The party at the residence of Mrs. Marshal Key, on Seventh street, last evening was a brilliant affair. The occasion was the debut in society of the hostess' charming daughter, Miss Mary. Several anonymous communications for publication have been received at this office, but it will be impossible to take any notice of any matter un-less the full name of the author is appended.

Mr. M. Gallagher and Miss Eva Gray were married by Rev. B. P. McMe-nomy, Tuesday afternoon. A ball in honor of the event was given in the spacious halls of St. Joseph's academy in the evening.

The sewer opening at the corner of Eighth street and First avenue emits a deadly smell. One would think that the alderman who passes there every evening would take steps to have the nuisance abated.

The Initial Paint market narrowly escaped being consumed Tuesday night. A timely discovery of the flames, by ex-Chief Templeton, who promptly applied a few pails of water, was all that averted a serious conflagration.

The United Brethren in Christ society, of Avoca, have filed articles of incorporation with the county recorder. The incorporators are S. H., G. W. and Amos Poland, Joseph Mapes, A. A. Randall and Cyrus True.

The saloon raiders were abroad in the land yesterday afternoon. Henry Holst's place was visited, but the searchers found nothing with which to satisfy their thirst. Some of the liquor seized a few days ago at the bottling works of Seivers & Boysen was ordered returned, as Justice Schurz declared the seizure illegal.

Deputy United States Marshal Duncan arrived in the city with one Romeo Smith, of Creston, charged with violating the internal revenue law by sell-ing whisky without a license. He was examined before Commissioner Hunter and bound over to the next term of the United States court in the sum of $300 which he furnished and was released.

A healthy lot of vags were rounded up last evening in the railroad yards in the southern part of the city. They were landed in the cooler, where they gave a concert of an hour's duration that would have been a credit to many of the so-called first class companies that are billed in this city. An investigation disclosed the fact the company was in reality the lonesome remains of a prosperous minstrel company of a few months ago.

Pure Milk Wanted.

Sealed proposals will be received on or before Sept. 1, 1888, at the office of the superintendent of the lowa institution for the education of deaf and dumb, Council Bluffs, Ia., for furnishing the said institution good, unadulterated, pure milk, in quantities as the institution may require, and at such times as may be directed by the proper officers.

Also to furnish pure cream under requirements as above stated. Bids should be endorsed, "Proposals to furnish milk and cream," and addressed to the Hon. The Iowa state branch of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Congregational church, has chosen Council Bluffs as its place of meeting October 10 and 11. Many of the most intelligent ladies of the state are engaged in this work, and doubtless the sion of the board will be full of interest and profit to Christian people of all denominations. The meeting will be open to all, both ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. Elizabeth Wageck has filed an information against Mary Allen, charging her with assault and battery. THE POOL OF BETHESDA

It Has Been Discovered at Last With Considerable Certainty.

Pall Mall Gazette: "We have generally an announcement to make, but not often of so much importance as that of this day. It is the discovery of the pool of Bethesda." So writes Mr. Walter Besant, in the Quarterly Statement. issued by the Palestine Exploration Fund. He is jubilant, as all Palestine enthusiasts are likely to be, that a vexed question in regard to a site is apparently settled forever. Bethesda is mentioned only by the evangelist. In the fifth chapter of his evangelist. In the fifth chapter of fils gospel John says: "Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market [or gate] a pool which is called in the He-brew tongue, having five porches." The word translated "pool" in the author-ized version is given by some authori-ties as "swimming bath," and the phrase "pool by the sheep market" is possibly better rendered "sheep pool." Euseblus explains the occasional red color of the water of this "sheep color of the water of this "sheep pool" as being a trace of the carcasses of sheep washed in it before sacrifice; hence the name. There were, according to the evangelist, five porches, or porticoes around These, Dr. Geikie thinks, the pool. charity built for the accommodation of sufferers. It seems to us, however. equally probable that they formed part of the original scheme for the bath. Five porticoes would seem to imply a pentagonal structure, but this is by no neans essential. A rectangular pool. with a portico on every side, divided by with a portico on every side, divided by one across the middle, would answer the description. "Bethesda" (a He-brew name which was very probably in-vented by John) may mean either "house of mercy" or "the place of the pouring forth" of water.
