

THE CITY.

The long-talked-of suburban trains on the belt line are finally an assured thing. The trains will be put on July 15 and will run from the Webster street depot to Seymour park.

While fooling with the door of the elevator in the chamber of commerce building yesterday morning, Carl Lamb, a messenger boy, got caught and squeezed, suffering a fracture of the right leg above the ankle.

Three mortgages were filed yesterday by John A. Gordon and son on third street, coffee, spices, etc., at 205 North Sixth street. One is to John L. and William L. McCague, to secure notes aggregating $825.93, a second is to Gates, Cole & Miller, for $1,154, and a third to Frank W. Oakley.

Mary and Bridget Hove arrived at the Union Pacific depot Friday night from County Monaghan, Ireland, expecting their brother Patrick there to meet them. He failed to put in an appearance.

A child belonging to Miss Emma Brown, who lives in a shanty on the bottoms, was taken by a neighbor named Mr. Baker to the office of Dr. Keogh's office day two ago.

Personal Paragraphs. R. A. Moore, of Kearney, is at the Paxton. H. S. Lippincott, of Lincoln, is at the Paxton.

James Schoelcher, of Blair, is at the Millard. J. D. Fox, of Sioux City, was in town yesterday.

A. H. Mendenhall, of Lincoln, is at the Paxton. Maxine Langdon, of Papillion, is at the Paxton.

James Hutson, of Central City, is at the Paxton. N. S. Harwood, of Lincoln, was in the city yesterday.

M. E. Fuller, of Schuyler, was in the city yesterday. H. M. Waring, of Lincoln, was in the city yesterday.

George E. Dorrington, of Falls City, is at the Millard. A. R. Riordan, of Lincoln, came up to Omaha yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norris, of Greenwood, are at the Millard. D. C. Montgomery, of Hastings, was in the metropolis yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Conrad, of Tecumseh, are at the Paxton. Ora Richards and Alexander Stewart, of Wyoming, were in the city yesterday.

Mr. Higginson has returned from Cincinnati where he has been studying in the school of dentistry.

Miss Ada Ingerson, of Sioux City, Ia., is visiting the Misses Giacomini at 1034 North Twenty-second street.

Mr. A. L. Robinson, of Maryland, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. C. A. Ring, northeast corner Twenty-first and Davenport streets, where she will be pleased to see her friends.

Insolent Hackmen. The police are endeavoring to enforce the new ordinance in regard to the hackmen who congregate in front of stores and hotels and make insulting remarks to lady passengers.

Two of them were arrested yesterday and fined $5 and $3 respectively. One gave the name of De Foss, but the other refused to give his name.

The Building Boom. During the month of June just past 293 building permits were issued, the contemplated structures to cost $500,633. This is $900,000 more than the cost of buildings for which permits were issued last month.

His Room Robbed. D. Chapin is looking for a suit of clothes and a $25 trunk from his room at the Southern hotel, corner Ninth and Leavenworth streets. Chapin is at work in the sewers. When he went to his room at the close of work yesterday afternoon he found his room open and his clothing gone.

A Broken Leg. A young man named Walters, who is in the employ of the Wells-Fargo express company, was with an accident shortly after the noon yesterday that will lay him up for some time. He was riding down Dodge street on horseback, when the animal slipped and fell.

An Unpaid Dressmaker's Bill. The Goos hotel was the scene of another exhibition of misplaced confidence yesterday afternoon. A Mrs. Coleman, who has been stopping at the house for two months past, gave a porter $50 to pay the bill of a dressmaker who lives near by.

Police and Fire Commissioners. A meeting of the police and fire commissioners held last evening, the first thing considered was the communication from the Fourth of July committee inviting the fire department to take part in the parade. It was decided to allow companies 1, 2 and 3 to take part, including also the chemical companies 2 and 3 are not to go any further north than Davenport street, and are to immediately return. No company is to further march than Cumine street.

The managers of the Hoesmer steel works at Troy, N. Y., have laid off 100 men.

Twenty days. A communication from the Twenty-first street contractor, however, was read, telling of comfortable quarters in Kennon's hall. It was decided to move box front six feet, and also to install a Corby, to answer fire as well as police alarms. This was done for the accommodation of the voluntary fire company. One of the old fire carts was turned over to them for use. Five hundred feet of hose have already been given them.

