

THE CITY.

The internal revenue collections yesterday amounted to $11,149.20.

The equalization board lowered the assessment of the Paxton hotel from $85,000 to $51,000, and of the Murray from $30,000 to $20,000.

Judge Shields issued one more marriage license yesterday. The parties were Edward Tucker, aged thirty, and Miss Minnie Myers, aged twenty-two, both of Omaha.

The statement that Messrs. Wiggin and Roche would engage in a political discussion before the members of the Seventh ward republican club is wrong. The participants in the discussion will be Mr. Mahoney, superintendent of the poor farm, and Mr. P. J. Qualey.

Personal Paragraphs.

Mr. Louis Burke, of North Platte, is in the city.

Mr. Thomas Wolfe, of David City, is at the Millard.

Mr. L. Herron of Talmadge, is at the Windsor.

Mr. W. C. Ferguson of Atlantic, Ia., is a Windsor guest.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Eberling, of Stanton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Skahan, of Malvern, Ia., were in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Strohm, of Beatrice, are at the Paxton.

Mr. J. D. Kilpatrick and family, of Beatrice, are at the Paxton.

Mr. Will Smith, United States marshal for Arizona, is at the Windsor.

Colonel W. P. Hepburn, of Clarinda, Ia., was an Omaha visitor yesterday.

Messrs. W. C. Hoag and John Barsley, of Fairmount, were in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. B. Waving, U. S. A., arrived last evening with his family, and they are stopping at the Paxton.

Mrs. C. M. Stobins and Mrs. H. L. Goodrich, wives of prominent business men, were in Omaha yesterday.

Mr. Edgar C. Snyder, of the Excelsior, will leave Saturday for an extended eastern tour. He will make a long stay at about New York City, and may remain permanently.

Mrs. Howe, of the county clerk's office, was caught in the act of receiving the other day. She did it officially, however, and Coroner Drexel was a party to the act. It was Mrs. Howe's first offense.

Will Doubtless Die.

Mrs. N. C. Nelson, the lady who fell from the second story of the boarding house at Seventh and Leavenworth streets, on Tuesday night, is in a very precarious condition and will doubtless die.

The New Bridge.

Work on the base of the pier in the center of the river is nearly completed, and in perhaps four weeks the second span will be put in. That portion of the structure already completed is receiving a coat of paint.

An Officer Arrested.

Robert F. Williams caused the arrest of Officer Hiney yesterday on the charge of assault and battery. He claims that Hiney needlessly struck him a time or two and he intends to make him suffer for it. That was granted a continuance until to-day.

Councilman Ford's Burglar.

The residence of Councilman Ford was visited Wednesday by a burglar who walked off with a couple of gold watches, one of which belonged to the father, and the other to his son. Both tickers were valued at about $200.

Horse Thief.

Ed. Ball was convicted yesterday in the police court of stealing a horse from William Fleming and was put under $800 bonds to answer to that charge before the district court. He had attempted to sell the horse for $7, and this led to the suspicion that the steed was stolen and caused his subsequent arrest.

A Pickpocket Bound Over.

Ed. Sampson, the pickpocket who lifted a purse from Mrs. Charles H. Dewey's pocket yesterday afternoon, plead guilty to the charge in the police court and gave as his excuse that he was needy. He was put under $300 bonds to appear before the district court.

Attacked by a Vicious Dog.

A little son of Mrs. H. H. Hough, residing at the corner of Howard and Thirtieth streets, was attacked yesterday by a vicious dog and badly bitten. The little fellow's lower lip was almost torn off, and the brute's fangs made a couple of ragged wounds in his cheek. Officer Hiney was called and promptly despatched the dog.

The Fair Premiums.

The Omaha Fair and Exposition association is sending its fourth annual premium list for the fair which is to be held commencing September 3 and continuing to the 8th inclusive. The list contains about one hundred pages and shows that premiums amounting to $20,000 will be given. The fair will be open to the world. Copies of the book may be had from the secretary, J. H. McShane, in this city.

The Sale Recorded.

A bill of sale was filed with the county clerk yesterday, conveying Louis Rosemund's interest in the furniture and fixtures of his hotel, restaurant and saloon at 1013 Farnam street. The consideration is $5,000 and Oscar Manger, to whom the property is conveyed, assumes two mortgages. One is for $1,000, given to Frederick King March 14, 1887. The other is for $4,000, given to Josephine Freckman October 28, 1887. The bill of sale is dated May 1, 1888, and Manger has been in possession since then.

Son of the Next President.

Mr. Russell B. Harrison, of Helena, Montana, is in the city, homeward bound. He attended the Chicago convention, where he saw his illustrious father nominated for president. Mr. Harrison called at The Bee's office yesterday, and presented this paper with a splendid lithograph portrait of General Benjamin Harrison executed on satin, pronouncing it a perfect likeness. He, naturally enough, expresses himself confident of the election of the republican nominee, but asked that his name be not quoted. He leaves to-day for Helena.

