Attorney General Leese Rules That They are Not White and Cannot Become Citizens-The Doctors' Doings.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMARA BEE, 1000 P STREET, LINCOLN, June 27.

The indications point to a great gathering of republicans to morrow at the ratification meeting to be held by the State League of republican clubs. The same delegates as attended the meeting at Omaha will be entitled to seats, as it is but an adjourned meeting of the gathering at Omaha. The league will meet at 4 p. m. to morrow, at Bohannon's hall. Beatrice, Wahoo and other points on the B. & M. will run special trains and swell the crowd in attendance. It is arranged to hold a grand open air ratification meeting at the government square in the evening, and the local committee will see to it that the arrangements are complete. In the parade that will precede this meeting there will be a grand demonstration. Five hundred hoop poles have been ordered with which to equip the hoop pole brigade and a large number of transparencies will be in the line of march. Another feature of the purade will be a vertable log cabin on wheels, commemorative of the days of Harrison and Tyler, when the whig party went into power. The speakers at the open air meeting will be Colonel Hepburn and J. P. Dolliver of Iowa, John C. Cowin and W. J. Connell of Omaha, in addition to local speakers. There is a prospect also that Governor Foraker of Ohio will be present. A presidential sainte will be fired at 6 p. m. in honor of Hacrison and Morton, and the following official programme for the parade, line of march and speaking will be observed:

All clubs and organizations will report at the corner of Ninth and P streets with torches, transparencies, hoop poles, etc., at 7:30 p. m. sharp. The procession will start at 8 o clock sharp and be formed as follows: Police, marshal and staft, Knights of Pythias to equip the hoop pole brigade at So clock sharp and be formed as follows:
Police, marshal and staff, Knights of Pythias band, flambeau club, other uniformed clubs, colored band and club, military band and all other clubs. The line of march will be on P street to Ninth, to Tenth, north on Tenth to Q, east on Q to Eleventh, south on Eleventh to O, west on O to Tenth, north on Tenth to Q, where the column will countermarch back Q, where the column will countermarch back to O, then around the postoffice square and break ranks and listen to the eminent speak ers provided for the occasion. The square will be lighted by electric lights.

All the bands in the city have been engaged for the occasion, and the reorganized Lincoln Flambeau club will add fireworks to the scene. It is estimated that several thousand the companion of the city of the scene. sand republicans from outside the city will be in attendance.

A QUESTION OF CITIZENSHIP. Attorney General Leese recently had a peculiar case brought before him, upon which he has passed an opinion holding that under the existing laws a native Mongolian cannot become a citizen of the United States. The case was brought by a heathen Chinee of Fremont named Joe Wing Fong, who desired to become an American citizen and applied to the district court of Dodge county for citizen-ship, but was refused the papers. In his opinion of the case Atterney Gen-eral Leese holds that the law prescribes that any white citizen of alien birth can apply and receive citizenship on complying with the statute requirements. The ques-tion therefore arises whether a Chinaman is a white man, and us the Mongolian has never been considered as such the decision follows that he is not entitled to citizenship. A resident of the city is of the opinion that the Cal-ifornia delegation, if acquainted with the facts, would stop over long enough to give the attorney general of Nebraska a serenade on his interpretation of the law.

A careless hach driver to-day drove into a buggy at the corner of Tenth and P streets, in which a man and boy were sented. The hack broke two wheels off the buggy, knocking the occupants to the payement, and in the fall the boy sustained a fractured leg. The police were quickly notified and went at the work of identifying the particular back in question, that the driver might be made to buffer for his recklessness.

Suffer for his recklessness.

THE STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY. The Nebraska State Medical society was busily engaged yesterday in the considera-tion of papers prepared for the meeting. The business session of the night before was given over to the consideration of creden-tials, the admission of new members and the report from the committee on grievances. In the latter report Dr. Christian of Grand Rapids was expelled from membership. The

A MAILHOAD CONTRACT.

