Colder Hensen's Murderous Assault and Dramatic Suicide.

HIS FIANCEE HAD JILTED HIM.

He Attempts to Shoot Her in a Thirteenth Street Car and Ends His Sorrow By Taking a Dose of Poison.

A Soldier Lover Suicides.

"Harry, I'm done for. I'm good for life in the pen."

The speaker was Christopher Hensen, a handsome young soldier who is a field musician at Fort Omaha.

From former conversations with her he knows that this was symbolic of an end of their engagement.

HE ATTEMPTED TO SHOOT.

His agitation paralyzed his strength and he was unable to pull the trigger.

HE RELATED THE FACTS TO YOUNG BUTLER.

They happened to meet her on Fourteenth and Douglas, and she very willingly promised to do what she could to suppress the facts about the attempted murder in the car.

HE STOPPED BY THE POLICE.

On examining his left hand they found in the palm the remains of a powder.

DEAR HARRY: I thank you very much for the note which you will see by this fix.

THE COUNTY'S FIVE FATHERS

The Business They Transacted at Yesterday's Meeting.

THE SHERIFF'S SIDE MONEY.

The Commissioner's Think the Tax Payers Should Have a Share of Some of the Perquisites Coming Mr. Coburn's Way.

The Commissioner's Meeting.

The county commissioners yesterday approved the action of County Clerk Koche in employing extra help on the assessment books, but said he must not do so any more.

Mr. D. L. Shane presented his resignation as general superintendent of the new county hospital. His letter stated that his private business (he is a contractor and builder) is increasing so that he feels that he cannot do justice to the tax payers. The resignation was referred to the committee on construction.

The committee on finance reported in the findings of Mr. J. J. Points, who examined the reports of the county officers, and the committee report was adopted.

They approve the financial statement of the register of deeds except an item of $100 in February paid to S. S. Auchmoody. They said they are unable to justify the employment and the payment of two deputies at the same time. They recommended that the register "be authorized to employ at a monthly salary of not more than $60 such additional assistants as may be deemed necessary to perform efficiently such work as is not provided for. They are also of the opinion that when there are appropriations for certified copies of records in the office of the register, such copies should be made by the register or his assistants, that they should be charged for as provided by law and that the fees should be included in the register's report.

The findings in the county clerk's report were approved, and in the matter of making copies of records the same opinion was expressed as to the penalty to be levied on the committee and important changes in the conduct of the sheriff's office, and a brief resume of the situation will make the import of their recommendations clear. The sheriff's report indicated about $2,500 in fees as on the books and uncollected. The sheriff is allowed $4 a day by the state for conveying prisoners to the penitentiary to Lincoln school, and he has been taking such payments as part of the perquisites of the office. He has made a contract with Stryker county, which has no jail of its own, to board and lodge that county's prisoners at $1 per day per man. He has an arrangement to hold prisoners for the United States courts at 70 cents per day and for transient prisoners jailed here en route to other points be charged $1. For the eight months ending July 31, 1888, the sheriff received from these sources nearly $2,300, and he has treated the money as one of the perquisites of the office. The committee think he should pay something for the use of the county jail and the services of jailer and guards. They want the sheriff to divide, and their idea for the future is that the contracts for keeping such prisoners be made with the county, which will make the sheriff an allowance for board. He is now allowed 35 cents for feeding the prisoners, clear, as he is a division of half and half is suggested. The sheriff has been charging a mileage of 10 cents per mile for taking prisoners to Lincoln, and Examiner Points raised the question whether he was entitled to more than five cents per mile. The law is vague, saying that he shall charge the same as in other localities.

The committee recommended that the sheriff be notified that in the future he will be expected as far as practicable, to collect official fees in advance, and when that is impossible, that he must require security for their payment; also that he will be held responsible for fees remaining uncollected at the close of his term. The recommendation does not include fees due from the city or county, but the committee think the sheriff has no legal or moral right to impose upon the county the burden of paying sheriff's costs in civil cases. They also are of the opinion that he shall per day paid the sheriff by the state for taking prisoners to the penitentiary and children to the reform school are fees of the sheriff's office and should be reported as such to the commissioners. The committee recommend that for 1888-79 up to date, the county charge the sheriff's fees for taking prisoners to the penitentiary and children to the reform school, and for the balance of the amounts received by him for boarding, lodging and guarding United States prisoners.

FOR CHARITY'S SAKE.

A Grand Fair in October to Raise Funds.

The Hebrew benevolent society, an institution which has done out charity for the last eight or ten years, spending many thousands of dollars, will have its eighth year by giving a fair the latter part of October. To appreciate the extent of the work of this association it is only necessary to state that $800 were expended in the four months ending July 1. The society helps the needy without distinction as to nationality, creed, or religion, who are moving spirits at the organization, are Messrs. B. Newman, Isaac Oberfelder, Meyer Hoffman, Ferdinand and Charles A. Deitz, Charles Bloom, who have been instructed to select committees and make other arrangements for the proposed fair. The latter will be given on a large scale, and the society will be exerted to insure its success.

Fire and Police.

At the meeting of the fire and police commissioners, last evening, Chief Galligan, of the fire department, Theodore Grebe, captain of No. 2 hose company, and George Windham, captain of chemical No. 3, were each granted ten days' leave of absence to attend the chiefs' convention at Minneapolis. Officer John F. Byrnes was granted seven days' absence. Officer James Brady was fined two days' pay for smoking a cigar while on duty. Chief Charles Bloom was fined two days' pay for sitting in front of a saloon and talking to a crowd of men.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday by Judge Shields:

Charles J. Popper, Omaha, 25; Mary Winn, Plattsmouth, 20; William M. Magee, Omaha, 29; Fanny V. Shutt, Omaha, 19.

BONDED WAREHOUSES

Packed in Omaha.

A desire having been expressed by the packers at South Omaha to have such commercial regulations made that they may issue warehouse receipts on the meats stored in their big refrigerated buildings, a meeting of the board of trade will soon be held to issue the necessary regulations. The plan will be to make bonded warehouses of the storing places. Certificates will be issued, which may be bought and sold like other warehouse receipts or used for collateral. The Omaha inspection of meats is accepted by certain dealers as all sufficient, and the establishment of a bonded warehouse system will be another important step in the commercial progress of the city.

An Actor's Present.

Mr. J. F. O'Neill, the popular actor at the People's theater who is filling a four months' engagement, received from Prof. Ed. Miller, one of his admirers, an elegant amethyst ring and diamond shirt stud last evening, as an evidence of Mr. Miller's appreciation of the young artist's talent as a comedian.
