

IN THE MOUNTAINS' SHADOWS.

The Beautiful and Romantic Surroundings of Idaho's Capital.

ARCHITECTS OF HER GREATNESS.

Irrigation and Cultivation of the Land—The Mining Regions—The Exposition—Hot Springs—The Resolute Future.

Boise the Beautiful. Approaching Boise City, the traveler crosses the sage brush plains, and stands at last on the bluff overlooking the valley, the river and the city.

Approaching Boise City, the traveler crosses the sage brush plains, and stands at last on the bluff overlooking the valley, the river and the city. Let him once behold, under the clear sunlight of Idaho, the giant mountains as they form a massive background to the city's fair outline, and a scene of beauty will be stamped upon his memory never to be effaced.

The Idaho Central connects Boise City with the Oregon Short Line at Nampa. Two trains run daily, meeting trains on the main line. No. 1 leaves Nampa at 1 p. m., after the arrival of trains on the main line from east and west, and arrives at Boise City at 2 p. m.

The Idaho Central depot is beautifully located on the bluffs overlooking Boise Valley, one mile south of the city. The grounds have been planted as South Boise, and besides the railway buildings, an eating house and several warehouses are located there.

BOISE'S YOUNG BUSINESS MEN. The Epstein and Logan firms is the youngest of Boise's general merchandise concerns as at present constituted.

The Boise river is depended upon to furnish water to irrigate half a million acres of land. The land lies south of the river; but little is yet under cultivation, and about half of it still held by the government, subject to entry by actual settlers.

THE BOISE CITY NATIONAL BANK, under the excellent management of Mr. A. E. Hoff, has in two years attained the front rank in Idaho's banking business.

The largest owner of Boise City real estate is Mr. John B. Broadbent, the eminent jeweler. Mr. Broadbent has familiarized himself with the progress and prospects of all the mountain cities, and after most careful examination became satisfied that Boise would in the end show the greatest stability and the steadiest growth.

The firm of F. R. Coffin & Bro., dealers in hardware and agricultural implements, whose headquarters occupy one of the best business corners in the center of Boise, is a fine example of the management of Frank H. Coffin, who came out from Iowa about twenty years ago.

President Pinney was formerly mayor, and has been a persistent, faithful and successful leader in almost every enterprise for the advancement of the city. He is engaged in the book and stationery business under style of James A. Pinney & Co.

Charles A. Clark is superintendent of the Bradstreet Mercantile agency for Idaho. Hon. R. Z. Johnson is attorney-general.

owned by a single individual; has probably the largest flouring mill in Idaho; owns a choice tract of nearly every acre of which has been redeemed from the desert and now blossoms like a garden; is president of the Boise City Electric Light company, and in other ways puts his active brain to the best use.

People who visit Mr. D. Spiegel's mercantile establishment, covering over 2,500 square feet of floor room, can hardly realize that it is but a brief period since all he owned could have been piled on a hand-cart.

Persons removing to Boise City and desiring to send property in advance can safely place their goods in the care of Mr. N. Kimball, a trustworthy dealer, who put in three of his best years in the service of his country, is apt to be a trustworthy man anywhere.

THE IDAHO CENTRAL. The Idaho central connects Boise City with the Oregon Short Line at Nampa. Two trains run daily, meeting trains on the main line.

The Idaho Central depot is beautifully located on the bluffs overlooking Boise Valley, one mile south of the city. The grounds have been planted as South Boise, and besides the railway buildings, an eating house and several warehouses are located there.

BOISE'S YOUNG BUSINESS MEN. The Epstein and Logan firms is the youngest of Boise's general merchandise concerns as at present constituted.

The Boise river is depended upon to furnish water to irrigate half a million acres of land. The land lies south of the river; but little is yet under cultivation, and about half of it still held by the government, subject to entry by actual settlers.

THE BOISE CITY NATIONAL BANK, under the excellent management of Mr. A. E. Hoff, has in two years attained the front rank in Idaho's banking business.

The largest owner of Boise City real estate is Mr. John B. Broadbent, the eminent jeweler. Mr. Broadbent has familiarized himself with the progress and prospects of all the mountain cities, and after most careful examination became satisfied that Boise would in the end show the greatest stability and the steadiest growth.