The case of Price against Treat was called for hearing before Judge Doane. Treat, who is a Chleago man, had a contract in 1886 for the construction of a branch of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railway in Dakota. He sublet the work to Price, of Bennett, Lancaster county, this state. There was a disagreement in the paying for the the work under the contract made. Price ciaims $15,000 from Treat. The grounds upon which he bases his claims are that the grade had to be made through and with rock, the handling of which cost $0$ conts per yard, instead of gravel as per contract, at 16 cents per yard.

FACTS FROM FLORENCE.

Some Events of Recent Occurrence-A Brave Town Marshal.

FLORENCE, June 27 .- To the Editor of THE BEE: While Council Bluffs, South Omaha, Albright and Fort Omaha are represented in your columns every day, I concluded that it would be but just to allow us a little space for some matters of recent date which are of great interest to our citizens. We are a lawabiding community out here in the suburbs, and allow no one to come here and create any disturbance. It was for that purpose we elected Mr. Freeland, our present marshal, and if anyone imagines that he does not attend to his duties in the strictest manner. they are mistaken. A few days ago a party of Omaha boys and girls came out here on a picnic. I believe they belong to a Sunday school down there. Well, as they were driving through town they began singing "Oh, Think of the Home Over There," and when they had finished one of the boys commenced to blow a bugle. Of course, this was all wrong. We don't allow any street music in Florence, or any other in fact, and Marshal Freeland who was in the "Bank of Florence" enshing a chip—a check I should have said, knew it. No, sir; as soon as he heard that "over here" business and the fellow tooting his tie he went out and pulled his pistol. busic he went out and pulled his pistol. It's a nice pistol, too, with a barrel over a foot long. It's one that his old granddad Freeland carried at Reseen de la Palma, so you see it's good stuff. Well, sir, he went out, wiping his mouth, and told them boys and girls that he was "marshal of this town, and don't you forget it, and that he proposed to see the law enforced and by the great horn spoon they had got to quit that dod-gasted singing, if it took all the money he had earned catching eathsh for the last year to buy ammunition." And, Mr. Editor, maybe he didn't dry 'em up, Well, I guess so. You never saw such a scared lot of folks in your life. Why, they didn't sing any more until they got five or six rods away, they got five or six rods away, and, of course, as it was out of range of Marshal Freeland's weapon, of range of Marshal Freeland's weapon, they knew they were safe. But Freeland was not to be outdone. He got his horse and started after 'em, but they had succeeded in getting outside the limits or blood would have been spilled. Freeland is no child, and us folks out here like him. He makes 'em toe the mark. I mean those law-breakers. Why, about a month ago a fellow came here to paint the town and he walked all the way to Omaha and back to get the sheriff to arrest

HONORED BY HIS TOWNSMEN.

A Rousing Reception to Hon. John M. Thurston.

HAILED BY FIVE THOUSAND.

Speech Making, Street Parade, Music and Cheers Abound-Mr. Thurston and Paul Vandervoort the Speakers.

The Thurston Reception.

Major Clarkson, together with other prom-inent republicans, headed the procession of about two hundred men that escorted the carriage that conveyed Hon. John M. Thurston and wife from their residence on Farnam street last night to the Millard hotel, where, in the presence of 5,000 persons, the tempor ary chairman of the late republican convention was cheered to the echo and every other word of his speech warmly applauded. The Union Pacific band went in advance of the procession and played "Marching Through Georgia" and other national airs, much to the evident satisfaction of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston, who displayed the campaign emblem of the republican party, the stars and strines.

Upon the arrival of the procession at the hotel Mr. Thurston was received by vociferous cheering, coupled with three mighty cheers for him. Mr. Thurston was introduced by Major Clarkson. After excusing himself as being tired and out of voice, he expressed his gratitude to the people of Omaha for the demonstration of their ap-proval of the part he took at the Chicago convention. His only aim was to do honor to his party and the state he is so justly proud of. Nebraska was looked upon in Chi-cago as only a little state, entitled to only ten delogates out of $25. It was not necessary to give Nebraska anything, as its vote was sure for the republican ticket. But the boys of Nebraska went there to win and it was sure for the republican ticket. But the boys of Nebraska went there to win, and it was due to them that he received what henors were accorded him. He next thanked the newspapers, regardless of politics, for their kind treatment of him, and Church Howe for his efforts in advancing him to the honorable position he was elected to. Charley Greene was next complimented, as were other well known politicians.

were other well known politicians.

