AMUSEMENTS.

The Brady-Webster Company in "She" at Boyd's.

There was a large audience at Hoyd's opera house last evening to witness the Brady adaptation of Haggard's famous story, "She." The version is a clever one, terse and compact, and in the hands of the Webster-Brady company is well produced. The piece abcunds with exciting and thrilling scenes. Miss Charlotte Tuttle in the title ole is quite effective. She is not a wonder ni actress, but is exceedingly graceful, well formed, pretty and has a sweet voice, a com-pound that is very pleasing to the average audience. Webster, as Holly, is fair, and Mr. West, as Job, furnishes all the funny business needed, in fact a little too much of the article. McConnell's Lee Vincey is only the article. McConnell's Leo Vincey is only medicare. The piece is very well set, some of the scenic effects, notably the chility scenes in the gracesome cavern, the approaching storm off the coast of Africa, and sunrise at the man's bend, the fire of life, are particularly impressive. Taken as a whole, the production reflects considerable credit on the management, and is up to a standard calculated to picase almost any audience. The same bill this evening.

Last week we have supplied thousands of Customers with thin Coats and Vests; they are going off with a rush and every day's business, especially last Saturday, has taxed our capacity sorely; but success only stimulates us to stronger and more liberal efforts, and while we are just now having the biggest run in Summer Clothing, we do not neglect our other departments. We open to day and place on sale for this week two new styles of very fine Men's Cassimere Suits, which at the price we have marked them will make a reputation for us, as the cheapest clothing house in the United States. Ten dollars for a good suit having become such a popular price with us we have decided to mark them so, although this is just one-half the value. Both styles are excellent, one a dark, the other a lighter shade of grey, elegantly trimmed and made, and the goods are of fair weight, thus making them suitable to wear along in the fall. They are the biggest bargain ever shown and are in every respect equal if not superior to the other Ten Dollar Suits of which we sold so many this season.

We have just opened an enormous assortment of fine pants, which we marked $2.50, $3.00 and $3.25. Every pair is unquestionably a big bargain, as they are very fine all wool goods in splendid patterns of stripes; they fit as well as any you can have made to order for three times the money, and at the price we have marked them, you buy them actually at 50c, on the dollar.

In our Childrens' department we offer this week, some extraordinary bargains in Blouse Suits, just the thing for hot weather, for boys from 4 to 10 years. One blouse and pants at 95c; a good looking and strong suit, another fine blue flannel suit with silk embroidered collar at $1.35. Still another extra fine flannel of a beautiful shade of chocolate color at $2.75. None of these suits could be had at any other place for less than double these prices. Another big offering in this department, is a strong and good wearing knee pant suit, in beautiful checks which we have marked down to $1.50. This suit is a big bargain and we have only marked it down so low because the largest sizes are sold out.