"SHOEMAKER'S WAX." Mrs. Thurston Used the Goods Only For Fun—Political Gossip. John M. Thurston is reported as having said that he is not feeling between him and Charley Greene because of the little "shoemaker's wax" speech of his wife in Chicago on Monday convention days, and is at a loss to know just what the remainder of the speech means. He claims that they were only intended as a joke.

"This may be true," said a man who attended the convention and who noticed Greene's tendency to exhibit himself. "The fact is, Thurston ought to have meant what he said, because he described just what was necessary to induce Mr. Greene's chair to follow him. When convention was over of Thurston having reflected honor upon Nebraska, Greene certainly did the other thing. He may be able to inflame a convention of B. & M. capitalists, but he can't tire them in the presence of such a gathering as that of Chicago."

Said a distinguished attorney to-day: "I see Thurston says it is his request, Greene was made chairman of the Nebraska delegation. Didn't Thurston say some place that he owned the delegation? And isn't it his word to be believed when he says that he has unconditionally granted such a request?"

The resolutions purported to have been adopted at the meeting of the Nebraska delegation. Didn't Thurston say some place that he owned the delegation? And isn't it his word to be believed when he says that he has unconditionally granted such a request?"

Delegates from the democratic clubs throughout the state were elected to attend the national convention of democratic clubs which is to be held in Baltimore on the 4th of July, are expected in town to-morrow. Among the names mentioned are those of Charles Ogden, who is chairman of the provisional committee to make arrangements for the convention, says a report will probably be 4,000 delegates attendance.

A FITTING CLOSE. The audience at the commencement exercises of the German-American school last night was quite large and notwithstanding the warm weather, the programme, which was an excellent one, was admirably rendered and every participant performed his or her part in a manner which reflected great credit upon the teachers. The programme was as follows:

Orchestra—Ed. Band, Duett, piano-trio—"Lied der Mitternacht." Declaration—"Curfew must not ring to-night." Declaration—"To the Indians"—Otto Schmidt.

Flashes From the Diamond. Gorman will be on hand for to-day's game. There was a fair attendance of ladies yesterday.

To-day and to-morrow will be Omaha days. Please stick a pin here. It was tough luck that he swooped down on the home team at a fatal seventh.

Nagel played a first base that would be a credit to any man in the association. Game called at 3:30 o'clock to-day. There were 1,000 spectators on hand.

Ice cream was peddled about the stands yesterday. A new hit happy wrinkle. Wilson caught in elegant form. He had no passed balls, and threw well to bases.

Crooks at bat yesterday. Fessenden as an umpire is what may be called a genuine success—Macullar of Des Moines.

Bader and Gennis are in the city en route for Sioux City, where they will play the balance of the season. The green-complexioned Jim is a hard worker, industrious player, and if he but buckles down to his work, will make a valuable acquisition to the team.

Mr. Fessenden is determined to uphold the common decency of the great national game or know the reason why. Macullar hit the ball straight up, but the umpire, who can't build or browbeat him out of anything they are not entitled to.

Umpire Fessenden informed Manager Morton that the Des Moines team last evening that Macullar's fine must go. Morton said it would never be paid. Fessenden then telegraphed to Secretary Martin, at Chicago, and the result was that the team was allowed to play.

Monkey Holiday, who is a desecrated member of the Sporting News at Des Moines will sit down and write a letter for his paper this afternoon. Fessenden is all right. He does not have to stay in the Western association. The door of the National league is wide open to him.

Lovett pitched a magnificent game up to the time when his support went to pieces. Three vile errors are sufficient to rattle any pitcher in the land.

PROGRAMME OF THE PARADE. Route of March and the Order of the Participants. Knights' Big Demonstration. It Promises to Be the Grandest Street Display Ever Seen in the West.

Fourth of July Celebration. There will be a meeting of the marshals at Gate City hall, corner Thirteenth and Douglas streets, this morning at 10 o'clock. The general committee of arrangements will meet to-morrow night at 7:30 at the corner of Twelfth and Barnum streets.

The children who will appear in the liberty car will get their crowns and other decorations at the principal chamber at 5 o'clock on the morning of July 4.

The committee would like to see every business man in the state and the entire west, to be turned upon Omaha this fourth, and for that reason every person interested in the standing of our city as an industrial, commercial and political center.

Provisions have been made for the benefit of our friends from the surrounding cities and country in the low rates of excursion on the railroad goods for three days, thus enabling them to combine business with pleasure.
