Among the new institutions of this city is one that bids fair to be of great benefit to the merchants and bankers as well as all other financial institutions. It is the newly incorporated Commercial Directory company, which has evidently come to stay. Its incorporators are young and enterprising men who have the necessary qualifications to make a sure success of their undertaking. They come well recommended as business men and fully understand their business in all its branches. They propose to get up and place in the hands of the retail merchants a report of the credit standing of each and every consumer in the county. The retailers should be protected as well as the jobber and by the use of their work and monthly reports he is. Call at 1618 California street and see the ladies' friend. A Brilliant Wedding at Her Father's Residence at Montrose, N. J. New York Journal, July 8: The country residence of Colonel Henry Barton Beecher, son of the late Henry Ward Beecher, on Center street, Montrose, N. J., was the scene of a brilliant wedding yesterday at noon. Miss Margaret Humphrey Beecher, daughter of Colonel Beecher, known to her friends as Daisy Beecher, was the bride, and Arthur White, son of Congressman S. V. White, of Brooklyn, was the groom. Nearly four hundred people of social prominence in New York and Brooklyn went to Montrose in special trains to witness the ceremony, and many well-known people of Newark and the Oranges were present. The house was handsomely decorated with flowers and plants, and in one corner of the spacious and elegantly furnished parlors was a magnificent floral bow. The bridesmaids were Miss Kate Beecher, sister of the bride; Miss Helen White, daughter of the groom; Miss Camille Gowans, of Buffalo; Miss Campbell, of East Orange; Miss Scoville, of Stamford, Conn.; and Miss Grace Seokomb, of New York. Henry Ward Beecher, brother of the bride, was best man, and the ushers were Frederick Wallace, of New Haven; David Morris, of Minneapolis; Minnie Samuel Walker, of Chicago; Edwin Allen, of St. Louis; Thomas Ripley, of New York; and Clayton Brigham, of Savannah, Ga. The entry of the bride party was a novel one. Shortly after 2:30 o'clock the party passed down the staircase, headed by the bridesmaids, who were followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her father. At the foot of the stairs were the groom, best man and ushers, formed in two lines and holding hands of brides. They then passed through the line and into the parlors, followed by the groom, best man and ushers. The young couple took positions under the floral bow and the ceremony was performed according to the Episcopal ritual, by Rev. Charles A. Hall, rector of Holy Trinity church, Brooklyn, who conducted the services at the funeral of the bride's grandfather, the late Henry Ward Beecher. After the ceremony a reception was held, a wedding breakfast was served, and the numerous costly and magnificent presents were shown. Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. White left for an extended wedding tour. On their return they will reside in Tarrytown.

Persons unable to visit may be treated at home by correspondence. All communications confidential. Medicines or instruments sent by mail or express, securely packed, no marks to indicate contents or sender. One personal interview preferred. Call and consult us or send history of your case, and we will send in plain wrapper, our BOOK TO MEN, FREE, Upon Private, Special or Nervous Diseases, Impotency, Syphilis, Gleet and Varicocele, with a question list. My Reasons for Writing a Book Upon Private, Special and Nervous Diseases. I have for many years made a specialty of diseases of the urinary and sexual organs, have become a recognized authority upon the subject, consequently I receive an immense number of letters from physicians and afflicted persons, asking my opinion and advice upon individual cases. For the benefit of such persons, I have written a book, giving a general description of the most common diseases and conditions, my treatment, success, advice, etc. After reading it, persons will have a clearer idea of their condition and can write me more intelligently and to the point. It will therefore be seen that our object in writing these pages is not to furnish reading matter to a class of persons who read out of mere idle curiosity, but for the benefit of the many who are suffering to a greater or less degree from diseases, or the effects of diseases or abuses, of the sexual or urinary organs. Not a day passes but we receive many calls or letters from persons suffering from this class of diseases, or their sequel. Many of them are ignorant of the cause of the difficulty that has wrecked their constitutions, thrown a cloud over their bright prospects and is shortening their days.