Important Deeds.

A quit-claim deed was filed for record yesterday by the Omaha & Grant Smelting and Refining company to the property where the Carter White Lead company's works are located to that firm. There are about three acres of ground included in the tract.

The Omaha & Grant Smelting and Refining company has also deeded a number of lots on lower Twentieth street to George Philler. The money consideration was $7,000.

The Carter White Lead company also deeded some parts of lots on Twentieth street near their works to George Philler. The consideration was $7,000.

All Over a Towel.

Sarah Bennett, the comely courtesan accused by her landlady, Mrs. Burelich, of stealing some clothes from her, was given a trial by jury in the police court yesterday. The only article found in Sarah's trunk that belonged to Mrs. Burelich was an old towel, and this, Sarah claimed, must have accidentally got in while she was hurriedly packing her trunk. The prosecuting attorney forgot to prove that the towel of fair occurred in Omaha and also failed to prove that the article taken was of any value. The jury returned a verdict of "not guilty." As the prosecution was very evidently prompted by spite, the costs of the suit were thrown upon Mrs. Burelich, the prosecuting witness.

Indignant Hatters.

There is a war threatened among the city hatters. Some time since all the distinctive dealers in chapeaux entered an agreement to close their establishments at 7 o'clock starting the middle of July and August, and for a time the agreement was religiously adhered to. But recently the store of Mr. Hudson, in the Millard, has been kept open after the prescribed hour, and the rest of the hatters are going to break the agreement. It is only proper to add, however, that the breach of the agreement is being made by a clerk, Mr. Hudson himself being absent from the city.

RUIN OR DEATH. A Child Leaves Home to Escape a Bruise's Impurities.

Henry Stork, of Tekamah, Bart county, Neb., who was one of the most wretched men in the state, and almost heart-broken, is now again happy in the possession of his daughter, Ellen, whom he thought was lost for all time, and a ruined young woman.

Mr. Stork inserted a personal something like the following in The Bee a little over a week ago: "Ellen Josephine Stork ran away from her home, June 25, at Tekamah, Neb., about noon, and the last seen of her was at Blair, Neb." After describing her clothing to the minutest detail the following description was given of the girl herself and the reward offered: She is five feet five inches high and weighs 115 lbs.; dark brown hair and done up, at the time she left, in a twist upon the top of her head, combed down on forehead and laid in four or five loops; large, dark brown, intelligent eyes, clear cut features, dark complexion, nearly fifteen years old, but would be taken for eighteen. Her parents know not why she ran away and would be glad to hear from her mother. A $100 reward will be given for her return to her parents. If she should meet the eyes of our daughter Ellen, will she come home or let us know where she is? Your mother's heart is nearly broken. Come home, Henry Stork, Tekamah, Bart county, Neb.

Nothing was heard as the result of the above advertisement and the diligent search of the found father and mother, when the welcome news came that the daughter was found and was at Red Oak, Iowa. Mr. Stork reached that city Monday evening and found his daughter. Tuesday he addressed the following letter to the Bee:

RED OAK, Ia., July 10.—To the Editor of THE OMAHA BEE.—Sir: By the assistance of the large circulation of your paper I found my daughter, Ellen Josephine Stork.

J. S. Cook, an officer of Red Oak, Iowa, after reading the notice in The Omaha Bee, and with the assistance of one George Runion, a hotel man of Red Oak, discovered the whereabouts of my daughter. She was working for a respectable and esteemed farmer by the name of J. H. Taylor, two miles west of Red Oak. I find my daughter well and in good hands, my worst fears not being realized, and will start on my way July 11 with her. Ever yours, most gratefully, HENRY STORK.

Mr. Stork arrived in this city Wednesday, now on his way home with his daughter. She is a stout, plain looking German girl, and from all appearance quite intelligent. She would be taken by the casual observer to be twenty years old, although her father asserts positively that she is not yet fifteen.

The reason she gave her father for leaving home was to save her life. This led to further investigation and the child's mother told her father that Charles Smeltzer had made indecent proposals to her, had attempted to carry out his vile desires by violence, and when she threatened to tell her parents he swore to her that if she ever told of his advances to her he would kill her. Smeltzer is a man who has been working on Stork's farm and living in his family since a year ago last October. He is about twenty-two years old and is a widower. He is a stout robust man and a good farm hand, and on all outward appearances was very friendly with the children in the Stork family. He had been in the family since the young girl, his would-be victim, was a child and her parents never dreamed of any such actions on his part toward the girl. She stated to her father that his threats upon her life were so terrible that she would remain about the same house with him, even though she did not relieve her mind of the burden that was upon it and for her own personal safety and for her life she concluded to leave home while he was there.