The Chicago convention met as a deliberative body, after four years of democratic rule, continued Mr. Thurston, for the purpose of nominating men who would be acceptable to nominating men who would be acceptable to the republican party. A ticket has been nominated that will sweep the winds at the November polls. For one, Mr. Thurston was anxious to see James G. Blaine nominated, and had he never written those letters there would not have been any other candid who voice the sentiments of an American in the judgment and wisdom of the republican party in selecting Mr. Harrison none are more sincere than James G. Blaine. The republican party is sure to win on its platform. more sincere than James G. Blaine. The republican party is sure to win on its platform, It is sure to win because we claim that protection is the champion of American labor and American industries. The intelligence of the American people is such that they will not stand free trade, for it interferes with their prosperity and the prosperity of the nation. We have placed at the head of our ticket a men who has fought for his country, and did not send a substitute to the war as did Grover Cleveland. Harrison has proven himself loyal to the American government and its principles, a true man and an upright, honest man. He will be elected, and will carry Indiana as sure as a muskinglen will carry Indiana as sure as a muskinglon ripens in a July sun. The republican party has a man udon whose record they do not have to shut the door. The republican party marches under the stars and stripes, and does not dwell under the shadow of a bandana

At the conclusion of Mr. Thurston's speech the band played "The Red, White and 13 no." and Paul Vandervoort then came to the front and expressed his joy to see so large a crowd turn out to receive Mr. Thurston, who had been so signally honored in the cago. It was an honor to the great prairie state of Nebraska. Mr. Vandervoort related his personal choice for presidents in years gone by, and said that this year he knew that it was necessary to have a soldier at the head of the ticket, which they now had in Mr. Harrison, who will go through the campaign without a who will go through the campaign without a spot or blemish on his character. Mr. Morton, too, is an exceptionally pure and honest man, with a clean record far beyond the realms of attack. This campaign will not be of calumny and slander. It will be one of principles, and he closed by appealing to the republicans to organize and give a larger majority for their ticket this year than ever before.

Major Clarkson reported that nearly three hundred young men had enrolled themselves as members of the Harrison and Morton club during the day, and expressed confidence that the number would be doubled in a few

PUBLIC MEN AND AFFAIRS.

The Redman-Heimrod-Christopherson Controversy in the Board. There is a new candidate for the seat of Louis Heimrod on the board of public works. It is John Christopherson. This man for twelve years was in the employ of the postal department and transferred the mail in the B. & M. and Union Pacific depots to and from the wagons. He went out with the republican party. Since then he has been to Europe and taking things easily. Recently t was thought he would be appointed as an aspector of public works, but the arrangement was in some manner broken. Since then John has hungered for the proposed vacancy, and solicited the kindly assistance of Senator Manderson. The latter responded and the result was a letter to Mayor Broatch asking the board position for the petitioner. If Kedman fails of confirmation, and the mayor refuses to nominate Heimrod, the presumption is that Christopherson may be nominated, but it is very uncertain that he will be confirmed. There is a feeling that the board of public works is de-teriorating and that it is being looked upon by certain officials as a means of combing them to pay political debts, instead of a body of competent, practical men who have an of competent, practical men who have an actual as well as theoretical knowledge of public improvements. "There was a time." said a councilman yesterday, "when the board was composed of men who were well informed and experienced, but I don't think it will ever be that way again if we now commence to put in men who, while they may have been good mail clerks, have not had the experience to qualify them to even seek so important a situation."

It was rumored Monday that ten men had been secured in the council to vote for had been secured in the council to vote for Redman as Heimrod's successor. If this be true, Redman will be confirmed. Yesterday however, certain councilmen claimed that there was no more chance of Redman being confirmed than there was of being lected president. Said one of these Heimrod is good enough for us. I don't believe in making a change now when there is so much work to be done. I believe the mayor's attempt to get Heimrod and Mayne out of the beard is designed to put favorites in. I have been approached by certain men, friendly to one of the parties in question, who insinuated that if I would yote for Redman's confirmation, there would be no more trouble about Fanning & Slaven's bill.