The firm of F. R. Coffin & Bro., dealers in hardware and agricultural implements, whose headquarters occupy one of the best business corners in the center of Boise, is a fine example of the management of Frank H. Coffin, who came out from Iowa about twenty years ago.

President Pinney was formerly mayor, and has been a persistent, faithful and successful leader in almost every enterprise for the advancement of the city. He is engaged in the book and stationery business under style of James A. Pinney & Co.

Charles A. Clark is superintendent of the Bradstreet Mercantile agency for Idaho. Hon. R. Z. Johnson is attorney-general.

Charles A. Clark is superintendent of the Bradstreet Mercantile agency for Idaho. Hon. R. Z. Johnson is attorney-general.

regation, owing to a bar being formed in front of the headgate to my ditch at high water, I raised forty tons of red clover hay, I sold 75,000 pounds (1,250 bushels) of onions from two acres of land. Potatoes only gave me 200 bushels to the acre. I have raised 1,000 bushels on two acres. I have raised 113 bushels of corn on one acre; wheat from forty to sixty bushels; oats, 100 to 150 bushels; carrots and turnips equally good in proportion with potatoes.

Prunes, the Germans say, grow better than in their own country. Apples, peaches, pears, apricots, cherries do as well, if not better, than in the most favored spots of California.

Persons removing to Boise City and desiring to send property in advance can safely place their goods in the care of Mr. N. Kimball, a trustworthy dealer, who put in three of his best years in the service of his country, is apt to be a trustworthy man anywhere.

THE IDAHO CENTRAL. The Idaho central connects Boise City with the Oregon Short Line at Nampa. Two trains run daily, meeting trains on the main line.

The Idaho Central depot is beautifully located on the bluffs overlooking Boise Valley, one mile south of the city. The grounds have been planted as South Boise, and besides the railway buildings, an eating house and several warehouses are located there.

BOISE'S YOUNG BUSINESS MEN. The Epstein and Logan firms is the youngest of Boise's general merchandise concerns as at present constituted.

The Boise river is depended upon to furnish water to irrigate half a million acres of land. The land lies south of the river; but little is yet under cultivation, and about half of it still held by the government, subject to entry by actual settlers.

THE BOISE CITY NATIONAL BANK, under the excellent management of Mr. A. E. Hoff, has in two years attained the front rank in Idaho's banking business.

The largest owner of Boise City real estate is Mr. John B. Broadbent, the eminent jeweler. Mr. Broadbent has familiarized himself with the progress and prospects of all the mountain cities, and after most careful examination became satisfied that Boise would in the end show the greatest stability and the steadiest growth.

The firm of F. R. Coffin & Bro., dealers in hardware and agricultural implements, whose headquarters occupy one of the best business corners in the center of Boise, is a fine example of the management of Frank H. Coffin, who came out from Iowa about twenty years ago.

President Pinney was formerly mayor, and has been a persistent, faithful and successful leader in almost every enterprise for the advancement of the city. He is engaged in the book and stationery business under style of James A. Pinney & Co.

Charles A. Clark is superintendent of the Bradstreet Mercantile agency for Idaho. Hon. R. Z. Johnson is attorney-general.

Charles A. Clark is superintendent of the Bradstreet Mercantile agency for Idaho. Hon. R. Z. Johnson is attorney-general.

regation, owing to a bar being formed in front of the headgate to my ditch at high water, I raised forty tons of red clover hay, I sold 75,000 pounds (1,250 bushels) of onions from two acres of land. Potatoes only gave me 200 bushels to the acre. I have raised 1,000 bushels on two acres. I have raised 113 bushels of corn on one acre; wheat from forty to sixty bushels; oats, 100 to 150 bushels; carrots and turnips equally good in proportion with potatoes.

Prunes, the Germans say, grow better than in their own country. Apples, peaches, pears, apricots, cherries do as well, if not better, than in the most favored spots of California.

Persons removing to Boise City and desiring to send property in advance can safely place their goods in the care of Mr. N. Kimball, a trustworthy dealer, who put in three of his best years in the service of his country, is apt to be a trustworthy man anywhere.

