

PARTY HARMONY IN VIRGINIA.

The Discontented Republican Elements Once More Reuniting.

PERSONAL QUARRELS SETTLED.

Riddleberger and Mahone Are Reconciled With a Fair Prospect of Winning Over Wise—The Sugar Debate.

Burying the Hatchet.

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 8. (Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The republican party in Virginia has been united to contest the electoral vote of the entire southern states to the democratic ticket.

TO DIG UP BABYLON.

PERSONAL OF THE PARTY RECENTLY DEPARTED TO EXCAVATE CITIES.

NEWARK, N. J., July 8.—Daniel Z. Noorian, of this city, will be the important man in the party that is going to dig up the ruins of ancient Babylon next winter.

BETTING ON THE ELECTION.

A WAGER OF $20,000 TO $10,000 THAT CLEVELAND WILL BE RE-ELECTED.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Considerable interest was excited yesterday in betting circles by the announcement that a bona fide wager had been made on the presidential election.

THE CROP BULLETIN.

CORN GREY IMPROVED BY THE HIGH TEMPERATURE.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The weather crop bulletin says: The temperature for the week ending July 7 was from 22 to 25 higher than usual throughout the wheat and corn regions of the central valleys and the northwest.

A SEVERE STORM IN WYOMING.

BURKE, Wyo., July 8.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—One of the most severe rain and hail storms this section ever experienced occurred to-day.

THE SULTAN ARMED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 8.—The sultan, fearing that Austria may be induced to make concessions to Russia in Bulgaria, has decided to arm his army.

A UNION OF UNIONS.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., July 8.—About seven hundred members of the brotherhoods of locomotive engineers, steam trainmen and switchmen met in session to-day for the purpose of taking steps looking to an amalgamation of these orders.

MARBLE WORKS BURNED.

LOUISVILLE, July 8.—The marble works of Peter Burchard were burned this morning. Loss $30,000; insurance $15,000.

SUNDAY AMONG THE TENTS.

How Yesterday Was Passed at the Crete Chautauqua.

MYSTERIES OF MIND AND BRAIN.

An Able and Thoughtful Lecture By Dr. Duryea—A Little Rain at Last—The Programme For To-Day.

The Crete Chautauqua.

ASSEMBLY GROUNDS, CRETE, Neb., July 7.—(Special to The Bee.)—At 2 o'clock yesterday a large audience assembled in the pavilion to hear Dr. Duryea's lecture on "Mind and Brain."

Believed Each Other Dead.

Meeting of Mother and Son After Twenty-Four Years Separation.

PERRIN, Mo., July 8.—A man attired in a picturesque blue uniform and the jaunty cap of the sailors of the United States navy was among the passengers who strolled along the platform of the station yesterday morning.

White-Beecher.

A Very Pretty and Unostentatious Wedding in New York.

NEW YORK, July 8.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—An unostentatious and pretty wedding took place yesterday at the country residence of Colonel Henry Barton Beecher.

Died of Hydrophobia.

A Man Who Was Bitten by a Cat After Terrible Suffering Passes Away.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 8.—Several days ago J. R. Boich of Fairfield, twenty years old, was riding along a road near his home when he was attacked by a handsome cat sitting on the roadside.

Mrs. Copeland's Estate.

Seventeen Years' Search Results in the Discovery of Heirs.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Capt. Theron S. Copeland, of the Ninth police precinct, is said to be one of the heirs to something like $200,000 principal interest of an estate left by his mother, of which no trace was found until recently.

Big Gold Find in Australia.

LOAN, July 8.—Cable advices from western Australia report a gold discovery which will rival the almost fabulous wealth of the Queensland Mount Morgan mine.

Editor Sentenced.

BRITISH, July 8.—The judge of the provincial Wiltshire Circuit has been sentenced to one month's imprisonment for reprinting an attack upon Empress Victoria.

Ship Burned.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 8.—Many shops in the market place in this city were destroyed by fire to-day, involving a loss of $750,000.

LOOKING OUT FOR TWISTERS.

Return of the Cyclone Season Among the Hawkeyes.

BOUNDARIES OF THE STORM BELT.

A New Candidate For Attorney General—The Fourth Among the Insane—A Prominent Democrat Declares For Harrison.

The Cyclone Season Opened.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 8.—(Special to The Bee.)—The severe storms that prevailed in many parts of Iowa on the Fourth of July have revived great interest in cyclones and tornadoes.

"Charles" Was a Woman.

ANAMOSA, Ia., July 8.—(Special to The Bee.)—On June 18 Charles Miller, after being confined in the Sioux City jail two months, was sent to the Fort Madison penitentiary for the remainder of a lively term.

Iowa Regimental Encampments.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 8.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The Iowa regimental encampments have fixed the dates for the several regimental encampments as follows: The First and Third regiments, September 10; the Second, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth regiments, August 28.

Ten Thousand Dollar Blaze.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 8.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The large implement house of H. L. Lewis, Inc., was totally destroyed by fire last night.

TEEDROW, THE ABDUCTOR.

His Victim Admits Having Told an Untruth.

CHICAGO, July 8.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—John Teedrow, the blind man arrested Saturday while abusing nine-year-old Fred Dayton, is still locked up at the Anderson street station.

Will Not Circulate the Edict.

JACKSON, Miss., July 8.—Judge Frederick Speed, grand commander of Knights Templar in Mississippi, has officially notified the grand master of templars of the United States.

The Coming Week in Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Tomorrow Senator Cannon intends to call the bill to amend the interstate commerce law.

Run Into a Land Slide.

LEAVELAND, Ind., July 8.—This afternoon the Leaveland, Ind., coal mine was struck by a landslide.

American Evictions.

