Blaine's Florence Letter in the Way of the Nomination.

NEW YORK, July 1.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—T. C. Crawford telegraphs from London to-night, saying that the public is wrong in concluding that Mrs. Blaine was opposed to Blaine's candidacy a second time; that Blaine would really have liked to run but could not after his Florence letter.

CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS.

Senator Mitchell Predicts a Sweep on the Coast.

NEW YORK, July 1.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Senator John H. Mitchell, of Oregon, who is at the Hoffman house, is confident of republican success. He said that his judgment might be somewhat warped by the results of the recent election in Oregon, which he declared was an out and out fight over the tariff issue, but, nevertheless, he was confident of republican success.

Weekly Crop Report.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The weekly crop weather bulletin says: The weather for the past week has been favorable for all growing crops in the wheat, corn and tobacco regions in the Ohio, upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, and Tennessee. Heavy rains doubtless interfered with harvesting from Missouri eastward to Virginia.

Fewer Weather Reports.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Notice has been issued by the signal office that on and after July 1 there will be but two regular telegraph reports received daily at the signal office, and the indications will be prepared from these reports and issued to the associated press as promptly as practicable, probably about 10 a. m. and 10 p. m. The indications will be for a period of thirty-six hours from the time of each report.
