George D. Koehler and Hattie Gouser, both of this county, were yesterday licensed to wed.

Officer Fowler is performing the duties of captain of police during the absence of Captain Dyer, in Nebraska. The proprietors of the Manhattan cigar store have made arrangements by which the Chicago market reports are received every half hour. Arissa, the sixteen months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O'Donnell, was buried yesterday afternoon from the Hazel Dell Presbyterian church.

Mr. J. A. Murphy has contracted with the Council Bluffs and Omaha bridge company to erect a car house which is to be 55x150 feet in size.

John F. Stockdale, Union Pacific engineer, vesterday purchased of H. J. Chambers, through the real estate agency of J. G. Tipton, a neat cottage home near the transfer. F. J. Day, the leading real estate dealer, sold three lots on Broadway yes-terday and one the day before, making several other sales of property in the western portion of the city. It is proposed to give the children a day at Lake Manawa, and it is announced that free transportation will be furnished all under fifteen years of age on any day which may be fixed for their special benefit. The walls of the new power house for the electric motor company are about completed, and the workmen will begin work to-day on the beds for the heavy engines, that are respectively 150 and 100 horse power. John Beno & Co., the leading dry goods firm in Council Bluffs, is having a most favorable call for the celebrated Clark's O. N. T. Spool Cotton, particularly the FAST black. This cotton is only on white spools. Ask for the O. N. T.

The Sunday school of the new Methodist mission held at the residence of Dr. Gordon, had a picnic at the riding park Wednesday. Over seventy chil-dren besides about a dozen grown per-sons were present, under the manage-ment of Mrs. Witter.

One of Omaha's leading citizens was on this side of the river yesterday, and reported that fifty of the employes of the smelting works were making preparations to build residences on the east bank of the "Big Muddy." This is but a very small percentage of the number who will move over within the next

There was a lively runaway on William avenue yesterday afternoon. A horse attached to a phaeton dashed rapidly along until one of the wheels collided with a hitching post. The wheel stopped short never to go again, but the remainder of the vehicle passed quickly out of sight. The buggy was empty, and no one was injured. The banner over the entrance to the room of the democratic club is a beautiful decoration to the front of the building, an ornament as well as an honor to the club, and gives credit to the painter, H. P. Niles. Besides the sign aunouncing the place which it designates is artistically painted a fine center piece, the American eagle and a large horseshoe being in the design and elab-

J. R. Rice, Frank Cook and F. J. Day have purchased lots on Lower Broadway and will at once proceed to erect brick real estate offices. They will be ready for occupancy within a month. This move is made necessary by the rapidly increasing trade in real the western portion of the city. The deals in bottom dirt now number several dozen each day. With the opening of the bridge the demand for lots in the western part of the city will be more than quadrupled.

James O'Reilly, who for about a year was proprietor of the opera house barber shop, disappeared Saturday night and has not been hear of in the Bluffs Several confiding creditors mourn his departure. He was a good barber but lately he got to "rushing the the growler" and "bucking the wheel' too frequently. The wheel and the growler together bowled him out. His aggregate liabilities were probably not over $100. The shop was at once taken possession of by two other good barbers and will continue open.

The Greendale polo club is now thoroughly organized and anxiously waiting for an opportunity to take the conceit out of any and all rivals who come. The club is composed of twenty couples, ladies and gentlemen, who have supplied themselves with neat and appropriate uniforms. Thomas Green is reported to be rapidly mastering the mys-teries of the exciting game, and prom-ises to soon become the champion of the club. A similar club is now being or-ganized in Omaha, and it is expected they will soon be ready to meet our

F. H. Hill and P. C. De Vol, two of the Council Bluffs delegates to the Denver convention, returned home yesterday. The other members will be home to-morrow evening. They are having splendid time, and taking in the beautiful scenery. The returned delegates say that the convention is a "big and that it is exciting more attention throughout the country than was generally believed. There were over three hundred delegates from Texas. The convention has gone to work in good earnest, and will doubtless carry their point.

The Glen avenue paving will be completed to-day, and the Broadway pav-ing to-morrow. This will finish E. A. Wickham & Co's contract for the the present. Their force will then be transferred to Nebraska City, where they have a contract. As soon as the sewer and gas mains on Sixth and Seventh streets are completed, they will return here and put down about eight thousand yards of cypress paving in that part of the Fourth ward. The work already done is strictly first-class, and reflects great credit on this well-known firm of contractors. The rowing regatta that was to have been held at Lake Manawa on or about September 6 has been given up. Dr. Seibert, president of the Council Bluffs rowing association, was interviewed concerning the matter, and stated that on account of not wishing to interfere with the Omaha fair, the projectors of the enterprise had given it up, and the committee that had been appointed to solicit subscriptions to defray the expenses of the regatta has been dis-charged. Thus Council Bluffs has lost another opportunity to advertise-herself. As to the regatta interfering in any way with the Omaha fair, the idea is absurd. There will be so many people in Omaha on the 6th of September that the overflow would have made the Manawa regatta a success.