TOPKA, Kan., July 8.—Salt was begun yesterday in the supreme court by the Missouri Pacific and Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroads to oust about two hundred settlers from Allen county.

Esmond Talks Plainly.

LIVERPOOL, July 8.—Esmond, speaking at a national meeting to-night, accused the government of collusion with the Times in a deliberate plot to discredit the Irish cause.

General Sheridan's Condition.

NOGET, Miss., July 8.—The Swatara arrived at 2 o'clock this afternoon. General Sheridan was brought aboard without any apparent discomfort and is now in his own cottage.

This Weather Indications.

FOR NEBRASKA—Warmer, fair, rather dry; winds becoming southerly.

Orangemen Attacked.

MANCHESTER, July 8.—Irish Catholics this morning attacked an Orange procession while marching to church.

FRANK BYRNE INTERVIEWED.

What He Has to Say Concerning the Times' Charges.

WHY HE FLED FROM ENGLAND.

He Denies Any Knowledge of the "Byrne Letter" or of Having Received Funds From Parrell to Enable Him to Escape.

Byrne Denies the Charges.

NEW YORK, July 8.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Frank Byrne's name having been mentioned in connection with the O'Donnell Times libel suit by the London Times in an editorial of Friday, and by Messrs. Parrell and McCarty in the house of commons, a reporter interviewed Mr. Byrne to-day.

Why He Fled From England.

"Is it true," asked the reporter, "that Mr. Parrell, as charged by the Times, supplied you with funds to escape from England last year for fear that you should have to stand trial for complicity in the Phoenix park assassinations?"

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"The statement is absolutely false," said Mr. Byrne. "The facts of the case are that in the winter of 1887 I was confined in bed for several weeks, and when able to be out was ordered by my medical attendant to go to the south of France for my health.

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I was in possession of a good share of money of my own, and besides I had a considerable sum belonging to the National League of Great Britain, and this, accompanied by a balance sheet for the year, was the treasure of the organization in London."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

THE CLEARANCE RECORD.

The Financial Transactions of the Past Week.

Slave Flogging Illustrated.

MONTEAGUE, Ala., July 8.—A somewhat tragic and funny story comes from Butler Springs, Ala., and its accuracy is vouched for by substantial citizens.

Run Into a Land Slide.

LEAVELAND, Ind., July 8.—This afternoon the Leaveland, Ind., coal mine was struck by a landslide.

American Evictions.

TOPKA, Kan., July 8.—Salt was begun yesterday in the supreme court by the Missouri Pacific and Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroads to oust about two hundred settlers from Allen county.

Esmond Talks Plainly.

LIVERPOOL, July 8.—Esmond, speaking at a national meeting to-night, accused the government of collusion with the Times in a deliberate plot to discredit the Irish cause.

General Sheridan's Condition.

NOGET, Miss., July 8.—The Swatara arrived at 2 o'clock this afternoon. General Sheridan was brought aboard without any apparent discomfort and is now in his own cottage.

This Weather Indications.

FOR NEBRASKA—Warmer, fair, rather dry; winds becoming southerly.

Orangemen Attacked.

MANCHESTER, July 8.—Irish Catholics this morning attacked an Orange procession while marching to church.

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

THE CLEARANCE RECORD.

The Financial Transactions of the Past Week.

Slave Flogging Illustrated.

MONTEAGUE, Ala., July 8.—A somewhat tragic and funny story comes from Butler Springs, Ala., and its accuracy is vouched for by substantial citizens.

Run Into a Land Slide.

LEAVELAND, Ind., July 8.—This afternoon the Leaveland, Ind., coal mine was struck by a landslide.

American Evictions.

TOPKA, Kan., July 8.—Salt was begun yesterday in the supreme court by the Missouri Pacific and Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroads to oust about two hundred settlers from Allen county.

Esmond Talks Plainly.

LIVERPOOL, July 8.—Esmond, speaking at a national meeting to-night, accused the government of collusion with the Times in a deliberate plot to discredit the Irish cause.

General Sheridan's Condition.

NOGET, Miss., July 8.—The Swatara arrived at 2 o'clock this afternoon. General Sheridan was brought aboard without any apparent discomfort and is now in his own cottage.

This Weather Indications.

FOR NEBRASKA—Warmer, fair, rather dry; winds becoming southerly.

Orangemen Attacked.

MANCHESTER, July 8.—Irish Catholics this morning attacked an Orange procession while marching to church.

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

THE CLEARANCE RECORD.

The Financial Transactions of the Past Week.

Slave Flogging Illustrated.

MONTEAGUE, Ala., July 8.—A somewhat tragic and funny story comes from Butler Springs, Ala., and its accuracy is vouched for by substantial citizens.

Run Into a Land Slide.

LEAVELAND, Ind., July 8.—This afternoon the Leaveland, Ind., coal mine was struck by a landslide.

American Evictions.

TOPKA, Kan., July 8.—Salt was begun yesterday in the supreme court by the Missouri Pacific and Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroads to oust about two hundred settlers from Allen county.

Esmond Talks Plainly.

LIVERPOOL, July 8.—Esmond, speaking at a national meeting to-night, accused the government of collusion with the Times in a deliberate plot to discredit the Irish cause.

General Sheridan's Condition.

NOGET, Miss., July 8.—The Swatara arrived at 2 o'clock this afternoon. General Sheridan was brought aboard without any apparent discomfort and is now in his own cottage.

This Weather Indications.

FOR NEBRASKA—Warmer, fair, rather dry; winds becoming southerly.

Orangemen Attacked.

MANCHESTER, July 8.—Irish Catholics this morning attacked an Orange procession while marching to church.

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."

Byrne Denies the Charges.

"I do not know of the fashion in which trials of such a character are usually conducted to believe that I could not possibly escape conviction if once brought within the power of the English government."