Bathing in Mexico.

"Oh, is it true," demanded some scandalized young women from Boston, "that at Aguas Calientes one can see the people bathing by the roadside without any clothes on?" says a Mexican correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle. And the party interrogated was fain to admit that in the ditch running parallel with the horse car lines that lead to the excellent hot springs baths at that city, the lower orders, being unable or unwilling to pay the trifling fees at the baths, do bathe at ease in the lightest of apparel men, women and children, altogether with the simplicity of the Sandwich Islanders. And they may be seen, having no towels to dry themselves withal, sitting on the bank while the sun performs that office, the bare, brown backs glistening in the light, while a timely stitch is taken, perhaps, in a damaged raiment. And the scene is even more unamused than the landscape more thronged of Saturdays, when the masters give their servants a half holiday to "clean up on 'em." Nor is this sight peculiar to Aguas Calientes. And it must be said that the view inspires one observation—namely, that a brower skin in less than a week, and a shock of hair to modesty than a white one under the same conditions.

The Passenger Department of the Union Pacific.

"The Overland Route," has issued a neat little pamphlet, pocket size, entitled "National Platform Book," containing the Democratic, Republican and Prohibition Platforms, together with the addresses of acceptance of Grover Cleveland, Benjamin Harrison and Clinton B. Fisk; also tabulating the results of the primary vote of the electoral vote and an analysis of the vote as cast for Cleveland and Blaine in 1884.

This book is just what is needed at this time, and should be in the hands of every voter. It plainly sets forth what each party has to offer, and every reader can draw his own comparisons. Sent to any address on application. Address, J. S. TERBETTS, General Passenger Agent, Union Pacific Railway, Omaha, Neb.

Flambeau Torches.

We have secured the sole agency for the celebrated McCall's Patent Flambeau torch, the best and most popular of its kind in use.

We also carry an elegant line of campaign goods, and are prepared to furnish suits and uniforms at short notice, and at the very lowest prices.

ST. JOHN'S CHOIR.

Charming Music for North Omaha Episcopalians.

Last Sunday was the first service of the new choir of St. John's Episcopal church on North Twenty-sixth street. The choir consists of sixteen boys, supplemented by twelve ladies and six men. It is under the direction of Dr. P. H. Saxby, who has labored assiduously for two months to bring to choir up to the present standard of excellence the music sung in the church, and simple music of the English church, together with a Te Deum which was composed by Dr. Saxby expressly for the choir. The intention is to make the choir take its place in the service, and not use it merely as an attraction or advertisement for the church. The pastor, Rev. Wm. Osgood Leonard, has been striving for a year to raise the class of music in his church, and Dr. Saxby's assistance has arrived at a high standard of excellence. New voices will be added to the choir from time to time. The congregation appreciate highly the new acquisition to their church, as evidenced by the large and increased attendance at the church service at the Kountz Memorial church to organize and conduct this choir, for which his fine and conscientious and church musician make him peculiarly adapted.

A Pocahontas Story.

New York Sun: Unsentimental historians may prove if they can that such petty little stories as that of Pocahontas saving the life of Captain John Smith are mythical. We can substitute for the discredited narratives, if we desire, stories of more recent date and of undoubted truthfulness. Dr. Wolf says that while he was ascending the great Sankuru affluent of the Congo a number of the wild Bassongos-Mingo, who used to be called a white man, suddenly popped up out of the bushes one day, and aimed their arrows at the visitors as their steamer was approaching the shore only about a rod away. He says he had no doubt that the next instant a volley of arrows would have poured into the little crowd on deck, had not a woman in the dress of a native queen suddenly leaped among the throng of savages, struck to the ground the bow of one man, and in a twinkling led to his miasma fly, and in a tone of authority bade the rest of the crowd to unbend their weapons and else their warlike front. The brief command and cautionary gesture of this picturesque female had a magical effect upon her warrior subjects, who relaxed their bows and grinnings, and in a moment they were nervously beginning to finger their revolvers. In common with other life preservers, this Central African lady deserves a medal for the rapid transformation she wrought in the attitude of her people.

WANTS HIS MONEY BACK.

Meyer Hellman Sued For $15,000 Damages By A. B. Snowden. In the district court Frank R. Wasserman has sued the Knights of Pythias Building association to annul his subscription to its building fund and to recover $500 already paid thereon. He states that he subscribed for $5,000 worth of stock and paid in 10 per cent of it on the representation that a building would be erected on Farnam street within three months. The condition has not been fulfilled and he alleges that the association has given up the idea of building.

Thomas F. Brennan and Edward J. Brennan have sued the city for a balance of $14,157.77, claimed to be due for work on the city hall sub-basement. Their bill was $22,825.12 and they received in cash $8,667.35. Jeremiah Whalen is made a party to the defense. Whalen is a partner of the Brennans, and the petition recites: "That plaintiffs have endeavored to obtain the consent of said Whalen to be made a party plaintiff and have failed to obtain the same, and for that reason make him a party defendant."

Churchill Parker has begun a foreclosure suit against James E. Hainsworth for $100.

The mortgaged property, two lots in Pryn's and Millard & Caldwell's additions.

A. B. Snowden has sued Meyer Hellman for $15,000 damages. For several years Snowden occupied the south end of the first floor of the Hellman block, at Farnam and Thirteenth streets. The plaintiff alleges that for the purpose of injuring, annoying and persecuting him the defendant has prosecuted a series of suits, pretending the same to be for the purpose of getting possession of the store room mentioned in the petition. Ejectment were won by Snowden. One suit for rent in excess of the rate fixed in the lease was won by the tenant, but another is now pending. Another suit for ejectment has also been begun.