A Decision That the Grand Jury May Dictate.

MATRIMONIALLY DISCONNECTED.

The Board of Trade-Fairmount Lake is Out of Water-Ile Abused His Wife - Court Items - Personal Paragraphs.

The District Court.

But little was done in court yesterday morning aside from charging the grand jury, which Judge Loofbourow did in a lengthy talk. It was 11:20 when this business was concluded and the jury instructed to retire. The one point of difficulty which had been raised and discussed and taken under advisement by the court was the question of jurisdiction of this grand jury in cases occurring in the eastern part of the county. A law came into effect the 1st of last July establishing a separate jurisdiction by a grand jury drawn from men living in the eastern portion of the county in connection with the Avoca court. This grand jury having been drawn prior to the going into effect of that law, it was a question if it had a right to act on account of its including some members drawn from the eastern part of the county. The decision of the judge was that this jury should act but only in cases brought to its atten-tion as having occurred in the western part of the county or that portion west of the west line of range 40. The seven jurors drawn from the twelve for the work of this term are Thomas Leonard, Hazel Dell; Henry Heywood, Garner; O. B. Dutrow, Crescent; Mike Goodwin, Boomer; James Rainbow, Silver Creek; Nick Kirsch, Lewis, and S. V. Pratt,

The equity case of James Rice vs. O. D. Jones was argued and submitted to the court. The remainder of the day was devoted to the hearing of divorce cases, and several mismated couples were unspliced. Among these were the cases of Julia Crocker vs Felix Crocker, Mary E. Hecker vs Joseph Hecker, and Jane Pileing vs Thomas Pileing.

The following is the assignment of aw causes for next week: Monday-Nos. 2541, 8975, 4166, 4545.

Tuesday—4649, 4724, 4769, 4770, 4790. Wednesday—4853, 4854, 4898, 4933‡, 4950, 4959, 4996, 5001. Benson & Shepherd have one lot on Avenue B, directly north of water works, at a bargain. Call to-day if you want a snap.

Coal Proposals Wanted.

Sealed proposals will be received on or before September 1, 1888, at the office of the superintendent of the Iowa institution for the education of deaf and aumb, Council Bluffs, Ia., for furnishing said institution with coal for the year commencing September 1, 1888, said coal to be delivered in the bins of said institution. Bidders will give the price on each grade of coal, together with such recommendations or references as to quality as they may elect; a sample car load of the coal to be furnished and a bond for the faithful carrying out of the terms of the bid will be required when the award is made. Bids should be indersed "proposals for coal" and addressed to the Honorable Board of Trustees of the Iowa Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb. The board reserves the right to reject any or all HENRY W. ROTHERT, Superintend-ent.

In the Police Court.

In the police court this morning Tom McVickers, W. Hayes, R. McDonald, William Payton and Bert Lisbon were arraigned for having obstructed the Milwaukee and Rock Island trains last evening. It seems that these fellows, who are tramps, got on the train and refused to get off until pulled by the police. Their cases were continued.

Tom Walker, a Wabash brakeman, was up for being drunk and abusing his wife. Tuesday night, it seems, Walker, who resides in the western part of the city, went home drunk and became very abusive to his wife, who is lying ill with fever. Mrs. Walker tried to prevail upon her husband to quit his abuse. This only encouraged the brute, and he hit his wife several blows in the face, causing her nose to bleed quite freely. Neighbors interfered and the fellow was at last quieted. Wednesday evening Walker got drunk again, and fearing violence to his sick wife, the chief of police was sent for. Officer Fowler was dispatched to the Walker residence and shortly returned with the wifebeater under his wing. His case was continued. Walker is now under bonds to appear before the grand jury for assaulting a Burlington "scab" with a coupling pin some time ago.

A tailor giving the name of O'Dennis was sent to the county jail for thirty days for being drunk. O'Dennis' carcass is completely saturated with "old rye," and he is on the verge of having an attack of "snakes." Probably a month in jail will do him good. Charles Phillips, another tailor, was fined $7.60 for being drunk. Joe Mills and Fred Sissons, two Omaha bootblacks, while passing Biederman's clothing store on Broadway, nipped two suits of clothes from racks upon the sidewalk and ran around the corner of Bryant street to the alley. An officer was put on their track and arrested them. They were given fifteen days in jail each. The clothing was identified by Mr. Biederman and returned to him.

