Judge Carson issued an order yesterday morning allowing the building at 101 Broadway to be used for business. The owners, Messrs. Bartelle & Yonkerman, promise not to violate the injunction against the building.

The Council Bluffs medical society has elected Dr. F. S. Thomas, president; Dr. H. H. Jennings, vice president; Dr. J. H. Cleaver, treasurer; Dr. J. P. White, secretary; Drs. C. H. Plum, C. W. Deeken and F. W. Houghton, board of censors.

Work is being pushed on the new buildings going up throughout the city. The new parochial school of the German Catholics, and the rectory of St. Francis Xavier's, are the most prominent.

Mr. Mitchell, of Omaha, is planning on building twenty-two houses on Avenue A, in Benson's addition. He proposes to build and sell on easy payments.

A number of the city's business men, as well as a congenial gentleman, and he will merit and doubtless receive a full share of the patronage in the line he represents.

The matrimonial market has been very quiet for the past few days. It may have been the result of the chilly weather, but a change is expected. There is considerable stock on the market, and dealers are preparing for an advance. It is predicted that there will be a heavy jump the forepart of the week.

Mrs. John G. Tipton was agreeably surprised by a small party of friends Thursday evening on the occasion of her birthday. The evening was enjoyably spent in social games and conversation, when choice refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted at the supper table to find a pair of $20 gold pieces under a plate, a gift from her husband.

Three bomb-proof guzzlers of red-hot anti-prohibition submitted their whisky-soaked frames for magisterial inspection in police court yesterday morning. The court regarded their inflated countenances with a disapproving eye, and then chucked down $8.10 opposite the names of Ed Helmes, J. Kaiser and W. N. Henning.

G. T. Vaughn, of Shenandoah, has arrived in the city with his standard bred trotting stallion, Brit, and is now working him at Union park, preparatory to starting out for the fall campaign. This handsome horse is four years old, and trotted in 2:32 in his two-year-old form. He has taken several first prizes in the show ring, and his owner hopes to give a fast mark this season.

Billy Galvin and "Dandy" Dunn, two well known characters of this city, became involved in a little argument yesterday afternoon regarding the prohibition movement, and "Dandy's" argument struck Billy just under the left eye, drawing the claret, and considerably discolored the optic. William very accommodatingly laid down, and his opponent coolly walked away. A crowd quickly assembled, but Galvin said he had run against a lamp post, and was allowed to "make a steak." The policeman was four miles away at the other end of his beat.

COUNCIL BLUFFS CONCERNS.

The New Pipe Organ Completed For St. Francis Catholic Church. UNHAPPY PAIRS IN COURT.

Memorial Service For Sheridan—A Bluffs' Boy's Good Fortune—A Big Deal in Real Estate—Personal Mention.

What it Means. The item which appeared in THE BEE of a few days ago of a sale of Council Bluffs property to a party of Omaha capitalists means much more than appears upon its face.

The purchase was made by a number of Omaha capitalists, represented by Hon. Gay C. Barton, of the Omaha Smelting works, and included all of the unsold lots (100) in Benson's first addition to Council Bluffs.

The negotiations were conducted on the part of Mr. Barton by his representative, C. J. Colby, and the sale was made by Benson & Shepherd. Already Mr. Colby, who will handle the property for the owners, has let the contract for grading the streets and putting the ground in condition for immediate improvement.

The lots are to be sold to actual settlers only, of whom a large number are now waiting to locate and commence building, and it is expected by the owners that forty or fifty families will be settled on this addition within the next ninety days. A sidewalk will be built at once from Broadway across Evans' Bridge addition and Benson's first, and every facility will be afforded the laboring men working on the Omaha side of the river to secure them cheap and comfortable homes here.

The addition in question lays very high and is entirely above any possible chance of inundation, and but a little more than one mile from the Omaha postoffice.

Other Omaha capitalists are also negotiating for acres in the bottoms, and the indications are that a very few weeks will see such a revival in the real estate business here as will surprise the oldest inhabitant.

On Saturday next Mr. L. Kinnehan will open his store, No. 326 Broadway. The stock will consist of boots, shoes and the goods usually found in this connection. All will be new, and a more complete stock cannot be found in the city. Mr. Kinnehan is well known to the readers of THE BEE, and it is sure that he will merit and receive a liberal patronage. Remember the opening.

