The Flambeau Picnic.

There will be a grand excursion to Lake Manawa on the 19th, under the auspices of the Republican Flambeau club. All arrangements have been perfected for a splendid time, and there is a prospect of a very large attendance. Eloquent orators will be on hand and a band will enliven the proceedings with choicest music. Citizens generally, irre-spective of politics, are invited, and the managers guarantee a day well and profitably spent.

Barnegat Park.

This deservedly celebrated summer and winter resort for army and navy officers from the progress thus far made promises to eclipse all competitors as a resort. General Wheaton, the commanding officer at Fort Omaha, is a recent purchaser, and within the Omana, is a recent purchaser, and within the last two months over fifty officers have in-vested. Major John A. Payne is its travel-ing representative, and is at present located at the Paxton hotel, from which point he leaves, in a day or two, for the west. Colonel John B. Lamar, a prominent member of the Washington bar, is the founder of this at-tractive ndee.

lay all the other walks in the district this year, even if they were disposed to do so. Therefore: "It is reasonable to be supposed that not for new walks in the stone district. At least for new walks in the stone district. At least that seems probable to members of the board, who have given the matter a great more study than the public know of. "Now, then: "In addition to the stone will be wooden walks. In 1887 about $37,000 were put into the latter. The board do not expect to reach that amount this year, and $35,000 will be a fair figure. "What do we have?

"Instead of $1,000,000 put into sidewalks in 1885, the amount in all probability will come inside of $110,000,a little over one-tenth of the wild statement of the sidewalk inspector. "Some difference, eh?"

Chairman Balcombe, as well as Mr. Heim-rod, is somewhat nettled by the mistake and the reflection cast upon the board of public orks. He says: "Mr. Heimrod's right. We couldn't possibly order more than $120,000 worth of walks in the stone district. The wooden walks might and another $40,000, making $160,000, but the probability is that the whole expen-diture for 1885 will not exceed $120,000. It may be less." For new walks in 1888, $1,000,000. Think of it!

Paul Picken, a young German farmer from Washington county, was arrested at the St. Paul depot vesterday, charged with disorderly conduct. Picken is a stolid individual, little accustomed to the manners and modes little accustomed to the manners and modes of a life in a great city. He came to Omaha for the purpose of buying clothing. Yes-terday, with his bundle on his arm, he stood in the waiting room of the depot waiting for the outgoing train. A young lady, a Miss Lulu Brandon, came in and bought a ticket to Blair. Young Picken was evidently for-cibly smitten with Miss Brandon's charms, and after following her about the room for several moments, he suddenly clasped her in his stalwart arms, and imthe room for several moments, he suddenly clasped her in his stalwart arms, and im-printed a resounding kiss upon her fresh, young lips. The young lady screamed in affright, and struck the amorous young farmer over the head with her satchel. Then she called the depot policeman and Picken was rudely hustled off to the city bastile. GOOD BYE, HORSEY.

Planning to Substitute Cable for Horse

Cars. D. J. Miller, of New York, an expert cable engineer, arrived yesterday in the interest of the Horse Car company to prepare plans for the conversion of their lines into those of a cable system. He has already looked over a great deal of the ground, and has come almost to realize what is most dehas come almost to realize what is most de-sired for rapid transit in certain sections of the city. The system which it is intended to introduce is that of the American cable railway company. It will contain every im-provement that has been discovered since the first cable line was laid in New York. It will have two cables laid along the entire route. One cable will remain idle and the other be kept moving. The idle one will be used in the event of the other getting broke, thus saving the stoppage of all the ears, as is the ease where but one cable is used. When a cable breaks the conductor notifies the power de-partment and the idle cable is immediately put in motion, a delay of less than ten min-utes being experienced. The cars will be lighted with gas and will run at a speed, as lighted with gas and will run at a speed, as they do in New York, of from ten to twelve The lines which will be changed to the cable system first will be those of Farnam street and Park avenue and Twentieth and Saunders street. The grip will be a safer one than now used, the engineer being on a platform in front of the main car. The changes will be made with all possible speed.

Look Out for Him.

He is about 5 feet 10 inches in heighth, has his hair, mustache and goatee streaked with grey, and of a dark complexion. He is wanted grey, and of a dark complexion. He is wanted for attempting to commit an assault on a twelve-year-oid Bohemian girl named Annie Dolzeal, whom he met at about s o'clock Tues-day night near the corner of Twenty-seventh and K streets. He threw her down and en-deavored to stille her cries, but she managed to make a passer by named Mark Boutiel hear her and and he at once came to the res-cue. Her assailant at once made his escape, but his description is as above with the addi-tion that he was in his shirt sleeves, and wore a dark vest with the back lining nearly white. Who knows him?

Tuesday Night's Rally.

Republicans rallied around the corner of Twenty-Sixth and N streets Tuesday night to the strain of the "Red, White and Blue," as played by Pivonka's cornet band, then falling intoline, they marched to Pivonka's hall on Twen-ty-fourth street, where the president of the club, James H. VanDusen took the chair, and Dr. Smith as secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting. Other routine busi-ness followed, and the chair announced that the speakers from Omaha had been unavoid-able databand and it was an secretar that the the speakers from Omaha had been unavoid-ably detained, and it was suggested that the programme be filled in with home talent. The suggestion was acted upon, and cam-paign speeches were made by Colonel Savage, Attorney Lane, James H, VanDusen, and Thomas F. Elliott, after which some fiftcen or twenty voters became members of the club, and the meeting adjourned.

