Material has been hauled for paving the bridge, both on the wagon-way and between the rails. The planks are being covered with tarred paper, upon which will be laid rectangular cyprus blocks.

Joe Drople was picked up on the streets a week ago and brought to the police station. At the time he was found his actions were strange and erratic. Since he has been in the station he has developed a bad case of insanity, and is positively raveled. He is totally helpless and without friends, he was removed to the county poor farm yesterday.

The Nora Ross cutting case was to have come up in the police court yesterday afternoon. Charles Dice, the man who was wounded, as well as all witnesses, were not heard, but the regular cases before the court dragged along until it was too late to try it. The judge continued the case until this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and placed the Ross woman under bonds of $400 for her appearance.

Clarkson requests that as many as can do so will comply with the request.

Struck by a Train. William Hall was seriously injured Sunday morning by the dummy train between the transfer and the bridge. He was walking on the track and was struck by a passing train. One arm and leg were broken, and his head cut, but not seriously. He was brought to Omaha and taken to St. Joseph's hospital. Hall is an unmarried man of about thirty years of age, employed in cleaning cars for the Union Pacific.

Seeing the Sights. Horace Amory, an unphilosophical ruralist. He came to town Sunday evening and started out to see the sights. After devoting meanderings he brought up at Mattie Smith's dive on Capitol avenue near Tenth. He went in and came out again, but minus his hat. He said that he had seen the black as the ace of spades, sat upon his lap. He thinks she got his tickler, any way, he had her arrested, and she awaits a trial at the police station.

Robbed While Asleep. Thieves sneaked into the room occupied by S. B. and M. B. Letovsky, at 610 South Thirtieth street, some time Sunday night, and stole a gold watch from the vest pocket of the first named gentleman. The pockets of both were rifled, but barring a few nickels the slumbers had put their money in the safe at their side immediately before they had incautiously left their room open, and the thieves had thereby an easy ingress. There is no clue to the crooks.

Thrown from His Wagon. Dick Newcomb, a boy employed on the garbage wagon, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. While putting the covers on his wagon some one scared the horses. They started suddenly and threw him backward off the vehicle. To save his neck he threw his hands out behind him, landing heavily upon them. Both wrists were badly sprained and it will be some days before he can resume work. Dr. Ralph attended him at the station, and said that the sprains were very severe.

CAN THEY BE SAVED?

An Answer Worthy of Attention and Assistance. Mrs. Watson B. Smith, Mrs. J. C. Denise, and Mrs. G. W. Clark, respectively president, treasurer, and secretary of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, have issued the following appeal in answer to the above question:

To the above question—referring as it does to a certain class of persons heretofore regarded as outside the pale of salvation, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this city, impelled by its faith in the promises of God and what has been already accomplished in this direction, would express herewith its earnest conviction that they can be saved, and having with this object in view, established at number 3520 Capitol avenue an "open door" through which it is believed many souls may be enabled to "pass death into life." It would ask from this community aid in the enterprise through monthly pledges of funds for one year.

The articles most needed are: a range, refrigerator, sewing-machine, rocking-chair, window shades and carpets; also provisions of any kind, having already in the first week agents who have lost their lives. It is an appeal for help to provide for the eleven of these unfortunates to provide for. To-morrow, August 28, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., the ladies of the union will be in waiting at the home, and please on that occasion to receive their friends or donations.

A solid vestibule train daily, with dining car attached, via the Burlington route, leaves from their own depot, Omaha, at 3:45 p. m., arriving at Chicago 10 a. m. Tickets sold and sleeping car berths reserved at the city office, 1223 Farnam street. Telephone 250.

FLORENCE'S ELECTION. It will be held Wednesday for a New Mayor.

The little town of Florence is to make an effort on Wednesday next to elect a mayor to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Mr. Hall. There are two candidates in the field, John Lewis, who is a republican and Herbert M. Hunt, a democrat. The contest, it is said, will be a spirited one. Mr. Lewis is the most superior of the two, and Mr. Hunt is the treasurer of the Omaha and Florence Land and Trust company. The town has been somewhat disturbed by the retirement of the late mayor, the discharge of one marshal and the resignation of the second. The citizens are moving for a strong set of officers, because the prospects of the town require capable and efficient management.

Punishing Insurance Agents. The objection made some time ago by certain insurance agents of this city to the cutting of rates practiced by others of the craft has culminated in a move to have the funders expelled from the association. With this end in view, four of the cutters have been accused before A. M. Weir, secretary of the underwriters' association. It is claimed that one of the agents had written policies for nothing, that a second divided his commission of ten per cent and that a third dropped fifteen per cent. The charges will be heard some this week.

Drink Maitto for the nerves. IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS. Opening of the New Pennsylvania Line.

Trains of the Pan-Handle route leave Chicago for Cincinnati as heretofore from the Union passenger station, Canal, between Madison and Adams streets, but from August 19 their course between these two important commercial centers has been over a road that is under the exclusive management and control of the Pennsylvania lines its entire length. The route formerly was via the Pan-Handle route to Richmond, thence over the Cincinnati Hamilton & Dayton railroad to Cincinnati. The Chicago, St. Louis & Pittsburgh railroad—Pan Handle route—purchased that portion of the C. & H. D. railroad between Richmond and Hamilton, built a new line from Hamilton to Cincinnati, thereby securing in connection with its old, established thoroughfare from Chicago to Richmond a through line from Chicago to Cincinnati, which is just three hundred miles long, six miles shorter than any other through line in operation. Morning and evening express trains are run between these cities, solid via the new route; the day trains have comfortable coaches and Pullman sleeping cars. These trains arrive at Cincinnati on Monday, the 24th day of September, at 11:30 a. m. and leave for Chicago at 10:30 a. m. The new route will therefore be remembered by those who have occasion to go from Chicago to Cincinnati or via Cincinnati to the south. The line is well constructed and will be kept in the best condition. Its equipment is of high standard and the methods governing its operation are those which have placed the Pennsylvania system of railways first and foremost among the railways of the United States.

A Probable Mission Church. Rev. C. W. Savidge preaches his farewell sermon in the Seward street M. E. church on next Sunday. There is a move on foot to establish a non-sectarian mission church in the eastern part of the city of which Mr. Savidge may be the pastor. It is thought the matter be decided upon next Wednesday. If it should not be, it is likely the restoration mission will be assigned elsewhere, as the conference meets in Central City on the fifth of next month.

"WHITE WINGS" GREW WEARY.

And Threw Her Voyagers into the Lake—A Successful Rescue. Cut-off lake Sunday afternoon was the scene of what nearly proved to be a fatal accident. The yacht "White Wings," with a party of six men and a boy of about seven years of age, capsized in the most dangerous part of the lake, just around the bend above the second ice-house. Only two of the party appeared to be able to swim and they at once headed for the shore when they found that boat was sinking, the others clinging to the wreck and shouting for help. The boy was a leafy and his pathetic gestures while being held above water by one of his companions were very affecting. Messrs. George Clements and Charles Anderson happened to be bathing about fifty yards away, and immediately jumped into their boat and hurried to the scene, picking up the two swimmers en route, one of whom was very much exhausted. Although the rescuing boat was quite a large one, it was hardly big enough to hold the whole party, and two of the immersed had to cling to the stern and submit to be towed ashore. It was a heavy load and a second boat coming up two of the men were transferred to it, and in this way terra firma was safely reached. The rescuers were profuse in their expressions of gratitude for deliverance. But the rescuers seemed to think it was "jolly good fun" and quietly rowed away.