THE IDAHO CENTRAL. The Idaho central connects Boise City with the Oregon Short Line at Nampa. Two trains run daily, meeting trains on the main line.

The Idaho Central depot is beautifully located on the bluffs overlooking Boise Valley, one mile south of the city. The grounds have been planted as South Boise, and besides the railway buildings, an eating house and several warehouses are located there.

BOISE'S YOUNG BUSINESS MEN. The Epstein and Logan firms is the youngest of Boise's general merchandise concerns as at present constituted.

The Boise river is depended upon to furnish water to irrigate half a million acres of land. The land lies south of the river; but little is yet under cultivation, and about half of it still held by the government, subject to entry by actual settlers.

THE BOISE CITY NATIONAL BANK, under the excellent management of Mr. A. E. Hoff, has in two years attained the front rank in Idaho's banking business.

The largest owner of Boise City real estate is Mr. John B. Broadbent, the eminent jeweler. Mr. Broadbent has familiarized himself with the progress and prospects of all the mountain cities, and after most careful examination became satisfied that Boise would in the end show the greatest stability and the steadiest growth.

The firm of F. R. Coffin & Bro., dealers in hardware and agricultural implements, whose headquarters occupy one of the best business corners in the center of Boise, is a fine example of the management of Frank H. Coffin, who came out from Iowa about twenty years ago.

President Pinney was formerly mayor, and has been a persistent, faithful and successful leader in almost every enterprise for the advancement of the city. He is engaged in the book and stationery business under style of James A. Pinney & Co.

Charles A. Clark is superintendent of the Bradstreet Mercantile agency for Idaho. Hon. R. Z. Johnson is attorney-general.

Charles A. Clark is superintendent of the Bradstreet Mercantile agency for Idaho. Hon. R. Z. Johnson is attorney-general.

made out. An example of this can be seen from the fact that, Boggs' addition to this city, which, in last year's lists required only one line, requires in this year's lists over one thousand two hundred lines. A number of such increases are found, and the best show entries of over fifty-eight thousand pieces of property this year while a year ago there were not over 50,000.

Drink Malt at soda fountain. Happiness. The foundation of all happiness is health. A man with an imperfect digestion may be a millionaire, may be the husband of an angel and the father of half a dozen cherubs, and yet be miserable if he be troubled with dyspepsia, or any of the disorders arising from imperfect digestion or a sluggish liver.

THREE IMPORTANT INDUSTRIES. How They Are Striving to Satisfy Demands on Them. It has been reported and on reliable authority that Stors & Iler will, before fall, begin the erection of a new brewery on Sherman avenue, in the vicinity of the Omaha Milling and Elevator company's building, two blocks north of Nicholas street.

Drink Malt at soda fountain. Happiness. The foundation of all happiness is health. A man with an imperfect digestion may be a millionaire, may be the husband of an angel and the father of half a dozen cherubs, and yet be miserable if he be troubled with dyspepsia, or any of the disorders arising from imperfect digestion or a sluggish liver.

A MURDEROUS ATTACK. Two Polish laborers, named Michael Sarofin and Joseph Cosmerski, while engaged in paving Leavenworth street near Twentieth yesterday afternoon, had a slight misunderstanding over some trivial matter and Cosmerski became perfectly insano with anger. Seizing a spade he struck Sarofin a number of wicked blows, any one of which would have crushed his skull had they hit the top of his head where they were aimed.

Teeth that masticate well. Are a pleasing index of a man's health. But unless from all tartar they're speedily freed. With SOZODONT best of all things for the teeth. You'll never have good ones your lips bestow.

Leland Hotel, Chicago, for comfort. THE REALTY MARKET. Instruments Pinned on Record During Yesterday.

Table with columns for instrument number, description, and value. Total value listed as $34,768.

Table listing building permits issued Monday, including descriptions like 'Booster, one-story brick residence' and their respective values.

Advertisement for 'FULL WEIGHT PURE' and 'CREAM' products, featuring a large illustration of a product container and descriptive text.

DIAMONDS

Watches and Diamonds Found in Tea and Coffee--A Novel Way of Introducing Goods.