Water for Fairmount Park. Some difficulty has been experienced by the park commissioners in securing for Fairmount park a supply of water even with the pumping apparatus and the cisterns now in use. The new lake, too, has given some trouble on account of its having been filled with water before the proper time had come for so doing. A new idea has been formed and a survey has been made with a view to carrying into effect its plans. From Tenth avenue at its entrance to the park on the west it is proposed to attach to the water main a pipe which will run up the hill to a point twenty feet above the bottom of the settling reservoir, then pass through the hill a distance of 150 feet, when it will have a fall of thirty feet to the lake.

This plan if carried into effect will insure a supply of water in the fountain without further effort necessary on the part of the commissioners. With supply of ice water on the highest point in the park, the liquid furnished by the pumping process already established, and the proposed supply of water to the lake below, there can be no complaint against the management of the concerns of this most excellent park in its matter of accommodating features.

Fresh Meat Wanted.

Sealed proposals will be received on or before September 1, 1888, at the office of the Superintendent of the Iowa In-stitution for the Education of Deaf and Dumb, Council Bluffs, Iowa, for furnishing said institution fresh meat in such quantities as may be ordered, and at such times as may be directed. The bidder must state in detail the kinds and cuts of meat, as well as quantity, giving price of each. Also whether with or without bone, and so word proposition as to be easily understood every particular, and the cost of meat arrived at. Bidder, at his option, can offer prices on Bologna Sausage, Link Sausage, Sugar Cured Ham, Bacon and Bids should be endorsed, "proposals for meat," and addressed to Hon. Board of Trustees of the Iowa Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Allen is Spoiling for a Fight. For some time there has been considerable rivalry between some of the local pugs. A few of the lesser lights in the fistic world are of the opinion that Tommy Brooks, the lightweight champion of this neck of the woods, is not as good a man as he claims to be, and are anxious to meet him in the ring. It has been surmised for some little time that a match would be arranged. Yesterday the following challenge was left at THE BEE office for publication:

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., August 30, 1888. Thomas Brooks.—I hereby challenge you to meet me at any place within fifty miles of Council Bluffs, to fight to a finish with bare knuckles or with three ounce gloves or lighter, for $50 a side, the winner to take the entire stakes. The mili to be fought within two weeks from date. CHARLES ALLEN.

Chords Upon the Organ. The benefit concert at St. Francis Xavier's church last evening was very largely attended. The spacious structure was filled, nearly every seat being occupied. There had been considerable curiosity for some time to hear the splendid new organ, and the curiosity of the public was gratified and their highest expectations realized. An organ recital can be little else but dull for the majority of people, yet the programme last evening was so interspersed with vocal selections that the audience was well entertained, and remained until the last number was executed. The wonderful tones and effects of the grand instrument were fully brought out by Mr. W. C. Marshall, organist of All Saints', Omaha, Mr. W. J. Gratian, organist of St. Paul's, of this city, and Mr. Hansen, a bind organist, of Boone. Solos were rendered by the well known vocalists, Mrs. Fannie Kellogg-Bachert, Mrs. M. J. O'Neil and Mr. J. M. Trey nor, and a duett by Mrs. Bachert and Mr. Treynor. The united choirs of the Catholic and Episcopal churches sang two relections with pleasing effect.

The concert was a grand success, and netted the Catholic ladies several hundred dollars. The church will be con-secrated in a short time, and the organ will then take a prominent place in the services of the church, as high mass will then be celebrated. Much was expected of the organ, and the hopes vere not misplaced, as the instrumen reflects credit upon the builder, and is a valuable addition and ornament to the beautiful church for which it was

The board of trade met last evening and demonstrated the fact that the organization is not dead, as many suppose. President Wells was in the chair. Relative to the matter of forming a stock company for the enlargement of the business of manufacturing paper now conducted by Mr. Henry Coker, that gentleman appeared and gave to the board a statement of the value of the present plant; what is required to enlarge its capacity; the cost of manufac turing the goods and the profits in the business. Tee following committee was appointed by the chair to perfect a stock ompany and solicit takers for stock: Messrs. F. J. Day, George F. Wright, C. R. Hannan, C. A. Beebe, Ferd Weis

Dan Farrell, E. H. Merriam, W. A. Moore, E. L. Shugart, Thomas Officer and John Beno. In the matter of the T. L. Armstrong company's broom factory the committee reported favorably to giving them site, but adversely as to donation of money. The secretary was instructed to ascertain what sites were available and make the company a tender of the same. The case of Baker, Giles & Bur-ton, of Chicago, manufacturers of a selfmeasuring oil tank, the report of the committee was the same as above and the secretary received the same in-