Mr. Stork left for Tekamah Wednesday in the company of his child and was horrified when he heard her story and learned for the first time that the man whom he has befriended for almost two years would thus attempt to ruin his family in this brutal and degraded manner. He stated before leaving that he would swear out a warrant for Smeltzer's arrest on the charge of assault with intent to commit murder. He will spare no money to have the wretch punished to the fullest extent of the law.

HE IS A MASHER. H. H. Wandell and His Paramour Pleading from a Deserted Husband.

Almost a year ago an attractive-looking young man by the name of H. H. Wandell came to this city, and after being in the employ of W. G. Albright & Co. for some time was located at Albright's at their agent. He introduced into Albright and Sons' Omaha office a pretty young woman whom he called Mrs. Wandell. During the winter season they were among the leaders, and as Mr. Wandell's salary was very generous one, they were able to entertain in a great deal themselves, and gave several very pleasant parties. It is needless to say that their attractive and congenial manners won for them many friends and their sudden disappearance last Saturday has caused a great commotion in the land. That day Mr. Wandell announced to his friends that he had to leave and go to Cheyenne on some special business. He took his "wife" with him on the trip, and the next day two strangers appeared at Albright and made inquiries for Mr. Wandell. They were told that he and his wife had left the evening before for Cheyenne and would not return for some days. The man who it is known that they were from Illinois and that one of them was the husband of the woman Wandell had been living with and the other was a constable who had the papers in his possession for Wandell's arrest. As soon as the constable learned that the man and the couple had gone west they also made that part of the country the object of their search. The lovers, however, that they were being followed and their heads were turned, and they gave it out that they were leaving that city to go to Denver. Instead of going to Denver, they started in their mad race, and within the past few days Wandell has packed his household effects at Albright, and with his bird has flown, while the real husband is probably searching for some days in Denver for the wife of his bosom. The husband did not give up his name, but stated that his wife had left him to go with Wandell, and that ever since that time she has been looking for her and was not able to locate her until a few days ago. He will probably return to this city the last of this week and take up his abode in his mad search. The last heard of Wandell was that he was going to Norfolk, where he formerly lived. Albright says that with the exception of some inaccuracies there is nothing wrong with Wandell's accounts.

The UNION PACIFIC is the only road running through the famous Alpine Tunnel, 11,000 feet above sea level.

BOOK TO MEN, FREE, Upon Private, Special or Nervous Diseases, Impotency, Syphilis, Gleet and Varicocele, with question list.

My Reasons for Writing a Book Upon Private, Special and Nervous Diseases. I have for many years made a specialty of diseases of the urinary and sexual organs, have become a recognized authority upon the subject, consequently I receive an immense number of letters from physicians and afflicted persons, asking my opinion and advice upon individual cases. For the benefit of such persons, I have written a book, giving a general description of the most common diseases and conditions, my treatment, success, advice, etc. After reading it, persons will have a clearer idea of their condition and can write me more intelligently and to the point. It will therefore be seen that our object in writing these pages is not to furnish reading matter to a class of persons who read out of mere idle curiosity, but for the benefit of the many who are suffering to a greater or less degree from diseases, or the effects of diseases or abuses, of the sexual or urinary organs. Not a day passes but we receive many calls or letters from persons suffering from this class of diseases, or their sequel. Many of them are ignorant of the cause of the difficulty that has wrecked their constitutions, thrown a cloud over their bright prospects and shortened their days.

SURGERY. Surgical operations for the cure of Hare Lip, Club Feet, Tumors, Cancers, Fistula, Cataract, Strabismus (Cross Eyes), Varicocele, Inverted Nails, Wens and Deformities of the Human Body performed in the most scientific manner.

We treat Chronic Diseases of the Lungs, Heart, Head, Blood, Skin, Scalp, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder, Nerves, Bones, etc., as Paralysis, Epilepsy, (Fits), Scrofula Bright's Disease, Tape Worm, Ulcers or Fever Sores, Dyspepsia or Gastritis, Baldness, Eczema, etc.

DISEASES OF WOMEN. Treated carefully, skillfully and scientifically by the latest and most approved methods. WRITE FOR BOOK ON DISEASES OF WOMEN, FREE. Dr. McMenamy has for years devoted a large portion of his time to the study and treatment of these diseases, and has spent neither time nor money to perfect himself, and is fully supplied with every instrument, appliance and remedy of value in this department of Medicine and Surgery.

EYE AND EAR DEPARTMENT. We claim superiority over any oculist or aurist in the west, and the thousands whom we have cured, after others have failed, substantiate our claims. To those all clad with Eye and Ear Diseases, we simply say call and consult us, get a scientific opinion, then visit whom you like, and if you are an intelligent person you will return to us for treatment and cure.

Our book, describing the Eye and Ear and their diseases, in plain language with numerous illustrations, are written for the benefit of patients and physicians who write us in regard to cases; by reading them carefully physician and patient will have a clear understanding and can describe cases to us more intelligently.