The names of all persons finding diamonds, watches, etc., are added to this list daily. The Overland Tea company of St. Francisco, have refitted the steamer, 220 S. 14th St., near Farnam, Omaha, and in order to introduce their goods, this company put for 60 days, souvenirs in every can of tea and coffee sold as solid gold, silver and nickel watches, also genuine diamonds, in solid gold setting; also money, and many other articles of less value.

Mrs. Johnson, Nineteenth street, silver castor; Mrs. Daisy Hamber, Georgia avenue, ladies' chateleine watch; Miss Nelson, South Nineteenth street, silver sugar bowl; Mrs. Monack, South Nineteenth street, diamond ring; Mrs. Voss, Twenty-fourth street, silver berry stand; Charles W. Nelson, Douglas street, $50 in gold coin; P. Hermanson, milliner, Cuming street, silver sugar bowl; Mrs. Wood, Twenty-sixth and Capitol avenue, can money; Robert Sundstrum, Twenty-sixth street, gent's hunting case gold watch in tea; Mrs. Pickrel, Howard street, silver castor; Mrs. Stern, Leavenworth street, can money; Mrs. E. H. Pattison, mail order, Council Bluffs, diamond ring; Harry E. Larson, Farnam street, cluster diamond ring; William Steinhaus, Paxton building, can money, diamond ring and silver sugar bowl; N. P. Sackett, South Nineteenth street, diamond ring; Nelly Dawson, Council Bluffs, silver sugar bowl; I. S. Lozier, Leavenworth street, can money; Arthur Marshall, California street, lady's hunting case gold watch; Mrs. Goddell, Hamilton street, silver pickle stand; Miss A. Richardson, Farnam street, silver sugar bowl; Mrs. Nellig, Douglas street, silver cake basket; Mrs. Johnson, South Nineteenth street, can money; R. H. Davis, Burdette street, diamond ring; W. E. B. Pierce, Grace street, diamond ring and can money; J. Whipple, Webster street, silver butter dish; Mrs. N. E. Wallace, Howard street, silver sugar bowl; R. W. Innes, Nicholas street, silver cup; D. L. McAndrew, corner Fifteenth and Jones, diamond ring; Edward Colter, St. Mary's avenue, $10 in gold coin.

Chicago, Kansas & Nebraska. To be sure any one with each order received by us for any boxes, accompanied with $1.00, will send the purchaser our written guarantee of the genuineness of the diamonds, and effect a cure. Guarantees issued only by C. F. GOODMAN, Druggist, Sole Agent, 1110 Farnam street, Omaha, Neb.

Advertisement for 'How Many Babies' featuring 'RIDGE'S FOOD' and 'UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME'. Includes text about child nutrition and educational opportunities.

Advertisement for 'FREEHOLD INSTITUTE' and 'Morgan Park Military Academy'. Promotes military-style education and physical training for young men.

Advertisement for 'CHICAGO FEMALE COLLEGE'. Offers a liberal education for women in various fields of study.

Advertisement for 'THE PEPPERILL MILITARY ACADEMY'. Focuses on military training and discipline for young men.

Advertisement for 'WATERBURY'S' featuring 'WATERBURY'S' and 'WATERBURY'S' products. Includes a large illustration of a man and descriptive text.

Advertisement for 'Health is Wealth!' featuring 'WATERBURY'S' and 'WATERBURY'S' products. Emphasizes the importance of health and vitality.

Advertisement for 'CHICAGO, KANSAS & NEBRASKA' featuring 'WATERBURY'S' and 'WATERBURY'S' products. Promotes the quality and variety of goods available.

Advertisement for 'The Famous Albert Lott Route' featuring 'WATERBURY'S' and 'WATERBURY'S' products. Highlights the reliability and service of the route.

Advertisement for 'How Many Babies' featuring 'RIDGE'S FOOD' and 'UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME'. Includes text about child nutrition and educational opportunities.

Advertisement for 'FREEHOLD INSTITUTE' and 'Morgan Park Military Academy'. Promotes military-style education and physical training for young men.

Advertisement for 'CHICAGO FEMALE COLLEGE'. Offers a liberal education for women in various fields of study.