Des Moines 9, Omaha 3.

Des Moines, Ia., August 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Probably fifteen hundred persons witnessed the very interesting game of ball between the Des Moines and Omaha teams to-day.

Shaffer was in the box for the visitors, being well backed up by Nagle. Cushman and Traffley held the points for Des Moines.

Cusick, who is apparently snowed in at Milwaukee, was the pitcher of the St. Paul team, officiated as umpire and was the admiration of all for his splendid work in this difficult position.

Burns opened the run getting in the first inning by hitting for a single, stealing second and third on a passed ball and crossing the plate on Crooks' long fly out into right field.

Annis in the mean while flying out to left and Wilson falling to the ground. They got no more runs till the fifth inning, when after two hands were out, O'Connell got first on an error of Alvord.

Shaffer then went to bat and sent a hot one over Cushman's head, which Macaulay got and threw to first. Stearns concluded the side was retired and held the ball while O'Connell and Conroy scored.

The locals started the third inning by Van Dyke getting a base on balls. Traffley fouled out, and Cushman got a single. Shaffer got a base on balls, and Van Dyke scored on Quinn's safe hit.

The bases were full, when Stearns came to bat and lined out a home run in right field and cleared the bases. In the most effective hit that has been made on these grounds, Holiday flew out to left and Macaulay got a base on an error of Crooks, but was cut out at second on Alvord's sacrifice.

In the sixth a single by Cushman and a triple by Shaffer netted a run. In the seventh Stearns got a life on an error, took second and third on a passed ball, scored on a long foul fly, and the lights. Traffley knocked out a double and scored on Shaffer's triple.

Burns accepted seven chances in left field and got all of them, which made the double and catch were made by Annis in center. Shaffer for the locals did good work in right field with four put outs and an assist. The score:

St. Paul, August 9, Chicago 7.

St. Paul, Aug. 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The home team again took the Maroons into camp today by reason of good stick work. Both pitchers were hit hard, but St. Paul was aided materially in its run getting by the ragged work of the opposing battery.

The visitors bunched their hits with errors in the innings when St. Paul made its run. Kelly was the cause of the error on a four base drive with two men on bases. He also felled finely, as did Hanrahan and Nathan for the visitors, the latter also leading his side at the bat.

Kansas City 6, Sioux City 1.

SIoux CITY, Ia., August 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Sioux City again came within a hair's breadth of being shut out by the Kansas City visitors today. The visitors played a faultless game and the fielding of Long was magnificent. It contrasted sharply with the performance of Reclus, who played third base for Sioux City, and who accumulated three errors.

The Minneapolis Franchise.

MINNEAPOLIS, August 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A meeting of the general committee interested in the movement to buy the franchise in case the Minneapolis club went to Davenport was held this afternoon with a view to purchasing the Minneapolis club, or at least in assisting Mr. Gooding to run it during the remainder of the year. At the conclusion of a protracted discussion, it was decided that they could not meet Mr. Gooding's terms and the matter was finally abandoned. Mr. Gooding says that his offer was very liberal and that he was disappointed that it was not accepted. He says that the schedule will be played out as originally intended, Minneapolis playing Omaha on the home grounds Saturday.

foria Davis, and an unknown under the assumed name of Sherwood. The race was 100 yards for $2,000 a side. Sherwood, who is a noted eastern man, was backed by some Mankato would-be sports picked up for the occasion after much diplomatic negotiations. The race was held at the Hotel of the Bodega, and W. H. Tanner, held the stakes. About 90.00 was bet on the side. Davis got away last when the gun was fired, but at forty yards both men were evenly matched. Davis then made a spurt and won by six feet in ten seconds. Davis is a great runner and two years ago won the Sheffield handicap against all of the best men in England.

AMONG THE DUTCH.

A Royal Reception Accorded to the Holland Society. [Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] ROTTERDAM, August 9.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—The reception of the Holland society, extraordinary in the annals of Holland, was thoroughly American in conception and execution. From the moment the wharf was reached the steamer, decorated with Dutch and American flags, was saluted by all the outgoing and ingoing vessels among them the large steam yacht with a band of the Rotterdam national guards and the merchants, Jonkheer, Reinhold, S. M. Calish, of Amsterdam; Handelsblad and F. L. Pissuisse, of the Rotterdam. The band, came on board playing the "Star Spangled Banner" and a Dutch air. Every member of the Holland society wore the orange colors of the Holland flag and again with tigers. The American flag was at the fore and the Dutch at the stern. Everyone was in a most enthusiastic and patriotic humor. All the shipping in the harbor saluted and dipped colors. On the wharf were assembled the mayor of Rotterdam and other dignitaries who received the Americans with cheers. A special train took the visitors at once to Amsterdam. The Holland-American number over fifty and their families.

At Amsterdam.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] AMSTERDAM, August 9.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—There was a grand reception at the central station at Amsterdam to welcome the Holland society. The Dutch committee had twenty open banquets. The first was filled by the reception committee, the second by Van Sicken, Van Hoerhoe, and Dr. Suydam. Next came Baron Von Housen, his son Manning, Robert A. VanWick and the Herald correspondent. The procession was imposing. The small boys cheered, men waved their hats and girls waved their handkerchiefs. The dan was crowned as the guests arrived. At the Doelen hotel the American and Dutch flags were intertwined with the banner of the society, inscribed: "Eendelyk wordt een spuit een boom." The deepest interest is felt by the visitors, who seem astonished at the modernization of Amsterdam. Kalevalat sounds with American airs. Grand festivities have been arranged here. The Hague society resists at Amsterdam to-night.

THEY WILL NEVER SIGN.

WASHINGTON, August 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The reports of the impolitic and treacherous policy of the commissioners in treating with the Sioux at Standing Rock receive full confirmation here. It is learned that an officer from Fort Yates, who passed through Aberdeen last week, just after the first conference at which the treaty was privately expressed the opinion to a friend that the Indians would never sign the treaty unless different tactics were adopted. He also declared that Judge Wright, in his opening speech to the council, after defining the terms of the treaty, told the Indians that they must sign or the government would compensate, and employ soldiers to scatter them among the reservations in different parts of the west. The officer said that when this threat was made through the interpreter the chiefs manifested their anger by grunts and fierce gestures. The chief's angry words were not published, as the narrator told his friend that the commission insisted on inspecting all press dispatches sent out.

However, twenty-one men made 160 or over and fifty-five men made 150 or over, thus keeping the general average of all quite high. The weather was fair and the shooting at 500 yards considered the best ever made on this range. The following are the fourteen men with their totals:
