to 6:30, the handsome groom with his pretty bride entered the parlor while the inspiring strains of a beautiful wedding march pealed forth under the guidance of the well-known musician, Mrs. Bujac.

The groom was dressed in the conventional black and the bride wore an exquisite cream-colored satin with a handsome bridal veil. Looped at her corsage was a bouquet of pure white flowers.

Rev. D. F. C. Timmons, pastor of Shearn church, formed, in an impressive manner, the bridal couple after the ritual of the Methodist church. After the ceremony the bride and groom were repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding supper was served.

The couple left at 9:30 last night for their future home in Council Bluffs, followed by the good wishes of a host of friends in this city. The bride presents were numerous and handsome.

The republican club will meet this evening at 8 o'clock sharp at its rooms.

Without health life has no sunshine. Who could be happy with dyspepsia, piles, low spirits, headache, ague, or diseases of the stomach, liver or kidneys? Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic quickly cures the above diseases. Price 50 cents. C. F. Goodman.

THEO. BECKMAN, MANUFACTURER OF AND DEALER IN HARNESS, SADDLES, BRIDLES AND COLLARS.

Look in this issue for "Say, Look Here!" notice.

Say, Look Here!

If you want to get a correct and an intelligent idea of just what a Chautauqua assembly is, then go with us on the excursion to Crete, Neb., leaving Broadway U. P. depot at 9:45 a. m. Friday, June 29. We will have through cars and tickets. The fare from Council Bluffs to Crete and return, including admission to the grounds, will be $2.75, good for ten days, returning on any day and train the holder may choose.

Tickets can be had, commencing Wednesday morning, at Harkness Bros.' Union Ticket office, corner Broadway Pearl st.; Pacific house, Wabash Ticket office, corner Broadway and Main sts.; Camp & Ellis, Opera House drug store; U. P. Broadway depot, Ollinger & Pusey's bank, Bushnell's book store and J. B. Atkins' drug store.

Let the people of this city turn out as becomes the occasion and go and hear and see, returning thoroughly infused with "Chautauqua" ideas. Let not your neighbor rest until he or she has personally become informed of the great advantages that are secured by having a first-class of this character in our midst. The crowd attending this

Advertisement for METCALF BROTHERS, CITIZENS STATE BANK, and various local businesses including M.F. ROHRER, REAL ESTATE, and J.W. & E.L. SQUIRE'S.

Advertisement for EMPKIE HARDWARE CO. and WEIR SHUGART CO., featuring H.F. HATTENHAUER and various hardware and agricultural implements.

Advertisement for RUSSELL & CO., MASSILLON, OHIO, MANUFACTURERS, featuring electric lighting, mills, and elevators.

Advertisement for THE OGDEN IRON WORKS COMPANY, featuring wrought and cast iron engines and machinery.

Advertisement for CASCADE LAUNDRY COMPANY, featuring professional laundry services and prompt deliveries.

Advertisement for H. BIRKINBINE, Attorney at Law, and FINLEY BURKE, Attorney at Law.

Advertisement for N. SCHURZ, Justice of the Peace, and STONE & SIMS, Attorneys at Law.

Advertisement for C. C. HAZEN, Dentist, and M. H. CHAMBERLIN, M. D., Specialist in diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Advertisement for DR. C. B. JUDD, MANUFACTURER OF ELECTRIC BELTS AND ELECTRIC TRUSSES.

Advertisement for SECOND-HAND STOVES OR FURNITURE, featuring M. DROHLICH and various household items.

Advertisement for Star Stables and Mule Yards, featuring harness, saddles, and bridles.

Advertisement for OGDEN BOILER WORKS, featuring steam boilers and sheet iron work.

Advertisement for Hides, Tallow, Pelts, and Wool and Furs, featuring D. H. McDANIEL & CO.

Advertisement for SNYDER & SNYDER, Physician and Surgeon, featuring various medical services.