Money loaned at L. B. Crafts & Co.'s loan office, on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

J. G. Tipton has bargains in real estate. Another New Organ. The new pipe organ for St. Francis Xavier's church has been set up, and the builder, Mr. Joseph Gratian, of Alton, Ill., will return to his home Monday. The instrument is a splendid one, of magnificent tone, and is enclosed in a handsome case of polished oak with black walnut trimmings. It is twenty feet high, and is placed in the spacious organ loft over the main entrance to the church. The cost of the organ was $3,000. Through the kindness of Mr. Will Gratian, organist of St. Paul's Episcopal church, and son of the builder, a BEE reporter was yesterday given an opportunity to hear the new instrument.

The effects to be obtained are wonderful as well as numerous. The bass is very heavy, and the flute notes are perfect. The tones are clear and distinct, and the instrument is possessed of very great volume. The method of control, using the stops is simple, and enables the organist to make any desired change without a break in the harmony. Mr. Gratian has several patents of his own, and professes to be able to turn out a pipe organ that will rival any made by any of the builders. He built the one now in use at St. Paul's church in this city. The one just completed contains nearly 1,300 pipes, and the metal used is of the finest grade, and improves with use instead of rapidly deteriorating and needing revoicing as is the case with many of these instruments. It will not be used publicly until after the consecration of the church, which will occur about the 1st of September. It is probable that a concert will be given to enable all to hear this grand instrument. It is credit both to the handsome church in which it is situated and to the builder, who shows that he understands the art as well as the trade of organ building.

Badly Mismatched. As the time draws near for the opening of the next term of the district court, petitions for divorce from parties dissatisfied with their present condition of servitude are coming in increased numbers. They set forth all kinds of charges and beg piteously for a judicial untying of the matrimonial knot.

The most interesting of these petitions is that of F. A. Campbell vs Adell Campbell. The petition sets forth that the couple were married on or about October 1, 1887, at Cedar Rapids, Ia.; that they went immediately to Davenport, City, and that after two weeks of matrimonial bliss the defendant left her husband and eloped with some stranger, whose name is unknown. The runaway wife, it is alleged, came to this city, where she has since resided. The petition says that since leaving her husband Mrs. Campbell has been leading a life of shame, and it prays the court to forever sever the marriage relations of the couple.

Another petition, almost as sensational, is that of Adalia White vs William I. White, which alleges the following: That Mr. and Mrs. White were married August 12, 1883, and the issue of said union has been two children, Bertha E., aged four years, and Earl, aged two years; that the defendant took his spouse to live with his mother, and the young wife has been abused and insulted before strangers by her mother-in-law, who tried to poison her by putting drugs in her food. The plaintiff further alleges that her husband has failed to support her, and she asks the court to release her from the marriage vows and besides giving her the custody of her two children allow her an alimony.

The divorce proceedings of George Foote vs Minnie Foote are brought for alleged infidelity.

Patrons of the Pacific House have none but words of praise for the attention given them.

A Boy With the Right Stuff. The news comes from the west that Charlie Bray, an old Council Bluffs boy, not so very old either, is prospering well in Wyoming, where he has recently sold two mines, from which he cleared $7,000 clean cash. He has sent to his father Theodore Bray, the well known livary man here, $3,000 to be deposited in one of the banks here. It is gratifying to Charlie's many friends to learn of his success, for he merits it. THE BEE takes special interest in his career. But a few years ago Charlie was one of THE BEE's force. He worked most faithfully. Morning after morning he drove to the river to meet the papers and bring them to the Council Bluffs readers. "Along a dreary road, in all sorts of weather, would have discouraged a boy of less pluck and energy. The readers of THE BEE at that time little realized what the trials and hardships were of the lad upon whom they had to depend for getting the news at their breakfast tables. A boy who has the energy and pluck to work up as Charlie has done will appreciate the success which he surely will win, and his friends cannot but rejoice with him.

In Memory of Sheridan. General Sheridan was a member of Union Veteran Legion No. 8, of this city, a fact which was noted at the time of his name being enrolled here, but which has passed out of the mind of many even here. In view of his membership being here, it is most befitting that special observance be taken of his death. Accordingly arrangements are being made for a service to be held next Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church. The church will be appropriately decorated, and the veterans will attend in a body. Rev. Dr. Phelps will preach the sermon, and the occasion will doubtless be one of great interest.