The Union Labor Party. night the members of the South Omaha union labor party attended in a body at the organization of a club in Omaha. They were present at the republican meeting Tuesday night and extended a challenge to those present to talk over the real issues of the day. Their challenge was accepted and the time and place will be arranged at once.

Another Rain Storm.

Once more a rain storm has caused trouble in police circles, and when Judge Reuther came and looked over the hand rail that prevents runaway strangers from falling into the police court, he looked at about two feet of water that covered the floor. Two of the prisoners were perched upon benches, and another was trying to work out his fine by sweeping out the water with a broom. The court at once adjourned and three or four men were put to work with pumps. Their united efforts cleaned the court room and the united efforts cleaned the court room and the adjoining saloon by 11 o'clock, when the two culprits were removed from their perch, and Al and Mike Giffen fined $3 and costs for being drunk and disorderly on such a stormy night. The storm again flooded Dave Loesch-er's saloon and did slight damage at the Del-monico, but otherwise was without feature.

Notes About the City.

City Attorney E. J. Doud has returned from his trip to Chicago. They are all hustlers in South Omaha if nothing else. Contractor John Condon secured a contract to grade N street at 11 a.m. Tuesday, and at 1 p.m. he was at work with his teams.

William Bartlett is in from the western country looking for a grading contract. He has the record of removing 50,000 yards in five weeks up near Deadwood for the Elk-horn railroad.

Honors to Sheridan.

A large number of the members of the Loyal Legion assembled at the Millard Tuesday evening for the purpose of discussing the merits of the late General Phil Sheridan, both as a soldier and a man, and to draw up a series of befitting resolutions. Several speeches were made by prominent speakers. among whom was General Brooke, who paid a glowing tribute to the great cavalry com-mander. He styled him not only a great genseral, but a true citizen of the American type. Speeches were made also by Major Paddock, Major Clarkson, Colonel Henry A. Morrow, and Captain John B. Furay.

Fined for Beating a Boy.

B. Stiner, a fruit peddler, who was arrested some days ago for brutally beating a boy came up for trial in the police court yesterday afternoon. The boy, who was not more than eight years old, in a spirit of mischief crept up to Stinor's wagon and abstracted four small green apple. The cagle eye of Stiner detected him in the act, and the boy, upon discovery, turned and made for home, with the infuriated Stiner on his trail. Stiner followed the boy, who had run to his mother for protection. Pushing the mother aside he grasped the boy and gave him a brutal thrashing. A warrant was duly issued for his arrest, and Judge Berka assessed him $10 and costs this afternoon.

The Morgue's Occupants.

Drexel & Maul, is still lying unclaimed at the morgue, and will be buried by them at their own expense.

George Sulko, the water boy on the Douglas street bridge, who was run over by a hand-car, was found by the coroner's jury to have met an accidental death as the result of his own carelessness. His family at Nebraska City have telegraphed here and the remains were forwarded home yesterday.

NEW SIDEWALKS IN 1888.

A Gross Error as to Their Cost Officially Corrected.

"Say !"

Louis Heimrod of the board of public works called.

"Did you hear of Sidewalk Inspector Allep's talk about sidewalks ?" "Yes.

"Well, it isn't right. It is calculated to make the people think the board of public works is wild and reckless. There are kickers enough without making more unnecessarily.

"Is it wrong!

"It is based on ignorance of the facts. Sidewalk Inspector Allen carelessly said that the board would this year order $1,000,-000 worth of sidewalks laid. 1

"What was the matter with Mr. Allen? "Don't know. But his thoughtless statement is the basis for a heavy editorial upon the enormous burdens put upon the people It is unnecessarily alarming. The public improvements - paving, sewering, etc., will probably cost $1,000,000. But $1,000,000 in sidewalks in 1858 is-well, it's absurd on the face of it. "What are the facts!

"What are the facts! "There is a district in the business part of town, you know, in which only stone or ce-ment walks are allowed. At 25 cents per equare foot, which is a fair average, all the walks in the stone district would not exceed $180,000 in cost. "But we know this: "About one-third of the walks in that dis-trict we're laid with stone previous to 1885. It is hardly possible for the contractors to

The Sheriff Getting Ready for the County Commissioners.

Sheriff Coburn smiles, Several guns have been fired in the campaign between himself and the county commissioners. The sheriff came out on top in the skirmish when County Attorney Simeral decided that he was entitled to a mileage of 10 cents per mile. The sheriff laughs.

The request to pay the county for the use of its jail in lodging Sarpy county and other outside prisoners amuses him, at least so far as the proposition relates to the past. He is not so sure about the future.

The sheriff will not divvy. He has been looking up the authorities, and is satisfied that the commissioners cannot make their retroactive resolutions binding. He will keep his pocket money. It amounted to nearly $2,300 last January. and there must now be over $3,000 inst January, Considerably more than half of it is clear profit. The sheriff is loading with ammuni-tion and will fight. He says the commissioners had better get out of reach of the gun. The Union Pacific is the only road running to the celebrated Clear Creek canyon in Colorado.
